"My first game at what was then Hemingway Stadium was in 1960 when Ole Miss played LSU, and I had never been more excited than I was that day. Of course, the stadium is much larger and more impressive now than when I played. I love the oncampus experience at Ole Miss, starting with The Grove, the team taking the short walk to the stadium and the overall atmosphere of gameday."

- Archie Manning

REBEL FAMILY

"The word F-A-M-I-L-Y is a big part of our program. The 'F' stands for faith in one another. We have to care more about the guy sitting next to us if we are going to be successful. 'A' stands for attitude. We have to define who we are to ourselves and not pay attention to how others define us. 'M' is for mental toughness. We will change the lives of young men and make them mentally tough for all that life has to throw at them. 'I' is for integrity. We have to tell each other the truth. The 'L' is my favorite. It stands for the love we have to have. We are going to love one another. 'Y' is for you. It is for everyone who loves this place."

- Head Coach Hugh Freeze

"This place is really one of a kind. As soon as I got to see it for myself, I knew 100 percent this is where Evan belongs."

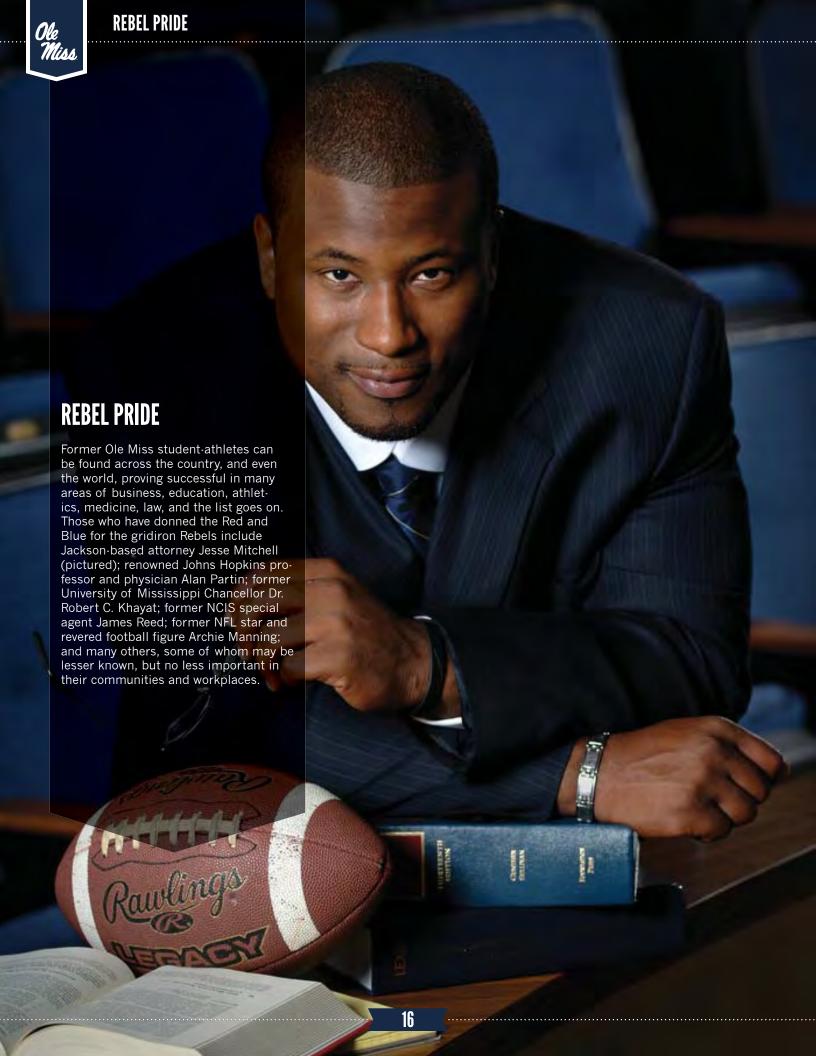

- Michelle Zelina, Evan Engram's mom Also pictured - Mackenzie Engram (sister), Derrick Engram (dad)

"Coach Freeze, I can entrust him with my child. And the coaching staff has treated us so well. There's a warmth that we get when we come over. And The Grove experience is just so awesome."

"The coaching staff is just awesome from the top down. It's been wonderful. I think God has chosen the perfect place for us."

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, "Landshark" is a term adopted by the Rebel football team's defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players will celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of "fins up" also contributes to the players' persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the "Landshark" celebration, Ole Miss student-athletes from other sports have also performed the hand gesture as a tribute to their fellow Rebels on the football team.

Roots of the "Landshark" at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl.

Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-Americans Peria Jerry and Greg Hardy and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term "Landshark" originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the "Landshark."

"I've never been a quitter. It's not in my heart to give up. I don't think it should be in anybody's heart. I may give out, but I'll never give up."

Chucky Mullins

CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARD

Roy Lee "Chucky" Mullins was born on July 8, 1969, in Russellville, Alabama. After his mother's death when he was in the seventh grade, and at his request, Chucky was placed under the guardianship of Carver and Karen Phillips.

Chucky graduated from Russellville High School in 1988. He earned all-conference, all-area and all-state honors in football as a junior and senior. He was team captain and most valuable player on his high school team. He also earned three letters in football, basketball and baseball.

Because of his athletic and leader-ship abilities, Chucky was awarded a four-year scholarship to Ole Miss, and he arrived on campus in the summer of 1988. He was redshirted in 1988 but later saw action as a "nickel" defensive back for the Rebels and was rapidly emerging as a defensive force in the Southeastern Conference.

Tragically, his injury on Oct. 28, 1989, in the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt ended his football career and left him paralyzed. He was treated at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis until February 1990, when he was transferred to Spain Rehabilitation Center in Birmingham.

Chucky's battle with his physical disability and his undefeatable spirit changed the University of Mississippi. For months after the tragic accident, Chucky endured the grueling challenges of rehabilitation. During the difficult time, Chucky's gritty determination and positive spirit touched the lives of literally hundreds of people. More than a million dollars was raised for the Chucky Mullins Trust Fund. He was visited in the hospital and later at home by such stars as Walter Payton, Janet Jackson and President George Bush. Chucky's accident and his unbroken spirit transcended football. The people of Mississippi, the South and the entire United States rallied around this remarkable young

When Chucky returned to Oxford in August 1990 to begin living in the specially-equipped house built by the Trust Fund donations, he announced a determination to return to Ole Miss and pursue a degree. Against all odds, in January of 1991, he did return to the classroom. However, on May 1, 1991, as he prepared for class, he suddenly stopped breathing. Rushed to the hospital, he never regained consciousness and died five days later from complications resulting from a blood clot.

While Chucky did not have a long life, it was a particularly special one. His teammates and coaches said Chucky was a teacher. He taught others how to live their lives to the fullest and how to maintain their focus on the truly important aspects of a precious life. In the state of Mississippi, Chucky Mullins will be forever young and never forgotten.

In the spring of 1990, the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity at Ole Miss initiated the Chucky Mullins Courage Award to be given each spring to an outstanding defensive player, who is chosen by the Rebel coaching staff.

Recipients are presented the award at the Chucky Mullins Courage Award banquet, with the proceeds from the banquet going to a special fund created to help Ole Miss students that are involved in serious accidents.

Each award recipient receives a framed Mullins jersey and has the honor of wearing Mullins' No. 38 on the field the following season. In 2006, the number was officially retired, joining Archie Manning's No. 18 as the only retired numbers in the Rebels' storied football history. A 38 patch, rather than the jersey number, was worn from 2006 until 2010. The decision was made in March 2011 for the jersey to remain retired and be worn only by the Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner each year.

On Sept. 26, 2014, Coliseum Drive on the Ole Miss campus was renamed Chucky Mullins Drive, honoring his life and influence in the most visible and enduring way.

Senior defensive end John Youngblood is the 26th different player to win the Chucky Mullins Courage Award and will wear #38 on the field this fall. Youngblood has been a leader among the Landshark defensive players throughout his tenure and has been a model citizen and scholar off the field. Like Mullins, he is an Alabama native, hailing from Trussville.

HOLY GRAIL - OF TAILGATING SITES

-THE SPORTING NEWS

THE GROVE

Regarded as one of the world's top sporting traditions, tailgating on football Saturdays at Ole Miss is one of those activities that every sports fan should take the opportunity to indulge in at some point in their life. Ten acres of lush green grass, watched over by majestic oak trees in the middle of the Ole Miss campus, are transformed from a tranquil picnic spot into tailgating paradise when thousands of football fans crowd into every corner of the land. Weaving through the myriad of red and blue tents, one is bound to encounter a few of the most extravagant set-ups in all of tailgating · fine china, chandeliers, big-screen satellite TVs. Of course, many tents are a bit simpler, but the unique atmosphere still encourages sundresses and high heels for the ladies and coats and ties for the men. Food and drink are abundant. "Hotty Toddy" can always be heard chanted among the trees. Champions walk through it. There is nowhere else like it. It is ... The Grove.

Nation's No. 1 Tailgating School (Sports Illustrated)

Top Tailgating Spot (Tailgater Monthly)

"The Holy Grail of tailgating sites" (The Sporting News)

"The mother and mistress of outdoor ritual mayhem" (New York Times)

"The mecca of tailgating in American sports" (Columbia Missourian)

"In Oxford lies the most magical place on all of God's green, football playing Earth: the Grove." (SI on Campus)

"I've been at ESPN 27 years and I've always wanted to come to this place, The Grove. It's the most beautiful place I've ever been."

- Lee Corso, ESPN College GameDay (Oct. 4, 2014)

"I can say in definitive terms that there isn't a better place to spend a college football Saturday than at The Grove, followed by an SEC battle at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium."

- Mel Kiper Jr., ESPN

WALK OF CHAMPIONS

Rebel players and coaches have paraded through The Grove and been greeted by thousands of admirers approximately two hours before each football game since 1983.

See page 199 for the history of The Grove.

Visit OleMissFB.com for "Tailgating Tips."

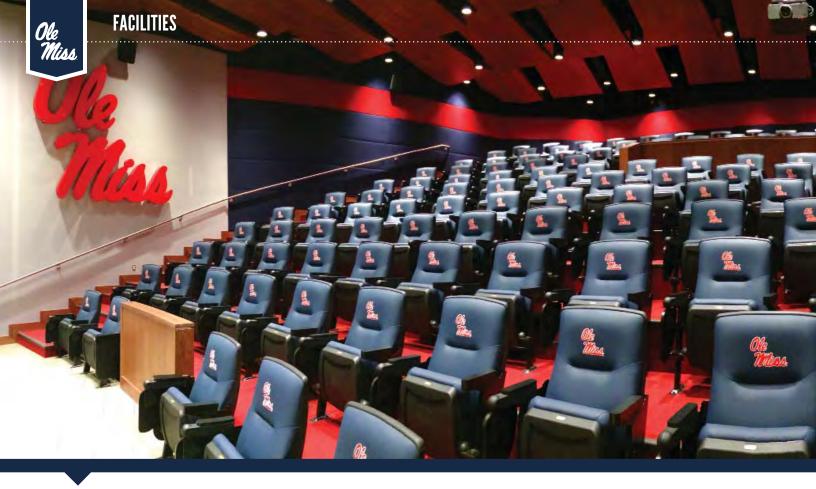

The gameday atmosphere on the Ole Miss campus is second to none, and fans have shown their loyalty by buying up all the season tickets for the fourth straight year in 2016. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field has been filled to capacity over the past three years, breaking the season attendance record twice in that span. The newly expanded north end zone has increased capacity to 64,038, making it the largest stadium in Mississippi.

FORWARD TOGETHER CAMPAIGN

Fans who attend a game at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium this year will be treated to a facility and atmosphere that is even better than ever before. As part of the $200 million Forward Together capital campaign, the north end zone has been closed in to increase capacity to 64,038, and the entire north side of the stadium is being transformed into an exciting new "front door" for Ole Miss Athletics. When the project is complete, fans will enjoy a new plaza, bell tower and green space at the north side of the stadium that will connect with the Walk of Champions that leads all the way from The Grove, site of the nation's best and most unique tailgating experience. Stadium enhancements for 2016 also include new videoboards, sound system, stadium lights and a natural grass playing field for the first time since 2002. The south end zone has been renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites have been refinished.

Visit ForwardTogetherRebels.com for more information on the campaign. See page 203 for more information on Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

MANNING CENTER

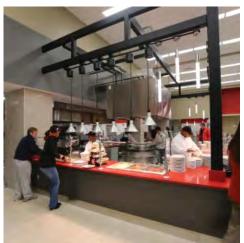

The Rebels' luxurious indoor practice facility that the football team has called home since 2004 was made even more spectacular with a $12.5 million renovation and expansion in 2013. It also received a new name: the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center, to honor the mother and father of the "First Family of Football." Ole Miss boasts some of the most exquisite facilities in the country. Among the upgrades was the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall named the Grill at 1810 that provides a daily nutrition center for all Ole Miss studentathletes. The Rebels also enjoy an impressive new team meeting room, renovated and expanded locker room, renovated and expanded weight room, and an interactive foyer to welcome recruits and other guests.

(Above) - The Roland and Sheryl Burns Team Meeting Room seats about 200 people and boasts state-of-the-art audio/video equipment.

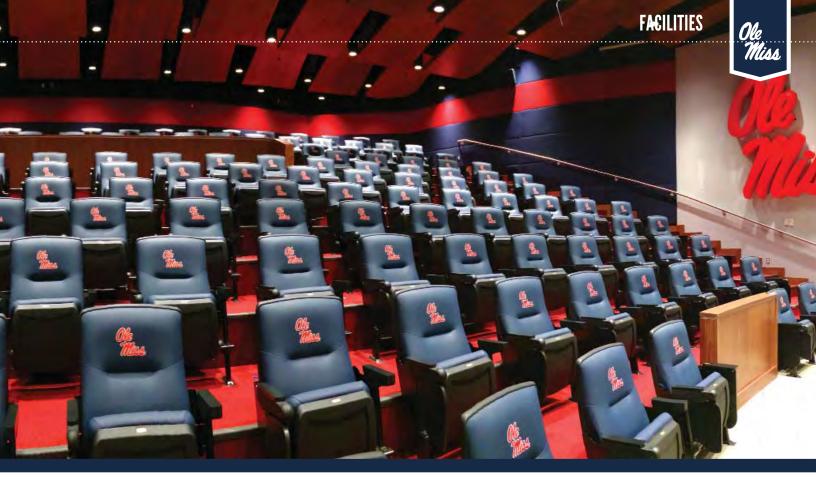

(Right, clockwise) - The front door to the Manning Center; The Grill at 1810 offers nutritious meal plan options to keep the Rebels healthy and strong; The Williams-Reed Football Foyer pays tribute to Rebels' rich tradition; NFL hallway outside the team meeting room.

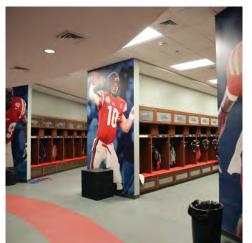

LOCKER ROOM

The Rebels' locker room is no ordinary one. A massive renovation and expansion gave the players access to new lounge areas with video games, arcade games, pool and ping pong tables, computer work stations, a kitchenette and an abundance of couches and chairs. A two-chair barber shop is one of the most exciting new features in the locker room. Renamed the Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room, it gives Ole Miss players easy access to the indoor field, the Mattingly Family Equipment Room and the training room.

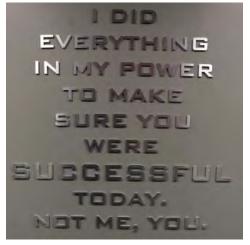

See page 204 for more information.

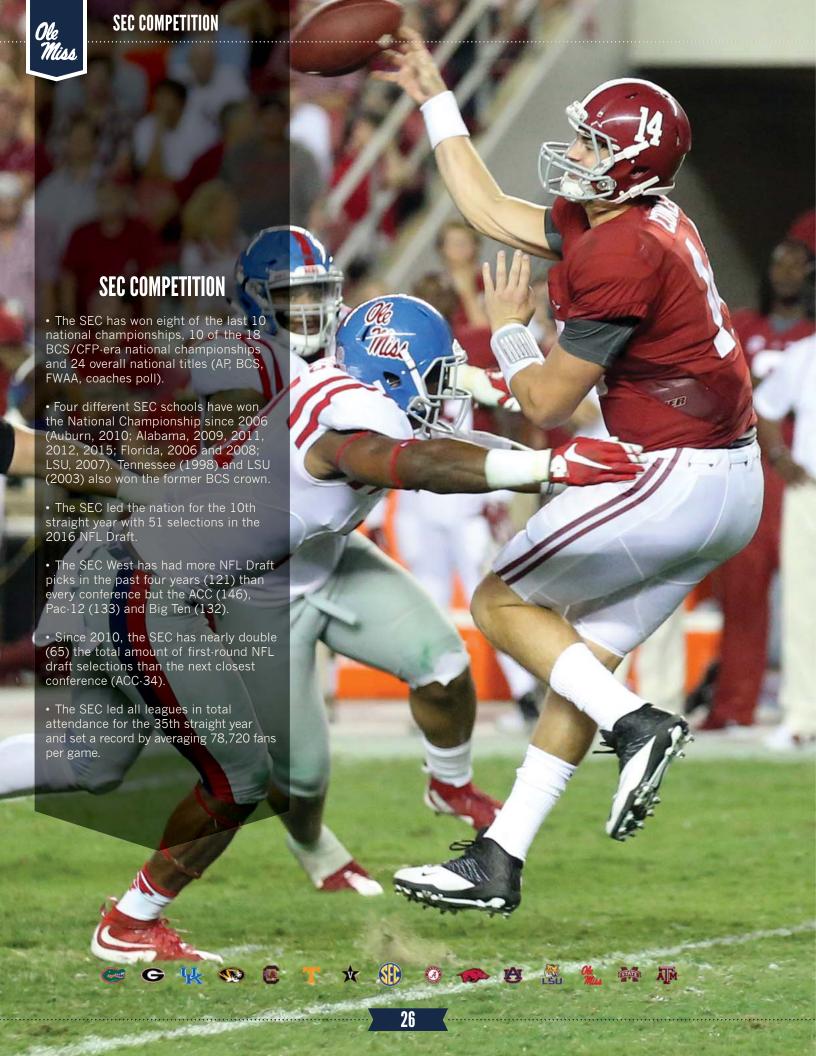

(Right, clockwise) - Lockers are wide and open, and former Ole Miss All-Americans, NFL stars and other football alums are recognized throughout the facility; Players don't even have to leave the facility to get a fresh haircut; Players are greeted by inspirational quotes on a regular basis; There are several lounge areas connected to the main locker room.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. Under Derek Cowherd, the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development, Ole Miss has made great strides in improving the environment for student-athletes. Numerous full-time academic counselors, learning specialists and tutors assist Cowherd, and the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center provides the perfect environment for learning.

Last year, Ole Miss football placed 28 total players on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls. A total of 20 players earned their degrees, making it 97 graduates during the four-year tenure of head coach Hugh Freeze.

The football team's grade point average in spring 2016 was its highest ever, and the team has steadily improved its graduation rates (up to 80 percent in 2015-16) and academic progress rates (APR) since 2012.

Among all sports, Ole Miss had 201 student-athletes named to 2015-16 SEC Academic Honor Rolls, while hitting a 3.00 cumulative GPA as a student-athlete body for the first time in school history.

Ole Miss golfer Forrest Gamble was named the 2015-16 SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year and is a two-time Academic All-American. He graduated in May with a 3.97 GPA and a degree in physics.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETICS

In 2015-16, Ole Miss was the nation's only school to win nine regular-season football games, 20 regular-season men's basketball games and 40 regular-season baseball games.

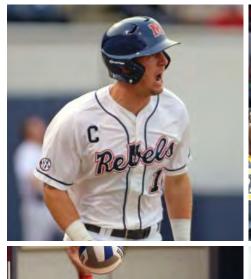

(Clockwise from top) - Ole Miss won its first Sugar Bowl since Archie Manning was QB in 1970; Six-time world champion, nine-time USA champion and 2012 Olympic gold medal long jumper Brittney Reese; Oxford native Sam Kendricks has claimed the last four U.S. pole vault titles and a silver medal at the 2016 World Indoor Championships; Rafaelle Souza was a starting defender on the Brazilian national team during the 2015 Women's World Cup; Cincinnati Reds shortstop Zack Cozart.

Ole Miss was one of two SEC schools with a winning league record in football, men's hoops and baseball in 2015-16 (along with LSU). Ole Miss was the only school to accomplish the trifecta in 2014-15.

ACADEMICS

- The leading reason Americans say they would pick Ole Miss for college is the university's academic reputation. 40 percent said academics here is No. 1. In second place was "Southern culture" at 39 percent.
- · Our Patterson School of Accountancy is ranked No. 7 nationally for undergraduate education.
- The Medical Center is home to the world's best-selling medical physiology textbook, the Textbook of Medical Physiology, which has been translated into 18 languages (and counting).

- The university has $280 million in construction underway or out on bid, with another $335 million of new facilities in planning and design.
- The buildings and furniture/contents on the Oxford campus are valued at $2.3 billion.
- Site work has begun for a 207,000-square-foot STEM building in the Science District. One of the university's largest projects ever, it is expected to open or the 2018-19 academic year.
- . The Student Union will expand by 60,000 square feet by the end of 2018 with a $50 million overhaul.
- . Our campus has 14,438 parking spaces, and a 1,300-space parking garage is going up behind Kinard Hall.

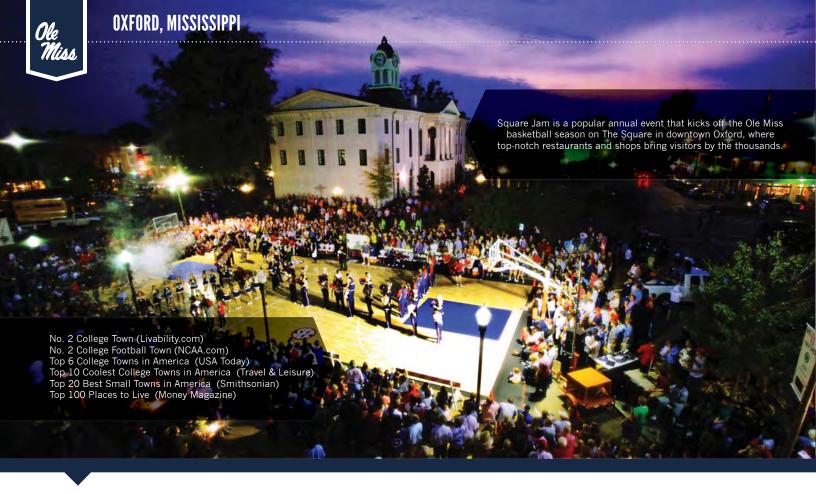

CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION

- Three certified arborists manage the thousands of trees on campus, ranging from bald cypress to Yoshino cherry. Our campus includes 100 acres of native wcods and 1,000 total acres of land.
- Color is a big part of campus beauty. We plant 20,000 annuals, including tulips and daffodils, each spring. We have about 10,000 square feet of perennial beds on campus, and groundskeepers change out colors each spring and fall.
- After the last home football game of the season, our landscaping team uses 4,500 pounds of tall fescue seed to replace the 10 acres of grass in the Grove.

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Touted as the "Cultural Mecca of the South", creativity abounds in Oxford as musicians, artists and writers alike find inspiration in Oxford's rich history, small town charm and creative community. Nobel Prize winning author William Faulkner made his home here and many have followed in his footsteps. Oxford is also known for its exceptional culinary experiences at the many restaurants options, from down home cooking to upscale culinary creations.

"The boys were extremely excited to come to Oxford. I think as a ballclub, with our players and all of the parents talking, I think we are falling in love with Oxford, the people here, how we are being treated and the hospitality. I think we are going to have a lot of people rooting for Ole Miss in every sport down the road after the experience they have given us here."

- Mike Gambino, Boston College baseball coach (at the 2016 NCAA Oxford Regional)

Celebrities such as Samuel L. Jackson and Woody Harrelson can be spotted in Oxford from time to time.

In addition to the popular Double Decker Arts Festival that brings thousands of visitors to Oxford each April, the town's thriving music scene has welcomed such acts as Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Brad Paisley, Zac Brown Band, Thomas Rhett, Three 6 Mafia and Wilco. Artists that have recorded at local Sweet Tea Studios include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford's Lyric has been named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

The people of Oxford offer tremendous support to the Ole Miss athletics teams, and the Rebel student-athletes return that support by being actively involved in both the Oxford and University communities. Among the worthwhile activities that Ole Miss studentathletes regularly participate in are assisting with reading programs at local schools such as "Reading with the Rebels," visiting patients in area hospitals, being mentors to elementary school students, visiting senior adults at local retirement centers, holding several "Meet the Rebels" days throughout the year, and giving numerous talks on subjects such as drug awareness and staying in school to area students. And for the last four spring breaks, members of the football team have traveled abroad to do mission work in Panama and Haiti.

(Clockwise from top) - Ole Miss players have made several visits to hospitals, including Cody Core, Christian Morris, Jaylen Walton, Quintavius Burdette and Dillon Barrett here with a child at the Children's Hospital of New Orleans; Talbot Buys, Armani Linton and Chad Kelly were among the football players and coaches that spent their 2016 spring break in Haiti, working to provide clean water systems for villagers in Camp Marie; Evan Engram and Justin Bell were integral participants in the Unified Egg Bowl event for Special Olympics Mississippi; Marquis Haynes and Javon Patterson spend time with elementary students as part of the "Reading with the Rebels" program.

See page 208 for more information.

Hugh Freeze refers to his tenure at Ole Miss as a "journey." Suffice it to say the journey has moved at a quicker pace than even Freeze could have imagined.

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top coaches, Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

In the time since Freeze inherited a program coming off a two-win season and 14 straight Southeastern Conference losses, the Rebels have made four straight bowl appearances and won three of them. The team's win total under Freeze has risen as consistently as possible — from seven in 2012 to eight in 2013, nine in 2014 to 10 last season.

Freeze is the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first four seasons, including wins in the BBVA Compass, Music City and Sugar. Ole Miss is one of five programs in the country (along with Alabama, Florida State, Michigan State and Ohio State) to make consecutive New Year's Six bowl appearances in the first two years of the College Football Playoff system.

Freeze's 34 wins at Ole Miss — which include a number of landmark victories over programs such as Alabama, LSU and Texas — are the most by a Rebel head coach in his first four years. He and Alabama's Nick Saban are the only current coaches with a .500 or better record against every other SEC West team.

The Rebels have been a fixture in the national rankings under Freeze, having been included in the top 25 for a total of 37 weeks over the last four years, including a string of 27 straight weeks in the polls for the first time since 1957-62. Ole Miss rose as high as No. 3 in both 2014 and 2015, its highest national ranking since 1964.

Freeze's teams have shattered most of the offensive school records and had the nation's No. 1 scoring defense in 2014. His high-flying tempo offense has helped shine the college football spotlight brightly on quarterbacks Bo Wallace and Chad Kelly and receivers Donte Moncrief, Laquon Treadwell, Evan Engram and others.

The Rebels have saved some of their best work for the biggest games, upending No. 1 Alabama in 2014 and claiming their second-ever road win over the Crimson Tide in 2015. The Rebels are 3-1 in the "Egg Bowl" rivalry against Mississippi State under Freeze. Their 48-20 Sugar Bowl triumph over Oklahoma State to capture their 10th win last season featured the third-most points ever scored by a team in the Sugar Bowl's 82-year history.

Freeze and his staff have developed 15 players to All-SEC honors, including All-Americans Cody Prewitt, Senquez Golson, Robert Nkemdiche, Laremy Tunsil, Engram, Treadwell and Trae Elston. Treadwell was named Ole Miss' first ever SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013 and became the school's first Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2015. Nkemdiche was the first defensive lineman to be named a Hornung Award finalist.

Seven Ole Miss players have been selected in the NFL Draft since Freeze arrived as head coach, including 2016 first-rounders Tunsil, Treadwell and Nkemdiche. Moncrief, Golson, Fahn Cooper and Cody Core were also drafted over the last three years. Three more Freeze pupils — Pierce Burton, Lavon Hooks and Carlos Thompson — made it on NFL rosters as undrafted free agents.

Success on the field has been a direct result of the way Freeze runs his program — recruit elite football talent and treat the team like a family.

Freeze and his staff have collected four straight recruiting classes ranked among the top 15 in the nation. The 2013 and 2016 classes were both among the top five in the country, which makes them the best two classes in recorded program history.

A total of 97 players have earned their University of Mississippi degrees since Freeze's arrival, while the 2016 spring semester saw the team earn its highest cumulative grade point average in recorded history. Freeze's staff has brought stability to the program's academic standing and has emphasized the value of good character and brotherly love throughout all aspects of the team. Many players volunteer their time to community service projects in the Oxford area, and 19 players have participated in mission trips to Panama and Haiti over the last three spring breaks.

2015: Magnolia Bowl, Egg Bowl, Sugar Bowl Champs

The Rebels earned their 10th win of the most recent campaign by crushing Oklahoma State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, 48-20, highlighted by three Chad Kelly-to-Laquon Treadwell touchdowns and another score by junior offensive tackle Laremy Tunsil on his final play as a Rebel. The Sugar Bowl appearance was the Rebels' first since the 1969 season, and Freeze guided the team to its first 10-win campaign since 2003.

At No. 9 in the final coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, Ole Miss finished with its highest national ranking since 1969.

Freeze led the Rebels to back-to-back seasons with at least nine victories for the first time since 1961-62. Ole Miss finished the regular season 9-3 overall and 6-2 in conference play to place second in the SEC West. The six SEC wins were the most by a Rebel football team since 2003.

A whopping 64 Ole Miss team and individual records were broken or tied in 2015, including most total yards (6,731), points (531), touchdowns (68) and passing yards (4,351) in a season. Kelly and Treadwell made resounding cases for their status as Ole Miss icons with the number of records they set on the field -- 17 and 15, respectively -- surpassing such names as Eli Manning, Bo Wallace, Donte Moncrief and Chris Collins. Ole Miss also became the first team in SEC history to score 73 or more points in back-to-back games.

Kelly's 4,542 total yards and 4,042 passing yards were both the third-most by a player in Southeastern Conference history, as he became the league's third QB to ever throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season. He tied the Sugar Bowl record with four touchdown tosses in the Superdome.

Ole Miss finished the campaign eighth nationally with 40.8 points per game, 10th with 517.8 total yards per outing and 10th with 334.7 passing yards per game.

Freeze and the Rebels won multiple memorable games throughout the 2015 campaign, including a road win over No. 2 Alabama, capping off consecutive victories over the Crimson Tide for the first time in program history. Along with the Alabama victory, Freeze led Ole Miss to wins over Auburn and rival LSU, marking the first time the Rebels took down all three teams in one season. The 2015 team also kept a stranglehold on the Golden Egg, winning back-to-back Egg Bowls over Mississippi State for the first time in over a decade.

Alabama went on to claim the national title, making it the third time in program history that the Rebels were the national champion's only loss. The Rebels also upended Notre Dame in 1977 and Florida in 2008.

2014: Rebels Take Down No. 1, Make Inaugural New Year's Six Bowl

The foundation that was laid in 2012 and 2013 led the way for a memorable campaign in 2014. Ole Miss played in the very first of the inaugural New Year's Six bowl games - the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl vs. TCU. The Rebels got there on the strength of the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (16.0 ppg allowed) and triumphs over four 10-win teams (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis, Mississippi State) and three conference champions (Alabama, Boise State, Memphis).

Freeze, a finalist for both the 2014 Bear Bryant Award and Dodd Trophy, led Ole Miss to its most regular-season wins over ranked teams since 1969 and its highest national ranking (No. 3) since 1964.

October 4, 2014 will forever be remembered by Rebel Nation as the day ESPN's College GameDay and pop singer Katy Perry put Oxford in the national spotlight, and the Rebels knocked off the No. 1 Crimson Tide 23-17 for the program's first ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team.

On top of pacing the nation in scoring defense, the 2014 Landsharks also paced the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

2013: Offensive Fireworks Lead to Eight-Win Season

The Rebels' 8-5 record after defeating Georgia Tech 25-17 in the 2013 Music City Bowl gave Ole Miss consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since the 2008-09 seasons. For his efforts, Freeze was named the 2013 Grant Teaff Coach of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

The fans that filled Vaught-Hemingway Stadium each Saturday were treated to another exciting offensive season in 2013. The Rebels eclipsed 500 total yards in four of their final five home games, including a program-record 751 yards in a rout of Troy. The Rebel offense finished the season with a then-school record 6,153 total yards and ranked 21st nationally and fifth in the SEC in total offense (473.3 ypg).

A month after the Rebels capped off the 2012 season with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co. landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN - the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

2012: Rebels Reverse Fortunes under Freeze

The Rebel offense saw a dramatic turnaround under Freeze in 2012. With many of the same players, he took a team that had ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the league and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

The 2012 Rebels soared up the school record books and cracked the top four single-season totals in scoring, total offense and passing.

The Rebels' 7-6 record could have been even better had they not lost three tight SEC games (Texas A&M, Vanderbilt, at LSU) by a combined 10 points.

Rising Through the Ranks

Freeze, a noted speaker and recruiter throughout his career, has enjoyed success at nearly every coaching level over the past 21 years, from high school to NAIA to FBS, and each stop has featured a high-scoring offense and the ability to motivate young people. Before returning to Oxford, the former Ole Miss assistant experienced a record-setting run at Arkansas State.

With Freeze as head coach in 2011, the Red Wolves captured the Sun Belt Conference championship and became just the third school in Sun Belt history to finish undefeated in league play with a perfect 8-0 mark. The 10-2 overall record marked the program's first 10-win season since 1986, when ASU was a member of the I-AA Southland Conference.

In the best debut season ever by an A-State head coach, Freeze became just the 14th FBS first-year head coach to win 10 regular season games. He also returned ASU to a bowl game for the first time since 2005.

Freeze was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year, while 13 of his pupils earned all-conference honors, including both the Offensive Player of the Year in junior quarterback Ryan Aplin and the Defensive Player of the Year in senior lineman Brandon Joiner.

While dominating the Sun Belt statistical categories, the Red Wolves finished the season ranked top 25 in the nation in total offense (24th), total defense (24th), passing offense (16th), rushing defense (13th), pass efficiency defense (21st), scoring defense (25th), tackles for loss (eighth) and sacks (15th). They were also one of only two teams in the NCAA to lead their conference in both total offense and defense.

Freeze's high-octane offense saw Aplin shatter the school record for career pass completions. He established new single-season standards for total offense and passing yards per game while ranking No. 10 in the nation in total offense. Wide receiver Dwayne Frampton broke the Red Wolves' single-season record for receptions and ranked 13th nationally.

The Freeze defense also impressed in 2011 led by Joiner, who tied for third in the NCAA in sacks and 10th in TFLs. Senior DB Darryl Feemster registered six interceptions and tied for 14th in the nation in that category.

Freeze's first season in Jonesboro saw him serve as Arkansas State's offensive coordinator, guiding the Red Wolves' offense to a record-breaking year in 2010.

He made an immediate impact on ASU's program, leading the offense to a No. 43 national ranking in total offense one year after the Red Wolves finished toward the bottom of the NCAA FBS rankings at No. 95. In just their first year under Freeze's up-tempo offense, the Red Wolves broke nine offensive school records that included 4,841 yards of total offense, which ranked No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference.

ASU, ranked 42nd in the nation in scoring offense, finished the season averaging 30 points a game and recorded at least 20 points in 11 consecutive games for the first time in school history. Freeze's offense scored 46 touchdowns for the fourth-most in school history and the most since the 1975 season.

In addition to working as ASU's offensive coordinator, Freeze was also the quarterbacks coach for the Red Wolves. Under Freeze's direction, Aplin exploded onto the scene in 2010 to emerge as a Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year candidate as a sophomore. Aplin not only broke the ASU records for total offense, passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions, he posted numbers that rank among the top 10 in Sun Belt history in the same categories.

Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program.

2013 Grant Teaff FCA Coach of the Year 2011 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year 2009 AFCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year 2009 Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year 5-Time Region 8-AA Coach of the Year 4-Time Associated Press HS Coach of the Year Freeze was named the American Football Coaches Association's Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2009 after leading the Eagles to their best regular season in school history with an 11-0 record. Under Freeze's direction, Lambuth won the Mid-South Conference West Division, advanced to the second round of the NAIA playoffs for the first time since 1999, finished the year with a 12-1 mark and ascended to the No. 6 ranking in NAIA.

The Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year oversaw the offense and called plays for a Lambuth team that averaged more than 40 points per game and ranked ninth nationally in total offense (465 ypg). The Eagles also ranked first in the nation in fourth-down conversions, fourth in first downs per game and third-down conversions, fifth in passing and eighth in scoring offense.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Lambuth, Freeze served on the Ole Miss staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He originally arrived in Oxford as Assistant Athletics Director for External Affairs before being named the Rebels' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach before the 2006 season.

In his first year as recruiting coordinator, he helped bring in the nation's ninth-ranked recruiting class, the highest recorded rank in the history of the program at that time. Ole Miss' 2007 signing class was tabbed 25th nationally, and he was responsible for nine commitments in the 2008 signing class.

While maintaining his duties as recruiting coordinator, he moved to wide receivers coach in 2007 and tutored current NFL star Mike Wallace to a top-10 SEC finish in receiving yards. Freeze also coached Shay Hodge, who later became Ole Miss' first 1,000-yard receiver, and Dexter McCluster, who went on to become the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season.

High School Teacher and Coach

Before going to Ole Miss, Freeze served 13 years at Briarcrest Christian School (Memphis, Tenn.) as a classroom teacher, coach and administrator. He was the Saints' head football coach from 1995 to 2004, running the no-huddle "spread system" for six years that led to six straight state championship games.

Freeze compiled a 99-23 record while at Briarcrest, which included an undefeated season in 1996 and led the school to state championship titles in 2002 and 2004. Briarcrest won regional titles in 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2001 and 2002, and Freeze was named the Region 8-AA Coach of the Year five times and Associated Press Coach of the Year four times.

Among his talented pupils during that period were eventual Rebels and current NFL starters Michael Oher and Greg Hardv.

Before assuming the role of head coach at Briarcrest, Freeze served as the teams' offensive coordinator and defensive backs coach from 1992-94, as the Saints reached the TSSAA state semifinals twice.

Mississippi Native

A 1988 graduate of Senatobia High School, Freeze received an associate's degree from Northwest Mississippi Community College in 1990 and was a two-year letterwinner on the Ranger baseball team. He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics with a minor in coaching and sports administration from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1992.

It was while attending USM that he became active in mission projects, serving as a missionary in Houston, Salt Lake City, St. Petersburg, Russia and Australia. Freeze also served as the state president for the Mississippi Baptist Student Ilnion

FREEZE'S HIGH-POWERED OFFENSE

In his first four years as Ole Miss head coach, Hugh Freeze has overseen an offensive explosion with a dramatic increase in yards and points from the year before his arrival. Ole Miss has produced four of the top six total offense seasons in school history under Freeze. The Rebels have steadily climbed the NCAA ranks, as well.

"Hugh Freeze has proven he can do more than recruit. Ole Miss has a bright future with him. I am really impressed."

Corey Batoon, who has been a member of Hugh Freeze's Ole Miss staff since February 2012, was promoted to assistant coach for safeties and special teams coordinator in January 2015.

In his first season coaching safeties, Batoon helped guide a Rebel defense that returned four interceptions for touchdowns, including two by All-American safety Trae Elston. The four pick-sixes tied a school record that dates back to 1938. In total, Ole Miss ranked second in the SEC with 15 interceptions and third with 23 turnovers throughout the 2015 season.

Elston earned first team All-SEC honors, while fellow senior safety Mike Hilton was a second team All-SEC pick last season.

Ole Miss was among the nation's best in kick coverage, ranking top 32 in both punt return defense and kickoff return defense. The kicking game was especially strong in 2015, as sophomore Gary Wunderlich led all SEC kickers and ranked top 20 among all players in the nation with 120 points on 19-of-25 field goals and a school-record 63-of-63 PATs.

A 20-year veteran in the college coaching ranks, Batoon had served as Ole Miss' Assistant Athletics Director for Recruiting Operations in 2013 and 2014 after being the Assistant A.D. for Player Development in his first year in Oxford.

He has helped the Rebels land four straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 and 2016 hauls that ranked top five in the nation. He has also contributed to the program advancing to four straight bowls for the first time since 1997-2000.

Batoon arrived in Oxford after three seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas State, where he coached cornerbacks, safeties and special teams during his tenure. Serving under Freeze in 2011, Batoon tutored cornerbacks Darryl Feemster and Darron Edwards to All-Sun Belt Conference honors, as A-State led the league in total defense (331.46 ypg) and scoring defense (20.77 ppg).

In 2010, Batoon coached First Team All-Sun Belt Conference safety M.D. Jennings, who recorded 84 tackles, three interceptions, four pass break-ups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble in 2011. Jennings and Keclie McCray ranked second and third on the team in tackles, respectively, as the duo combined to post 163 tackles during the 2011 season. Both Jennings and fellow safety Adrian Hills were named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Week once in 2011, and the safety corps was responsible for seven of ASU's 11 interceptions.

His first season at ASU saw the Red Wolves' secondary help lead the defense to a No. 1 ranking in total defense and No. 2 ranking in passing defense in the Sun Belt.

Batoon came to Arkansas State after spending the previous 11 seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Northern Arizona. He also spent time as the special teams coordinator during his time at NAU.

Batoon went to NAU after a year at Montana working with the defensive line. Before that, he was special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Central Missouri State after two years at Saint Mary's (Calif.) and a threeyear stint at Pierce Junior College in Los Angeles.

Batoon played at San Diego City Junior College and later at Long Beach State (1988-89). He graduated from LBSU with a degree in political science in 1991, later earning a master's in health, physical education and recreation from Saint Mary's in 1996.

Born in Honolulu, Batoon and his wife, Stacy, have two daughters, Brandy and Summer.

Maurice Harris returned to Ole Miss with Hugh Freeze as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator for offense on Dec. 8, 2011. This marks Harris' second stop at Ole Miss as he served as the Assistant Athletics Director for Internal Football Operations for the Rebels in 2006.

Harris has helped develop Evan Engram into one of the best tight ends in school history and among the best in the nation right now. Engram has proven to be a mismatch for opposing defenses and a difference-maker with the ball in his hands. His 97 career catches and 1,394 receiving yards are the most all-time by an Ole Miss tight end, while his seven touchdowns are tied for fifth-most.

As a unit last year, the tight ends helped the Ole Miss offense surge to school records in nearly every major total offense and passing category, while topping the SEC and ranking top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg).

A semifinalist for the John Mackey Award as well as an All-America and All-SEC pick in 2014, Engram led all SEC tight ends with 662 yards receiving and topped the nation's tight ends with 17.4 yards per catch. His 662 receiving yards established a single-season school record.

With uncertainty at the tight end position entering the 2013 season, Harris helped turn the question mark into an exclamation point with the play of a rookie Engram.

Before going down with an ankle injury, Engram turned in one of the best seasons ever by a freshman pass catcher with 20 catches for 265 yards and three touchdowns. Despite missing half the season, he was honored by the AP with second team All-SEC honors, becoming one of the first two true freshmen in school history to be named All-SEC.

In 2012, Harris worked to improve the tight ends unit, which recorded a combined 313 receiving yards, along with four touchdowns. They also provided blocking for a vastly improved Rebel offense that finished top five in the SEC and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total yards and passing yards.

His efforts on the recruiting trail have helped Ole Miss land four straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 and 2016 hauls that ranked top five in the nation. Harris was tabbed one of the top 50 recruiters in the nation by 247Sports in 2013.

In 2011, Harris was part of an Arkansas State offense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total offense (447.85 ypg) and scoring (32.46 ppg). His tight ends unit also helped an A-State rushing attack that ranked second in the conference in yards (154.23 ypg).

During his time in Jonesboro, Harris coached All-Sun Belt Conference selections David Johnson, who was also drafted by the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, and J.T. Jordan. Harris also helped develop Kedric Murry into a starting tight end for the Red Wolves as a redshirt freshman in 2009, and Trevor Gillott ranked third on the team in receptions, while setting individual career-best marks last season under his watch.

Murry continued to develop under Harris, recording career-high numbers for both receptions and touchdowns as a sophomore in 2010. Harris also mentored Jeff Blake as he made the move from fullback to tight end for his senior season. Blake became a big factor in ASU's blocking attack that helped ASU post a school-record 4,481 yards.

During Harris' first two seasons, the tight ends were responsible for 90 receptions for 1,166 yards and 12 touchdowns.

His 2009 tight ends corps helped lead the way for 21 rushing touchdowns, the third-most in the Sun Belt

Conference, and paved the way for three different ASU players rushing for more than 100 yards in at least one game. The tight ends were a big part of ASU's line that helped the team to its most yards of total offense (484) against an FBS opponent since the 2007 season.

The tight ends were also heavily involved in the ASU running game that ranked No. 18 in the nation and No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference in 2008.

Harris returned to his alma mater as tight ends coach after serving as Alabama State's offensive coordinator and running backs coach during the 2007 season.

Harris worked with Alabama State Head Coach Reggie Barlow to design the overall offensive game plan and call plays. Harris helped the offense improve its total yards and points from the previous season and coached the Southwestern Athletic Conference's leading rusher and MVP in Jay Peck.

Prior to his return to Alabama State, where he also served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 2004-05, Harris spent the 2006 season at Ole Miss.

During his first stint at Alabama State, Harris helped lead the football team to a 10-2 record in 2004 and the SWAC Championship. In addition to his duties as a position coach, Harris was responsible for organizing and planning the Hornets' recruiting strategy.

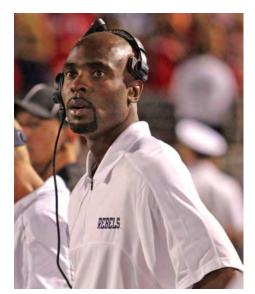

Harris was a four-year letterman at Arkansas State, including the 1996 season when he recorded a team-high 100 tackles from his safety position. After earning his bachelor's degree from ASU in 1998, he went to Whitehaven High School in Memphis, Tennessee, as an assistant coach.

Harris headed Whitehaven's offense, which was tops in the area, and improved its yardage by more than 100 yards per game from the previous season. He was promoted to head coach at Whitehaven two years later and was named West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading his team to the city and region championships in 2001.

He followed the 2001 campaign with another city title in 2002 and was named assistant coach in two all-star games. He was named head coach for the Liberty Bowl High School All-Star Game in Tennessee.

During his three seasons as head coach at Whitehaven, Harris posted a 23-12 record and had 32 players sign scholarships to play college football.

Harris and his wife, LaQuesha, have two children, Arami, Cortlynn, and a Godson, DeVonte'. The Harrises are involved in a number of charity efforts and went with members of the Ole Miss team and staff on spring break mission trips to Haiti in 2015 and 2016.

Grant Heard is in his fifth year on the Ole Miss staff after being hired by Hugh Freeze on Jan. 9, 2012 as wide receivers coach.

A former Rebel player and graduate assistant, Heard is at his fourth stop with Freeze, having served as his quarter-backs coach and passing-game coordinator at Arkansas State, offensive coordinator at Lambuth and graduate assistant at Ole Miss.

Recruiting and developing talent at a high level since he arrived in Oxford, Heard has helped stockpile the Rebel receiving corps into one of the deepest and most talented in the country.

GRANT HEARD

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS 5TH SEASON

Heard helped 2015 Biletnikoff Award finalist Laquon Treadwell - the Rebels' first finalist for the prestigious award - bounce back from a horrific injury suffered toward the end of the 2014 season. Treadwell caught 82 passes (second in the SEC) for an SEC-leading 1,153 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2015. Under Heard, Treadwell broke 15 school records in 2015, including receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs in a season. He was taken in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings, while fellow Heard disciple Cody Core was selected in the sixth round by Cincinnati.

Heard coached a deep and dynamic receiving corps in 2015. Alongside Treadwell and Core, Quincy Adeboyejo, Damore'ea Stringfellow and Markell Pack all caught at least 20 passes last season. Moreover, Ole Miss was one of four teams in the nation with seven or more players who caught at least 20 balls.

Ole Miss broke nearly every offensive school record in 2015, while leading the SEC and ranking top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg).

Having to replace Donte Moncrief, now a member of the Indianapolis Colts, Heard helped Ole Miss rank seventh in the SEC in total offense (443.3 ypg) and fourth in passing offense (275.6 ypg) in 2014. Ole Miss was the only SEC school to place three receivers in the top 12 in touchdown catches, led by Sanders and Core with six each, followed by Treadwell with five. Sanders moved up to ninth in school history with 11 career touchdown catches and 17th with 107 career receptions.

Treadwell was on his way to a record-breaking 2014 season before suffering a broken leg and dislocated ankle against Auburn. Despite the injury, he still ranked among the SEC's best in receptions per game (5.3) and receiving yards per game (70.2).

Ole Miss wide receivers flourished in 2013 as Treadwell (5.58) and Moncrief (4.42) each ranked inside the top eight of the SEC in receptions per game, and Moncrief was No. 6 in the SEC in receiving yards per game (68.8).

As a team, Ole Miss broke then-school records for total offense (473.3 ypg), pass completions (310) and pass attempts (490) in 2013. The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

Treadwell, the 2013 SEC Freshman of the Year, had the best rookie campaign by an Ole Miss receiver in program history, setting freshman records in catches (67), receiving yards (557) and touchdown catches (5). Treadwell led all freshman receivers in the SEC in catches, yards and touchdowns and broke the Ole Miss freshman record with nine catches at Vanderbilt in his first game wearing a Rebel uniform.

Moncrief declared for the NFL Draft after his junior year and finished his career in the top three in school history in catches, yards and touchdowns by a receiver. He was selected by the Colts with the 90th overall pick (third round).

In 2012, with many of the same faces at receiver as the previous year, Heard helped turn the Rebel offense around, improving the team's passing average from 173.3 yards per game in 2011 to 249.9 in 2012.

Heard also helped turn Moncrief into a superstar during his sophomore campaign, as he averaged 75.3 yards per game (fifth-best in the SEC) with 10 touchdowns, tying the school record for TD catches in a season.

Heard helped Arkansas State to a record-breaking year in 2011 led by his star pupil, Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year Ryan Aplin. The junior quarterback established school single-season records for total offense and passing yards per game while ranking No. 10 in the nation in total offense.

Heard's passing attack ranked 16th in the nation, and the Red Wolves were 24th in total offense en route to a Sun Belt championship and an appearance in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

Heard spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as the offensive coordinator at Lambuth. During the 2008 campaign, the Eagles offense accumulated 5,861 yards while becoming the No. 1 offense in NAIA. Lambuth finished third in the nation in scoring offense and fourth in passing efficiency.

A wide receiver during his collegiate career (1996-2000), Heard helped lead Ole Miss to four bowl games and graduated as the Rebels' all-time leader in career receptions and touchdowns. He earned his bachelor's degree in 2001.

Following his college days, Heard was signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2002 and sent to play in NFL Europe. In 2001, he appeared in several preseason games for the San Francisco 49ers.

Heard began his coaching career as the quarterbacks, wide receivers and special teams coach at Jackson (Miss.) Preparatory High School in 2002 before moving on to Hargrave Military Academy where he coached wide receivers and helped them to an 8-1 record in 2003. He joined the college ranks in 2004 as an offensive graduate assistant at N.C. State.

He returned to Ole Miss as an offensive graduate assistant in 2005-06, when he assisted in coaching the receivers and tight ends. He tutored future NFL players Mike Wallace, Shay Hodge, Marshay Green, Mike Espy and Taye Biddle.

Heard spent the 2007 season with Western Michigan coaching the Broncos' wide receivers. He mentored First Team All-MAC honoree Jamarko Simmons, the 15th-ranked receiver in the nation, and the receiving corps gained over 3,000 yards and scored 23 touchdowns.

Heard is married to the former Renata Nowacki, who was a four-year letterwinner on the Ole Miss volleyball team (1997-2000), and the couple has a son, Jayden, and a daughter, Avery. Heard's brother Ronnie was also a standout for the Rebel football team and in the NFL.

In his fourth season as Ole Miss' co-defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach, Jason Jones boasts an admirable streak of football success.

In his 12 seasons as a college coach, his teams have made a bowl game appearance every year, including the Rebels' 2013 Music City Bowl berth, 2014 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl berth and 2016 Sugar Bowl berth.

In 2015, Jones assisted in coordinating a Rebel defense that returned four interceptions for touchdowns, including a pick-six by cornerback Tony Bridges in the Egg Bowl. The four pick-sixes tied a school record that dates back to 1938. In total, Ole Miss ranked second in the SEC with 15 interceptions and third with 23 turnovers throughout the 2015 season.

Jones helped coach All-SEC DB Mike Hilton, a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist who led all SEC defensive backs with 12.5 tackles for loss. He also brought along inexperienced but talented corners Ken Webster and Bridges to flashes of brilliance in big wins over Alabama, Auburn, LSU, Texas A&M and Mississippi State.

In 2014, Jones turned one of the most inexperienced units the previous year into one of the most dominant units. His cornerbacks helped Ole Miss lead the nation in scoring defense (16.0) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24).

Ole Miss ranked third in the SEC and 16th nationally in passing defense (192.1 ypg), more than 23 fewer yards per game allowed than the previous year. The Rebels also led the SEC and ranked eighth nationally, forcing 32 turnovers, including 22 interceptions, the most in the SEC and fifth-most in the nation.

For his efforts, Jones was tabbed by FootballScoop as the 2014 National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year, along with Dave Wommack.

One of five finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Award, presented annually to the national defensive player of the year in college football, cornerback Senquez Golson was a consensus first team All-American. He led the SEC and ranked second nationally with a school record-tying 10 interceptions. He was also tied for first in the SEC and fourth nationally with 18 passes defended.

Hilton and Huskie Tony Conner were the Rebels' top two tacklers in 2014 with 71 and 69 tackles, respectively.

In his first year with the Ole Miss corners, Jones helped teach a young and exciting unit that allowed 31 fewer passing yards per game (215.5 ypg) than a year earlier (246.5 ypg). Despite a number of injuries to the team's corners, Jones helped guide Golson and Hilton to strong seasons.

Jones arrived in Oxford after five seasons at Oklahoma State, where his teams amassed a 49-16 record.

In his time in Stillwater, Jones coached three different Cowboy corners to First Team All-Big 12 honors and a pair of Thorpe Award semifinalists in Perrish Cox (2009) and Brodrick Brown (2011). Cox was a first team All-American in 2009, as well.

With Jones serving as position coach, Cox led the nation in passes defended per game in 2009 and Brown ranked third in the same category in 2011. As a team, OSU led the nation with 44 turnovers forced in 2011 and was fifth with 34 in 2010.

Jones also helped develop former high school QB Justin Gilbert, who became the eighth overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft as a cornerback.

As a unit, the Oklahoma State defense was among the nation's most opportunistic from 2009-12, as the Cowboys forced 130 turnovers to rank second nationally in that span.

Jones came to Stillwater from Tulsa, where he served as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator in 2007. He helped the Golden Hurricane to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the Conference USA championship game, and a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

Success has followed Jones at each of his coaching stops. In 2006, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at Rice University, helping the Owls to their first bowl trip in 45 years as the Owls competed in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In his first stint at Tulsa, Jones coached cornerbacks and helped the Golden Hurricane to a Conference USA championship and an appearence in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. With Jones leading the Tulsa secondary in 2005, the Hurricane defense ranked third nationally in takeaways (36) and interceptions (22) and was 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense and 17th in pass defense. Jones' cornerbacks totaled 13 of those interceptions and had 29 passes defended.

His first coaching job came as a graduate assistant at Alabama, where he helped his alma mater to an appearence in the Music City Bowl.

Born Nov. 13, 1977, Jones is a 2001 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in financial planning. He was a two-year starter at defensive back for the Crimson Tide and was part of three bowl teams, an SEC West championship in 1996 and SEC championship in Jones earned a master's degree from Alabama in sports management in 2005. He and his wife Kysha have four children, Andrew, Jace, Jarah and Jathan.

Joining the Rebel staff on Dec. 8, 2011, Chris Kiffin is in his fifth season as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for defense under Hugh Freeze.

Kiffin has paid huge dividends on the recruiting trail. He was tabbed the 2013 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com after helping Ole Miss land a top-five signing class. He was also tabbed one of the nation's top 50 recruiters by 247Sports and has helped the Rebels land three more top-15 classes since then, including the 2016 haul that ranked as high as No. 4 by ESPN.com.

Kiffin guided another strong defensive line in 2015, which helped the Rebels rank top three among SEC teams in tackles for loss (8.1/game - 7th in NCAA), interceptions (15 - t23rd in NCAA) and takeaways (23 - t38th in NCAA). His prized pupils included Hornung Award finalist and first team All-American Robert Nkemdiche, who was taken in the first round (29th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals. Rebel defensive linemen combined for 24 sacks in 2015, led by a school record-tying 10 from sophomore Marguis Haynes. In two years under Kiffin's tutelage, Haynes has recorded 17.5 career sacks, tied for the fourth-most in Ole Miss history.

Kiffin helped develop one of the deepest and most talented defensive lines in not only the SEC, but the nation in 2014. Their work in the trenches helped Ole Miss top the nation in scoring defense (16.0) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24), while also leading the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

Nkemdiche was a 2014 All-America choice by multiple outlets, as his constant pressure and collapsing the pocket caused havoc for opposing quarterbacks.

Haynes led the team with 9.0 tackles for loss and an Ole Miss freshman record 7.5 sacks, which was fourthmost among all freshmen in the country, en route to Freshman All-America honors.

With Kiffin guiding him, Nkemdiche made a major impact on the defensive line in 2013 by ranking third on the team in tackles for loss (8.0) and second among SEC freshmen in TFLs per outing (0.73). Nkemdiche was named first team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman

Kiffin helped coach a much-improved Rebel front line in his first year in Oxford. His unit helped Ole Miss rank first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game). Those numbers were dramatic improvements over 4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game

Under Kiffin, defensive end C.J. Johnson saw tremendous improvement from his rookie campaign as he recorded 6.5 sacks, tied for eighth-most in the SEC, versus just one sack in 2011. Nose tackle Issac Gross was named first team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman after he tallied 10.0 TFLs (second-most by an SEC freshman behind teammate Denzel Nkemdiche) and Kiffin spent the previous season as Arkansas State's defensive line coach.

He helped coach an ASU defense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.46 ypg) and scoring defense (20.77 ppg), ranking in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.62 pg) and tied for 15th in the NCAA in QB sacks (2.69 pg).

In 2011, Kiffin mentored Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brandon Joiner, who tied for third in the nation in sacks and 10th in TFLs. He also coached Dorvus Woods to second team all-conference honors.

Kiffin joined the A-State coaching staff after serving as an administrative assistant for the USC defense in 2010. The Trojans finished the year 8-5 with a 28-14 victory over UCLA in Rose Bowl stadium.

Prior to joining the staff at USC, Kiffin was in charge of offensive quality control at Nebraska from Feb. 2008 through Feb. 2010. During his two seasons at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers compiled a 20-8 record and played in two bowl games, including a 33-0 victory over Arizona in the 2009 Holiday Bowl.

Before Nebraska, Kiffin was a quality control intern with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2006. During his time with the Bucs, Kiffin gained experience working with the defensive line during off-season OTAs and mini-

A four-year football letterman as a defensive tackle at Colorado State from 2000-05 under then-head coach Sonny Lubick, Kiffin earned his bachelor's degree from the school in 2005. Following his time at Colorado State, he was a student assistant at Idaho during the 2005 and 2006 campaigns.

Kiffin is the younger brother of former Southern Cal head coach and current Alabama offensive coordinator Lane Kiffin, and son of coaching legend Monte Kiffin.

Ole Miss alum Matt Luke is in his fifth season as cooffensive coordinator and offensive line coach on Hugh Freeze's staff and ninth season overall.

Since returning to Oxford in 2012, Luke has helped the Rebels earn a bowl berth and increase their win total each year, culminating with a 10-3 record and Sugar Bowl victory to cap the 2015 season.

Luke's offensive line paved the way for the Rebels to have a record-breaking year on that side of the ball. Ole Miss set program records for scoring (531), touchdowns (68), total offense (6,731), passing yards (4,351) and passing touchdowns (35), among others. The Rebels led the SEC and were top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg).

In 2015, senior Fahn Cooper collected the third-ever Kent Hull Trophy, presented to the most outstanding offensive lineman in Mississippi, making Luke the coach of back-to-back Hull Trophy winners. All-American Laremy Tunsil won the award in 2014. In three years of college, Tunsil played in 29 games with 26 starts at left tackle and surrendered only two sacks.

Luke helped develop both Tunsil and Cooper into NFL draft picks. Tunsil was taken 13th overall by the Miami Dolphins, and Cooper was selected in the fifth round by the San Francisco 49ers in the 2016 draft.

Having to replace three starters due to graduation, Luke helped the 2014 Rebel squad rank seventh in the SEC in total offense (419.1 ypg) and yards per play (6.0). The offensive line also helped the Rebels rank fifth in the SEC and 37th nationally in passing offense (263.6 ypg).

As a unit, the offensive line helped pave the way for Ole Miss to rack up 500 or more total yards in four games last year, including a season-high 640 total yards, the second-most in school history, against Presbyterian.

In 2013, Luke helped oversee a Rebel offense that broke the then-school record for total offense (473.3 ypg). The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

As a unit, the offensive line helped pave the way for the Rebels to rack up 500 or more total yards in five games, including a program-record 751 against Troy.

His guidance of the offensive line included plugging in star freshman Tunsil to the starting lineup early in the 2013 season and seeing immediate results. One of only two true freshmen in the country to be a full-time starter at left tackle, Tunsil allowed just one sack while protecting quarterback Bo Wallace's blind side. When Tunsil was named to the AP All-SEC second team, he became one of the first two true freshmen in school history to be tabbed All-SEC (along with TE Evan Engram).

In his first season under Freeze, Luke helped Ole Miss improve in almost all offensive categories from the 2011 season, including total yards per game (281.3 in 2011 to 423.8 in 2012) and points per game (16.1 in 2011 to 31.5 in 2012). Luke developed an inexperienced offensive line into a unit that could hold its own in the SEC, as the Rebels ranked fifth in the league in rushing (173.9 ypg), up from 10th the previous year (129.6 ypg).

A former Rebel player and assistant coach, Luke spent the previous four seasons as Duke's offensive coordinator/ running game while coaching the offensive line. His line ranked among the ACC's top five in fewest sacks allowed throughout his tenure, including finishing third in 2009 and 2010.

Luke's 2010 offensive front helped Duke to its highest yards per game average since 1989 as Sean Renfree became the fourth quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in a single season. Nearly doubling its rushing totals from the previous year, the Blue Devil run game produced 19 touchdowns - Duke's highest total since 1995 - and the squad repeated that total again in 2011.

Behind All-ACC quarterback Thaddeus Lewis in 2009, Duke led the conference and finished ninth nationally in passing offense, while Lewis and wide receiver Donovan Varner ranked first in the ACC in total offense and pass receptions, respectfully.

Under Luke's guidance, both guard Dave Harding and tackle Perry Simmons received Freshman All-America honors in 2010. In 2009, guard Brian Moore was a Freshman All-ACC pick by Sporting News. Guard Laken Tomlinson went on to be the 28th overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Luke came to Duke following two seasons at Tennessee where he served as recruiting coordinator while coaching the tight ends and assisting with the offensive line. During his two-year stay (2006-07) in Knoxville, the Volunteers went 19-8 with an SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl.

In 2007, Tennessee tight end Chris Brown caught 41 passes for 282 yards and six touchdowns while fellow end Brad Cottam's 31-yard touchdown reception proved to be the difference in the Vols' 21-17 win over Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl

On the recruiting front, Tennessee's 2007 class was rated third-best nationally by Rivals.com and fourth-best in the country by Scout.com.

A native of Gulfport, Mississippi, Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular-season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Luke then spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05). Ole Miss won two bowl games during that stretch, defeating Nebraska in the Independence Bowl to close the 2002 season and upending Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl a year later to cap a 10-3 campaign that included a share of the SEC Western Division championship.

Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Mississippi, and the couple has two sons, Harrison and Cooper. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91. Tom is also on the Ole Miss football staff as assistant athletics director for player development.

Derrick Nix is in his ninth year as Ole Miss' running backs coach and fifth as a member of Hugh Freeze's staff.

At Ole Miss, Nix has tutored four of the most productive backs in school history in Dexter McCluster, Brandon Bolden, Jeff Scott and Jaylen Walton, while the Rebels have ranked top three in the SEC in rushing twice.

With a variety of running backs with different styles and strengths at his disposal, Nix helped the 2015 Ole Miss squad lead the SEC and rank top-10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg). The Rebels eclipsed 600 yards of total offense in three games, a school record, and more than 200 yards rushing in six contests.

Walton emerged as the leader of the group, rushing for 730 yards and averaging 5.1 yards per carry. He finished his career second in Ole Miss history with 4,742 career all-purpose yards; Walton found the end zone 23 times throughout his career, the sixth-most by an Ole Miss Rebel. His 1,957 career rushing yards sit ninth in program history.

During the 2014 season, Nix's running backs topped 150 yards rushing in seven games to assist in the Rebel offensive attack.

In 2013, Nix helped the Ole Miss offense rank top five in the SEC and top 25 nationally in total offense (473.3 ypg), which also broke the school record at the time. Led by a bevy of talented rushers, the Ole Miss ground game was a headache for many opposing defenses to try and stop.

Scott averaged 61.6 yards per game in eight contests before going down with injury. In his stead, young backs I'Tavius Mathers and Walton each played well, setting respective career highs for rushing yards in a game and each topping the 100-yard plateau in a game. Walton, a threat on runs, catches and returns, ranked ninth in the SEC with 111.8 all-purpose yards per league game.

In 2012, Nix helped Scott, who finished the season with career-best totals of 846 yards and six touchdowns, develop into more of a feature back while the Rebel run game increased its average by 40 yards from 2011 to 2012. The Rebels finished fifth in the SEC with 173.8 rushing yards per game.

Nix also helped with Randall Mackey's transition from quarterback to running back, where as a senior Mackey ran for 325 yards and four touchdowns while also lining up at slot receiver.

The Nix backfield stable helped Ole Miss register the third-best ground game in the SEC in 2010 (207.58 ypg), while Bolden ranked No. 5 in the league in rushing (976 yards). A Nix pupil for the duration of his career, Bolden finished second in school history in both total touchdowns (33) and rushing TDs (27), third in all-purpose yards (3,681) and fourth in rushing yards (2,604).

In 2009, McCluster became the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards (1,169) and 500 receiving yards (520) in the same season. The first team All-American recorded the second-highest rushing total in school history and went on to be drafted in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

In his first season with the Rebels, Nix helped construct a running attack that ranked second in the SEC. Using a balanced attack, the Rebels featured three rushers that piled up at least 500 rushing yards in McCluster (655), Cordera Eason (647) and Bolden (542). McCluster was also named a second team All-SEC selection as an all-purpose player.

Before arriving in Oxford, Nix spent 2007 in the NFL as offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

Nix, one of the best-known players to ever wear a Southern Miss uniform, began his four-year stint on the Golden Eagles sidelines as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003. The following year, Nix was promoted to tight ends coach before being appointed to the running backs coaching position, where he spent two years.

In 2006 under Nix's direction, the Southern Miss running backs ran for 2,378 yards and scored 23 touchdowns, the first time the Golden Eagles ran for over 2,000 yards since 1987. True freshman Damion Fletcher, who earned first team All-Conference USA honors and Freshman All-American honors, ran for 1,388 yards and scored 11 touchdowns, the second-most yards in a season in school history. Fletcher set the freshman rushing record at Southern Miss and for Conference USA, and he was also named a finalist for the Conerly Trophy, signifying the top player in the state of Mississippi.

In 2005, Nix got career-best years from youthful players Larry Thomas and Cody Hull. Thomas posted three 100-yard rushing performances, while Hull started the final two games of the year and recorded his first 100-yard rushing day in the New Orleans Bowl with 161 yards on 37 carries, setting the Bowl record and the Southern Miss all-time bowl record. Hull's 37 carries tied for the fourth most in school history, matching Nix's own 37-carry performance against Nevada in 1998.

As the Golden Eagles' tight ends coach in 2004, Nix's crew, used primarily as blockers in the offensive scheme, was successful.

A three-time all-conference selection, Nix was a record-setting running back throughout his Southern Miss playing days and was named to the USM "Team of the Century." He recently became one of only five players in the history of the football program to become a member of the Southern Miss Legends Club.

Nix was the first Golden Eagle ever to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his freshman and sophomore campaigns and the only Southern Miss and C-USA player ever to rush for 1,000 yards or more in three seasons. His career achievements at Southern Miss also included being the C-USA Freshman of the Year and a first team Freshman All-American in 1998.

The Attalla, Alabama, native was born Feb. 22, 1980 and is a 2002 Southern Miss graduate with a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Nix is married to the former Allison Story of Frankfort, Kentucky, who also attended USM and played forward on the women's basketball team.

Dan Werner, a highly successful veteran offensive mind, is in his fifth season as head coach Hugh Freeze's co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach.

The Rebels led the SEC and were top 10 nationally in scoring (40.8), total offense (517.8 ypg) and passing (334.7 ypg).

Werner, a 2015 Broyles Award nominee for the nation's top assistant, coached first-year signal caller Chad Kelly to a record-breaking season. The Manning Award finalist led the SEC in passing yards (4,042), points responsible for (246) and total offense (4,542), setting school records and ranking third all-time in league history with his passing and total offense yardage numbers. Kelly was repsonsible for a school-record 41 touchdowns and tied Eli Manning's best Ole Miss mark of 31 scoring passes.

The guarterback developement did not start with Kelly. Under Werner's tutelage, Bo Wallace broke Ole Miss school records for career total offensive yards (10,478), 300-yard passing games (11), completion percentage (63.0) and pass efficiency (140.8) and went 24-15 as the Rebels' starting quarterback. In just three years as a starter, Wallace ranked in the SEC's top 10 all-time in total offense and passing yards.

Wallace was named a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award and Davey O'Brien Award after passing for 22 touchdowns and putting up more gaudy stats in 2014. He finished fourth in the SEC in passing (245.7 ypg) and total offense (261.0). He also ranked fifth in completion percentage (60.1), passing touchdowns (22) and pass efficiency (142.2).

Wallace also excelled in 2013 under the leadership and quidance of Werner, who was a nominee for the Broyles Award that year too. Wallace finished third in the SEC and 26th nationally with 257.4 passing yards per game, and was also third in the SEC and 26th nationally in total offense with 284.7 yards per game as an individual.

As a unit, the Ole Miss offense again scored more than 30 points per game. Ole Miss broke then-school records for total offense (473.3 ypg), pass completions (310) and pass attempts (490). The Rebels ranked third in the SEC in passing offense (283.3 ypg) and fifth in total offense, while finishing top 25 in the NCAA in both categories.

In 2012, Werner helped turn around a Rebel offense that ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the SEC and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

Wallace shined in his first year under Werner's tutelage. The 2012 Conerly Trophy winner ranked fifth in the SEC and 45th in the NCAA in total offense (260.3 ypg), fourth in the SEC in points responsible for (14.3/game) and fifth in passing (230.3

In his first stint in Oxford, Werner's offense fueled BenJarvus Green-Ellis to a record-breaking two-year run. The future NFL running back became only the second player in school history to reach the 1,000-yard single-season mark twice, and he ended his tenure No. 5 on the Rebels' career rushing list.

As quarterbacks coach, Werner developed Seth Adams from a walk-on to the SEC's seventh-ranked passer with 1,979 yards in 2007. That year also saw future NFL receivers Mike Wallace and Shay Hodge each haul in six TD passes, while Dexter McCluster and Marshay Green were key offensive weapons.

Werner boasts three decades of coaching experience, including a total of eight years in two terms at the University of Miami when he tutored outstanding quarterbacks and directed some of the best offenses in college football.

Werner helped Miami to eight bowls, four national championship games and three national titles during his combined tenure. He also played an integral part in the development of several of the Hurricanes' greatest QBs, including 2001 Maxwell Award winner Ken Dorsey, 1992 Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torretta as well as Heisman candidates Steve Walsh and Craig Erickson.

The Miami passing game flourished under Werner's guidance. In 2001 and 2002, Dorsey posted totals impressive enough to place high in voting for the Heisman Trophy both years. In 2004, he tutored Brock Berlin to a resurgence, as Berlin moved into the Miami record book with single-season rankings of seventh in touchdown passes, ninth in passing yards, and 10th in total offense.

Over his last five seasons (2001-05) at Miami, Hurricane quarterbacks threw for more than 14,500 yards and 114 touchdowns under Werner, giving balance to an offensive philosophy predicated on equality between the run and the pass. The 2005 Canes finished 9-3 and ranked third in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense (27.1) and pass efficiency

Werner's second stint in Coral Gables was preceded by a spectacular 2000 season as offensive coordinator at Murray State. He built the Racers offense into one of the most potent on the FCS level, as the team ranked 11th nationally in total offense (452 yards per game) and 13th nationally in passing yardage (276 yards per game).

Prior to his lone season at Murray State, Werner was an offensive consultant to Auburn Head Coach Tommy Tuberville during the 1999 season. Before the job at Auburn, Werner was an assistant coach at James Madison University for four seasons from 1995-98. He began his tenure at JMU as assistant head coach/quarterback coach/passing game coordinator in 1995. In 1997 he was promoted to offensive coordinator/ assistant head coach. From 1991-94, Werner coached at Louisiana Tech, where he was an assistant coach in charge of running backs and inside receivers. In 1993, he was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterback coach.

Werner joined the coaching staff at UNLV in the spring of 1990. At UNLV, he was an assistant coach in charge of quarterbacks. In the fall of 1990, Werner left the college game for one season to serve as offensive line coach at Miami's Southridge High School.

As a graduate assistant at Miami during the 1987-88 seasons, Werner worked with UM quarterbacks Steve Walsh, Craig Erickson and Gino Torretta during an era in which the Hurricanes went 23-1 and won the 1987 national championship. In 1989, he was a volunteer assistant coach working with the wide receivers on another Miami national championship

Werner began his college coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at Cornell University. Prior to that, Werner coached five seasons on the high school level.

Werner graduated from Western Michigan University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in education in 1983. He attended Parkway Central High School.

He has two children, Maya and Ian.

Dave Wommack, who is in his 37th year as a college coach, has coached teams to 22 bowl games and been a part of 32 winning seasons, as he serves in his fifth year as Ole Miss' associate head coach for defense/defensive coordinator.

Wommack's 2015 defense continued to be Landsharks throughout the season, intercepting 15 passes and returning four of them for touchdowns. The four pick-sixes tied a school record that dates back to 1938.

In his first year guiding the Rebel linebackers, Wommack coached the team's leading tackler, sophomore DeMarquis

DAVE WOMMACK

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH FOR DEFENSE | LINEBACKERS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 5TH SEASON

Gates, who posted 76 stops. Despite starting just four games, he was a focal point in the heart of the Landshark defense. He was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week after posting a careerhigh 14 tackles in the Rebels' Magnolia Bowl win over LSU.

The 2015 Rebels ranked top three among SEC teams in tackles for loss (8.1/game - 7th in NCAA), interceptions (15 - t23rd in NCAA) and takeaways (23 - t38th in NCAA).

In 2014, Wommack directed an Ole Miss squad that led the nation in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24). With talent and high-flying energy at every level of the defense, the Rebels also led the SEC in interceptions (22), turnovers forced (32), tackles for loss (7.6/game) and opponent third-down conversion (33.0 percent).

For the fourth time in his career, Wommack was a nominee for the Broyles Award, presented annually to the most outstanding assistant coach in college football. He also earned National Defensive Backs Coach of the Year honors from FootballScoop, along with Jason Jones.

A number of players stood out in that 2014 defense, including All-Americans Senquez Golson (CB), Cody Prewitt (FS) and Robert Nkemdiche (DT). Do-everything Mike Hilton led the team in tackles (71) while mostly playing cornerback, while Huskie safety Tony Conner earned All-SEC distinction. Marquis Haynes was a factor as a true freshman, leading the team with 7.5 sacks and 9.0 tackles for loss.

Among Wommack's safeties, Prewitt became a two-time All-American and All-SEC pick from his free safety position, while Conner and Trae Elston were consistent playmakers, too.

As a unit, the Ole Miss defense continued its improvement in 2013, allowing four fewer points per game (23.7) than it did the previous year and ranking top 40 nationally in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense.

Under Wommack, Prewitt enjoyed one of the best seasons of any defensive back in the country. He was selected first team All-America and All-SEC after leading the league and tying for seventh nationally with six interceptions. He topped Ole Miss with 13 passes defended and was second with 71 tackles.

After ranking last in the SEC in total defense in 2011 (419.3 ypg), Ole Miss improved to seventh (375.9 ypg) in Wommack's first year in Oxford.

Following a 38-17 BBVA Compass Bowl win over Pitt, the Rebels finished the 2012 season first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game), dramatic improvements from 2011 (4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game).

Wommack, a native of Kimberling City, Missouri, spent 15 years as a secondary coach before shifting to coach linebackers this season. The 1999, 2000 and 2011 Broyles Award nominee has coached on nine teams that won a conference championship and also participated in trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1989 and 1990. He boasts 19 years of experience as a defensive coordinator, also holding the position at Georgia Tech, Arkansas, Southern Miss, UNLV, Missouri State and Bemidji State.

In 2011, Wommack led an Arkansas State defense that topped the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.5 ypg) and scoring defense (20.8 ppg), ranking in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.6/game) and tied for 15th in sacks (2.7/game).

He also helped coach four defensive players to first team All-Sun Belt Conference honors and three more players to second team all-conference honors, including Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brandon Joiner.

Before going to Arkansas State, Wommack spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, helping lead the Yellow Jackets to the 2009 ACC championship and a trip to the Orange Bowl. Georgia Tech's defense was ranked No. 28 in the nation his first year at the school when the Yellow Jackets were ACC Coastal Division co-champions and appeared in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. He coached three defensive players that went on to play in the NFL, including defensive back Morgan Burnett, defensive end Derrick Morgan and defensive lineman Michael Johnson.

Wommack spent two different stints at Southern Miss, the last in 2007 as linebackers coach when the Golden Eagles ranked first in scoring defense and second in total defense in Conference USA and played in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. He also coached future NFL player Gerald McGrath in 2007.

His first stop in Hattiesburg covered the 1994-2000 seasons, leading a Southern Miss defense that ranked among the top eight in the nation his final two years as coordinator. While he was defensive coordinator for both the 1999 and 2000 seasons, he was also elevated to assistant head coach in 2000. The Golden Eagles ranked eighth in the nation in total defense in 1999 and won the Liberty Bowl. The 2000 squad won the GMAC Bowl while ranking second in the nation in total defense. He coached the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year both seasons, Cedric Scott in 2000 and Adalius Thomas in 1999.

He was the Golden Eagles' defensive backs coach from 1994-98, tutoring five future NFL players that were among a secondary that consistently ranked top 20 in the nation. The Golden Eagles ranked first in the nation in turnovers gained in 1994 and fourth in 1995. The 1996 team ranked first in Conference USA in turnovers and the 1997 team ranked first in the league in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. The 1998 squad ranked 18th in the nation in total defense and 22nd in scoring defense.

Following his initial seven years at Southern Miss, Wommack spent 2001-04 at Arkansas before joining the South Carolina staff for the 2005 and 2006 seasons. His first year with the Razorbacks, Wommack was the defensive backs coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator his final three seasons at the school. He was a part of three bowl teams at Arkansas that competed in the Cotton Bowl, Independence Bowl and Music City Bowl. The 2002 team won the SEC West.

During his time as Arkansas' defensive coordinator, the Razorbacks led the SEC in turnovers (2002 and 2003) and ranked second in the SEC in rushing defense (2002) and third in sacks (2002) and red zone defense (2002). The 2003 squad also ranked 21st in the nation in pass defense and 36th in total defense. He coached three NFL players, including Caleb Miller, Ken Hamblin and Ahmad Carroll.

Wommack coached defensive backs and outside linebackers for two years (2005-06) at South Carolina before returning to Southern Miss for the 2007 season. During his time with the Gamecocks, Wommack helped coach a defense ranked 22nd in the nation in pass defense and seventh in pass efficiency defense. He coached several All-SEC players at South Carolina, including the conference's top tackler among defensive backs in Ko Simpson.

Wommack coached at UNLV from 1992-93, serving as the Rebels' defensive coordinator. During his time there, the Rebels enjoyed their first winning season in seven years and he coached six all-conference defensive players.

Prior to making the jump to NCAA Division I-A, Wommack was defensive coordinator at Missouri State from 1986-91.

Wommack earned his bachelor's degree from Missouri Southern State College in 1978 before going on to earn his master's degree from the University of Arkansas. Dave and his wife, Leslie, have two children, son Kane and daughter Hayley, and two grandchildren. Kane is the defensive coordinator at South Alabama.

JOHN KYLE DAVIS Graduate Assistant Offense

John Kyle Davis is in his first season as an offensive graduate assistant at his alma mater.

Davis was a student equipment manager as an undergrad at Ole Miss. After earning his bachelor's degree in secondary education in May 2013, he spent two seasons as an intern working with the Rebels' running backs and special teams.

As an offensive intern in 2015, he assisted the quarterbacks during the Rebels' record-breaking campaign in which they broke nearly every school record for passing and total yardage. Ole Miss led the SEC and ranked top 10 nationally in scoring, total offense and passing yards.

A native of Pelahatchie, Mississippi, Davis is the son of John and Judy Davis.

EMMANUEL McCRAY Graduate Assistant Offense

Emmanuel McCray is in his second season as an offensive graduate assistant at his alma mater.

In his first season, his assistance with the offensive line helped Ole Miss shatter numerous school records while leading the SEC and ranking top-10 nationally in scoring, total offense and passing yards.

McCray returned to Ole Miss after giving the NFL a shot. He was picked up as an undrafted free agent by the St. Louis Rams in 2014, but did not land a roster spot.

McCray played in 38 career games with 17 starts at left tackle during his four-year Rebel career. He also helped block for two of the best offenses in school history. After serving as the full-time starter at left tackle his junior year, he played both tackles and guard in 2013.

The Jackson, Mississippi native helped turn around the Rebels' fortunes with back-to-back bowl wins after the 2012 and 2013 seasons in the BBVA Compass Bowl and Music City Bowl, respectively. He was selected to play in the 2014 Medal of Honor Bowl, a post-collegiate all-star game.

DAVIS MERRITT Graduate Assistant Defense

Davis Merritt is in his third year as a defensive graduate assistant. He helps coach the defensive backs, a unit which was key in the Rebels leading the nation in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and fewest touchdowns allowed (24) in 2014.

In 2013, Merritt served as an intern, working with the defense as well.

He came to Ole Miss from Mississippi State, where he served as a student assistant from March 2011 to March 2013, working with the DBs. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in May 2013.

Merritt, a native of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, was wed to Kathleen Carollo on June 14, 2014. He is pursuing a master's degree in journalism and news media.

CHRISTIAN ROBINSON GRADUATE ASSISTANT DEFENSE

Christian Robinson, a former SEC linebacker, is in his second season as a defensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He works primarily with the defensive line.

Robinson spent the previous two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant and quality control assistant as his alma mater, the University of Georgia. He helped the Bulldogs lead the SEC in turnover margin and rank among the nation's best pass defenses in 2014.

A native of Norcross, Georgia, Robinson played in 51 games with 17 starts as a linebacker during his Georgia career from 2009-12, compiling 159 tackles, 22.5 TFLs and 4.5 sacks. He was a part of back-to-back SEC Eastern Division title teams in 2011 and 2012.

Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Georgia in 2012 and attended mini-camp with the St. Louis Rams before pursuing a coaching career. He is the son of Ken and Lori Robinson.

JOHN MILLER ASSOCIATE A.D. FOR FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Hugh Freeze added great experience to his Rebel support staff with the addition of John Miller as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in January 2012. Miller has since been promoted to Associate A.D.

Miller oversees the day-to-day operations of the Ole Miss football office, which includes administrative duties with academics, player development, recruiting, facility management, team travel and other areas.

His behind-the-scenes work has supported the team's improvement on the field, which has resulted in four straight bowl berths, including back-to-back New Year's Six games.

Miller came to Ole Miss after 12 years at Southern Miss, including the final seven as operations director. Prior to that, he worked as an assistant with the recruiting department and also spent time assisting with the defensive backs.

While overseeing the day-to-day operations of the USM football office, Miller also assisted with all areas of fundraising within the football program and served as Southern Miss' liaison with NFL Scouts and oversaw the player timing days.

The Golden Eagles received a bowl invitation in all but one of Miller's seasons in Hattiesburg, including each of the final 10 years.

Before entering the football profession, Miller was in the United States Army, where he worked in the criminal investigation division. He received two Army Commendations, a National Defense Award for Desert Storm and a Cold War Era Award for Desert Storm.

After serving four years in the Army, Miller worked as an assistant coach at Clinton High School under David Bradberry.

A 1999 graduate of Southern Miss, Miller is the son of Walter and Mary Miller of Clinton. He has two sons, Jonathon and Josh.

BARNEY FARRAR
ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE RELATIONS

In his second stint with the Rebel football staff, Barney Farrar was named Ole Miss' Assistant Athletics Director for High School and Junior College Relations on Dec. 12, 2011.

He plays a vital role in recruiting, which has helped Ole Miss land four straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2013 and 2016 hauls that ranked top five in the nation.

His contributions have also helped Ole Miss reach four straight bowls, including back-to-back New Year's Six games.

Farrar spent 2011 as the head of Southern Miss' player development program and led USM's charge in building and maintaining relationships at the high school level.

Farrar moved into that role after three seasons as the tight ends coach for the Golden Eagles. In his second year, Farrar fought cancer and was able to return to 100 percent.

He was also named by Rivals.com as one of the top "Non-Big Six" Recruiters of the Year for the class of 2010 and was one of only four C-USA coaches selected.

Farrar's tight ends were instrumental to the success of USM's passing attack in each of the three years he mentored the group as they were the top targets year after year.

Prior to coming to the Golden Eagles, Farrar had stops at Iowa State, Rice, Clemson and Ole Miss, where he served as Assistant A.D. for External Affairs in 2006.

The native of Kossuth, Mississippi, played his collegiate football at Northeast (Miss.) Junior College and Delta State. Farrar helped DSU accumulate a 12-8 record in 1981 and 1982 while also serving as a captain as a senior.

He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983 and a master's degree in physical education in 1985, both from DSII

Farrar has a son, Clint, and a daughter, Cari.

TOM LUKE ASSISTANT A.D. FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Former Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke returned to his alma mater in May 2013 when Hugh Freeze hired him as Assistant Athletics Director for Player Development.

The brother of Ole Miss offensive line coach and cooffensive coordinator Matt Luke, he oversees various aspects of academics and campus life for Rebel players. His guidance has helped raise the players' standards in the classroom and off the field, as the team posted its highest GPA in history for the spring 2016 semester.

Luke has helped the Rebels reach bowl games in each of his three seasons, including back-to-back New Year's Six appearances.

Luke was Ole Miss' coordinator of football operations from 2004-05 under David Cutcliffe and Ed Orgeron. He had spent the last few years in the sporting goods business.

He spent 12 years teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy prior to his first stint on the Ole Miss staff.

Luke earned three letters (1989-91) while playing quarterback at Ole Miss, but suffered three concussions during his career, which led to his decision to pass up his senior year and accept a coaching position on the high school level.

He ended his career ranked 17th in passing with 1,524 yards, completing 86 of 178 passes with 10 interceptions. At the time, he also ranked 17th in career total offense with 2,078 yards (554 rushing and 1,524 passing).

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Ole Miss in 1992, Luke began teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy. During his nine years as offensive coordinator, Jackson Academy won four Mississippi Private School Association state titles and was twice state runner-up. As the head baseball coach from 1995-2001, Jackson Academy won two MPSA state championships.

Luke is married to the former Angie Pope of Clinton, Mississippi, also an Ole Miss graduate and former Rebelette in "The Pride of the South" marching band. They are the parents of one son, Cale, and two daughters, Carson and Cayden. Cale is currently a wide receiver at Ole Miss.

CHRIS RIPPON ASSISTANT A.D. FOR RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Former Ole Miss assistant coach Chris Rippon returned to the Rebel program in August 2015 as Assistant A.D. for Recruiting Operations.

Rippon worked with Hugh Freeze under Ed Orgeron from 2005-07 as the Rebels' defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator. He has since had coaching stints at Rutgers (2008), Marshall (2010-12) and Columbia (2013-14).

A 34-year veteran of the college coaching ranks, Rippon has also served on staffs at Syracuse (1993-2004), Boston University (1990-93) and Western Connecticut State (1982-90). He has been the defensive coordinator at Columbia, Marshall, Syracuse, Boston and Western Connecticut State, while he's been special teams coordinator at Rutgers, Ole Miss and Syracuse. He was head coach at Western Connecticut State from 1987-90 and interim head coach at Columbia for the first two months of 2015.

Over the course of his career, Rippon coached 22 players that have been drafted into the National Football League, including five first-round picks.

He is a 1982 graduate of Southern Connecticut State with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned a master's degree in agency counseling from Western Connecticut State in 1986.

Rippon and his wife, the former Lisa Miano of Trumbull, Connecticut, have four children: sons Christopher and Matthew, and twin daughters Jillian and Samantha.

LEE WILBANKS ASSISTANT A.D. FOR PLAYER PERSONNEL

After spending the last three years as a member of the Rebel recruiting staff, Lee Wilbanks was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Player Personnel in June.

Before coming to Oxford, Wilbanks was the wide receivers coach at Hinds Community College from 2011-13, where he coached several receivers to MACJC All-State status.

Wilbanks served as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator under Hugh Freeze at Lambuth University from 2008-09, where he helped lead the Eagles to back-to-back conference titles and an undefeated regular season in 2009.

Other previous stops include North Carolina A&T (assistant coach, 2007), Ole Miss (intern, 2006), Murray State (graduate assistant, 2004-06).

Wilbanks received a bachelor of business administration, with an emphasis in marketing, from Ole Miss in 2004. He and his wife, Caroline, are expecting their first child this fall.

PAUL JACKSON HEAD FOOTBALL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Describing him as "one of the young and up-and-coming stars in strength and conditioning," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze named Paul Jackson strength and conditioning coach for his first Rebel staff on Jan. 9, 2012.

Now in his fifth season, Jackson's hard work and leadership have helped the Ole Miss program improve each year. With players that are noticeably stronger, faster and better able to run Freeze's tempo offense, the Rebels have achieved four straight bowl appearances, including backto-back New Year's Six bowls in 2014 and 2015.

Jackson came to Oxford after spending 2011 at Southern Miss, where he oversaw the strength and conditioning for the entire USM athletics department with direct responsibility over football. In his one season there, the football team had its best record in history at 12-2 and captured the Conference USA championship.

Jackson arrived in Hattiesburg after serving in 2010 as the Director of Athletic Conditioning for Football at Miami (Ohio). In his lone season, he helped the Redhawks to the 2010 MAC championship and a victory in the 2011 GoDaddy.Com Bowl, becoming the first team in NCAA history to go from double-digit losses to double-digit wins in one year (1-11 in 2009 to 10-4 in 2010).

From 2007-10, Jackson served as an assistant strength coach at LSU, working directly with the Tigers football and volleyball teams. During his time in Baton Rouge, Jackson won an SEC and national championship with the football team as well as three consecutive SEC Western Division and one SEC championship with the volleyball team. While working for the Tigers, Jackson worked under and was mentored by strength and conditioning legend Tommy Moffitt.

A native of White Plains, New York, Jackson got his start in the business as a Professional Intern Strength Coach with the NFL's New York Giants. He also spent time as a Performance Enhancement Specialist at the Parisi Speed School in Garwood, New Jersey, where the focus is sportspecific speed and agility training as well as combine prep.

He is a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association.

During his college days at Montclair State (N.J.), Jackson lettered in football, spending time at both fullback and linebacker. He earned a B.S. in physical education in 2006 and later received an M.S. in kinesiology from LSU in 2009.

He is married to the former Kristina Hull, who played softball at Georgia Tech and has been a Winter Olympic hopeful in the skeleton. The couple met when they were both on the strength and conditioning staff at LSU.

THE NEW NORM

Ole Miss enters the 2016 season with an expectation level that has steadily risen over the tenure of head coach Hugh Freeze.

Freeze begins his fifth season at the helm of the Rebel program this fall and instead of fans hoping the team breaks through to success in the rugged Southeastern Conference Western Division, football fans and pundits now expect Ole Miss to remain one of the best squads in the league.

With its high-powered offense, tenacious defense and winning attitude, Ole Miss is making noise in college football that it hadn't for decades. Just look at some of the Rebels' recent achievements:

- 2016 Sugar Bowl Champions (first time since 1970)
- 34 wins over last four years (most since 1960-63)
- 17 SEC wins over last four years (most since 1997-00)
- 4 straight bowl appearances (first time since 1997-00)
- 27 straight weeks in top 25 (most since 1957-62)
- No. 3 ranking in 2014 and 2015 (highest since 1964)
- Beat No. 1 team in nation in 2014 (first time in history)
- Led NCAA in scoring defense in 2014 (first time since 1963)
- Beat Alabama 2 straight years (first time in school history)

- 5 wins over ranked teams in 2015 (most in school history)
- Top-10 final ranking in 2015 (first time since 1969)
- 64 school records broken in 2015
- 3 first-round NFL draft picks in 2016 (most in school history)
- Top-5 recruiting classes in 2013, 2016 (best in school history)
 The Rebels dominated the SEC West last year, knocking off Alabama, Auburn and LSU in the same season for the first time, while also capturing their third Egg Bowl win over Mississippi State in the last four tries.

Despite losing first-round NFL draft picks Robert Nkemdiche (DT), Laquon Treadwell (WR) and Laremy Tunsil (OT), Ole Miss is expecting more of the same in its next chapter of the "New Norm" this season.

Chad Kelly, who produced one of the best seasons ever by an SEC quarterback last year, is back for his senior season. He will be surrounded by a plethora of playmakers and protectors on the offensive side of the ball, thanks in large part to the coaching staff's recruiting efforts that have resulted in four straight top-15 signing classes, including the 2016 haul that ranked as high as No. 4 in the country.

Chad Kelly hoists the Sugar Bowl MVP trophy after the Rebels' 48-20 win over Oklahoma State.

Ole Miss went to Tuscaloosa and defeated eventual national champ Alabama 43-37 last year, making it two straight Rebel victories over the Crimson Tide.

The defense will be a bit younger than it was last season, but the depth of talent and speed this fall might be as good as Vaught-Hemingway Stadium will have ever seen.

Speaking of Vaught-Hemingway, the Rebels' home venue will have a flashy new look this fall after the north end zone is bowled in and brand new sound system, lights and video boards are installed. The gameday atmosphere from the famous Grove to Hollingsworth Field keeps making its case for best in the nation.

OFFENSE

Senior quarterback Chad Kelly returns to lead an Ole Miss offense that set fire to not only the school record books, but the SEC record books, in 2015.

Among the 64 school statistical records broken or tied last year were the most points (531), touchdowns (68), yards (6,731), passing yards (4,351), passing touchdowns (35) and first downs (341) in school history.

Kelly himself took down 17 school records, including the third-most passing yards (4,042) and total yards (4,542) in a season by any player in SEC history.

Battling for the backup role behind the SEC's top returning signal-caller are redshirt-freshman Jason Pellerin and true freshman Shea Patterson, both of whom have coaches excited about the future of the team's offense.

Two of Kelly's primary targets from last year were taken in the NFL draft (Laquon Treadwell - first round - Minnesota Vikings, Cody Core - sixth round - Cincinnati Bengals), but there are plenty of threats remaining in the Rebels' air attack.

All-American and three-time All-SEC tight end Evan Engram is back for his senior year. He is the all-time Ole Miss leader in catches (97) and yards (1,394) by a tight end and ranks fourth among all returning SEC players in career receiving yards. Providing depth behind Engram will be seniors Hunter Thurley and Taz Zettergren, while signees Gabe Angel, Octavious Cooley and Jacob Mathis hope to make an impact this fall.

The Rebels' corps of wide receivers could be one of the best in the country, even without Treadwell and Core. Senior Quincy Adeboyejo (38 catches, 604 yards, 7 TDs) and junior Damore'ea Stringfellow (36 catches, 503 yards, 5 TDs) have big-play ability, like when Adeboyejo snagged a tipped Kelly pass out of the air and raced 66 yards to "tip six" glory in the Rebels' win over Alabama in Tuscaloosa.

A big collection of playmakers and former elite-level high school recruits - all of whom stand at least 6-foot-2 tall - also includes senior Derrick Jones, junior Markell Pack, sophomore DaMarkus Lodge and redshirt-freshman Van Jefferson. The son of former NFL player and assistant coach Shawn Jefferson, Van stood out so much in spring ball that he is penciled in as the No. 1 slot receiver entering fall camp.

An intriguing storyline for the fall will be where blue-chip signees A.J. Brown, D.K. Metcalf and Tre Nixon fit into the receiving corps. All three are superbly talented, but they may have to wait a year or two for their time to shine behind the loaded stable of veterans.

Senior Akeem Judd and junior Jordan Wilkins provide experience in the running game. Both have the size - Wilkins is 6-1, 215 and Judd is 5-11, 228 - and elusiveness to do well against tough SEC defenses. Coaches also expect redshirt-freshman Eric Swinney to be a factor this fall.

Ole Miss has to replace all five offensive line starters from the Sugar Bowl win over Oklahoma State - including NFL draft picks Laremy Tunsil (first round, Miami Dolphins) and Fahn Cooper (fifth round, San Francisco 49ers) - but the returning big men are not without talent and some experience.

Penciled in as the front-runners at left and right tackle are senior Jeremy Liggins, a converted quarterback/tight end, and Sean Rawlings, who made seven starts at right tackle a year ago. They will be pushed by redshirt-freshmen Alex Givens and Michael Howard. And look for elite signee Greg Little to have something to say about the starting tackle position once fall camp is underway.

Junior Rod Taylor and sophomores Javon Patterson and Jordan Sims have all been part-time starters at guard with plenty of SEC experience under their belts. Depth will be provided by junior Daronte Bouldin and potentially an incoming freshman or two from the nation's No. 4 signing class.

Senior Robert Conyers, who can play center or tackle, is the top candidate to snap the ball to Kelly. He started five games at center last year before a torn ACL ended his campaign. Other centers battling for playing time are senior Jacob Feeley and true freshman Eli Johnson.

DEFENSE

Every football coach loves to talk about team speed, and the Rebels have a lot of it, especially on the defensive side of the ball

Even if you start with the big guys along the defensive line, Ole Miss is fast. All-SEC junior defensive end Marquis Haynes might be one of the quickest players on the team, while interior linemen Breeland Speaks, D.J. Jones and Issac Gross have quick, explosive moves that can transport their bigger frames into opponents' backfields at a scary pace.

Haynes tied the school record for most sacks in a season with 10 last year and is only getting better, according to his coaches. His cohorts on the ends will be returning starter senior Fadol Brown and Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner senior John Youngblood, while sophomore Victor Evans, sophomore Garrald McDowell, redshirt-freshman Shawn Curtis and true freshman Charles Wiley are all expected to contribute Holding down the middle will be Speaks, a sophomore, and seniors Jones and Gross. All three have started games at D-tackle. Production will also need to come from a slew of youngsters, including sophomore Ross Donelly, redshirt-freshman Austrian Robinson and blue-chip signee Benito Jones.

There's more speed at the linebacker level, starting with junior DeMarquis Gates, who can play both inside and outside. He was the team's leading tackler (76) as a part-time starter last season, and coaches rave about his work ethic and natural ability to pursue and tackle ball carriers. Oregon State graduate transfer Rommel Mageo is also expected to be a big contributor at Mike, while senior Temario Strong and redshirt-freshman Willie Hibbler should provide depth.

Along with Gates, the outside Stinger linebacker will be a battle between senior Terry Caldwell, juniors Tayler Polk and Ray Ray Smith, and junior college transfer Detric Bing-Dukes.

Do-it-all senior Tony Conner looks to return from injury and lead the Rebels in the secondary. The 2014 All-SEC safety plays the Huskie position, which requires him to be equally adept at both pass coverage and mixing it up at the line of scrimmage. He missed seven games due to a torn meniscus last season but has always had NFL scouts drooling over his talent. Junior A.J. Moore and redshirt-freshman Montrell Custis are expected to help at Huskie.

The long-time safety duo of Trae Elston and Mike Hilton have graduated and departed to the NFL, opening the door for some of the team's talented and speedy youngsters to fill their shoes. Coming out of spring, junior C.J. Hampton and sophomore Zedrick Woods were neck-and-neck for the free safety role, while true freshman Myles Hartsfield enrolled early and wowed the coaches en route to being the clubhouse leader at Rover. Providing competition at those spots are junior C.J. Moore, redshirt-freshman Armani Linton and signee Deontay Anderson.

Ole Miss has gotten longer and faster at cornerback over the last couple of years, and the Rebel return both of last year's starters in 6-foot-0 senior Tony Bridges and 5-foot-11 junior Ken Webster. Also in the mix at corner will be seniors Carlos Davis and Kailo Moore, sophomore Cam Ordway and redshirt-freshman Jalen Julius.

SPECIALISTS

The Rebels return nearly all of the specialists from last season, including kicker Gary Wunderlich and punter Will Gleeson, who are both juniors. Wunderlich converted 19-of-25 field goals and all 63 extra points last year en route to 120 points, seventh-most by a kicker in SEC history.

Senior long snapper Will Few and senior kickoff specialist Nathan Noble also return, while Gleeson is the top candidate to replace departed Ryan Buchanan at holder.

Defensive backs Carlos Davis and Jalen Julius, running back Jordan Wilkins, and wide receiver Markell Pack are the prime candidates to lead the way on kick and punt returns.

SCHEDULE

Ole Miss has perhaps the most daunting four-game stretch to start the season of any college football team in 2016. The Rebels will trek to Orlando for a primetime Labor Day season opener against Florida State in the inaugural Camping World Kickoff game Sept. 5, which could be a matchup of top 10 teams depending on the polls. After the home opener against Wofford (Sept. 10), Ole Miss will host back-to-back games in renovated Vaught-Hemingway Stadium against SEC heavyweights Alabama (Sept. 17) and Georgia (Sept. 24). The Rebels will attempt to defeat the Crimson Tide for the third straight season, which would be unprecedented in the Nick Saban era of Alabama Football.

Other SEC home games include Auburn (Oct. 29) and Mississippi State (Nov. 26). Conference road dates are with Arkansas (Oct. 15), LSU (Oct. 22), Texas A&M (Nov. 12) and Vanderbilt (Nov. 19).

Ole Miss rounds out its 2016 slate with home games against 2015 bowl teams Memphis (Oct. 1 - homecoming) and Georgia Southern (Nov. 5).

Season tickets for the renovated 64,038-seat stadium (largest stadium in Mississippi) were sold out by May 4, the earliest in program history by more than a month.

Junior DE Marquis Haynes (who now wears No. 10) tied the single-season sacks record last year.

#15 OLE MISS 76, UT MARTIN 3

Attendance: 60,186 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Trae Elston

OXFORD, Miss. — Ole Miss scored early and often against UT Martin.

The Rebel offense amassed 662 yards and scored 10 touchdowns, while the defense limited the Skyhawks to just 290 yards and scored a TD of its own, as Ole Miss rolled to a 76-3 season-opening win in front of 60,186 fans at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

It marked the most points in a game for Ole Miss and the largest margin of victory since a 92-0 win against West Tennessee Teachers College, now known as Union University, in 1935.

On the first play of the Rebels' second series of the day, senior Jaylen Walton broke free on a draw play up the middle for a 60-yard touchdown run to get Ole Miss on the scoreboard. After the Rebel defense forced a Skyhawk punt, junior Carlos Davis returned it 58 yards to the UT Martin 26, and five plays later Walton danced into the end zone from four yards out for his second TD of the day to put Ole Miss up 13-0.

Walton finished the game with three carries, but gained 65 yards and tied a career-high two TDs. Following another UT Martin punt, junior quarterback Chad Kelly — making his Ole Miss debut — connected with sophomore Markell Pack for a 56-yard TD pass on the Rebels' first play of the drive. Sophomore Ryan Buchanan entered the game on Ole Miss' next offensive series and capped a 38-yard drive with a with a 15-yard TD strike to junior wideout Quincy Adeboyejo that put the Rebels up 27-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Ole Miss continued to add to its lead in the second quarter after Buchanan found junior Robert Nkemdiche, who was lined up at tight end, in the flat and Nkemdiche rumbled 31 yards to the end zone to put the Rebels up 34-0. It was Nkemdiche's first career reception and touchdown, and the 6-4, 296-pounder added a blocked field goal later in the quarter. Buchanan finished the game with a pair of TDs and 58 yards on 4-of-6 passing.

#14 OLE MISS 73, FRESNO STATE 21

Game #2 • Sept. 12, 2015 Attendance: 60,302 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Quincy Adeboyejo

OXFORD, Miss. — Ole Miss scored 76 points last week against UT Martin and quarterback Chad Kelly set out to prove that wasn't a fluke.

The junior signal caller directed the Rebels on seven-straight touchdown drives to start the game, as Ole Miss cruised to a 73-21 victory over Fresno State.

Kelly completed 20-of-25 attempts for 346 yards and four touchdowns of 14, 16, 44 and 50 yards, and added 26 yards and a rushing score on the ground.

Through the first two games of the year the Rebels have scored 149 points - the most in a two-game stretch in school history - and have averaged 634.5 yards of offense.

Ole Miss took the opening kickoff and went 85 yards in 10 plays capped by a 14-yard touchdown pass from Kelly to senior wide out Cody Core. Following a Fresno State three-and-out, the Rebels took over on their own 41 and took just five plays to go 59 yards for another score - a four-yard scoring rush up the middle by Kelly - that put Ole Miss up 14-0 with 8:26 left in the opening quarter.

The Rebels tacked on two more scores in the quarter on a pair of passing TDs from Kelly to Quincy Adeboyejo from 16 and 50 yards to go up 28-0. The 28 points were the most in an opening quarter in Ole Miss modern history (since 1962) surpassing last week's mark of 27 points.

After Fresno State picked off sophomore Ryan Buchanan and returned it 56 yards for a score, Kelly re-entered the game and found Adeboyejo for the third time in the first half on a 44-yard TD strike. Adeboyejo finished the game with five catches for a career-high 120 yards and three scores.

The Ole Miss defense limited Fresno State to just 316 yards and forced four Bulldog turnovers, including a pair of interception returns for TDs.

Junior defensive star Robert Nkemdiche scored a TD in his second-straight game, this time a one-yard plunge up the middle on the Rebels' opening drive of the second half.

#11 OLE MISS 43, #2 ALABAMA 37

Game #3 • Sept. 19, 2015 Attendance: 101,821 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Cody Core

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — For the second straight year, Ole Miss and Alabama delivered an instant classic on the gridiron. For the second straight year, Ole Miss took down Alabama. Behind five turnovers forced by the Landshark defense, the No. 11 Rebels won 43-37, defeating the No. 2 Crimson Tide in consecutive seasons for the first time in program history.

Playing a night game on the road in front of a capacity crowd of 101,821 at Bryant-Denny Stadium, Ole Miss never trailed in the game and left Tuscaloosa victorious for the first time since 1988.

Ole Miss scored at least 43 points for the third consecutive game, marking the first time that feat has ever been accomplished in program history. The 43 points was also the most the Rebels have ever scored in a game played in Tuscaloosa.

Junior quarterback Chad Kelly was calm, cool and collected as he played away from Vaught-Hemingway Stadium for the first time in his Rebel career. He finished the evening completing 18-of-33 passes for 341 yards and three touchdowns through the air, while also rushing for a score. Kelly and the Ole Miss offense did not turn the ball over once and recorded 24 points off of the five Alabama turnovers.

A.J. Moore was in on two of the turnovers, recovering the fumble on the opening kick and forcing a fumble on another kick return later in the first half. Trae Elston picked off a pass for the third straight game, while teammate C.J. Johnson has made an interception in back-to-back games. Tony Bridges' interception with 2:36 left in the game was the fifth and final turnover forced by the Landshark defense.

Cody Core caught four passes for a career-high 123 yards, including a 73-yard TD. Laquon Treadwell hauled in a team-high five passes for 80 yards, his last catch a 24-yarder in the end zone that ended up being the game-winning score.

#3 OLE MISS 27, VANDERBILT 16

Game #4 • Sept. 26, 2015 Attendance: 60,654 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, • Oxford, Miss.

Robert Nkemdiche

OXFORD, Miss. — The Rebels entered the game with the nation's highest-scoring offense averaging 64.0 points per game, and scored just 20 points through the first three quarters, but Ole Miss outlasted the Commodores 27-16 in front of a sellout crowd of 60,654 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium to improve to 4-0 (2-0 SEC) on the season.

Vanderbilt battled the Rebels all night and took an early 3-0 lead with 3:25 left in the first frame after Commodore kicker Tommy Openshaw connected from 28 yards out. It marked the first time all season Ole Miss had trailed in a game, a span of more than 191 minutes of game action.

Kelly and the Rebel offense responded right back with a five play, 72-yard drive capped by a 20-yard TD pass to sophomore receiver Damore'ea Stringfellow that gave Ole Miss a 7-3 lead with 2:13 left in the first quarter. Kelly finished the game with 321 yards on 24-of-42 passing and one score.

The 'Dores put together a seven play, 50-yard drive to open the second half capped by a 41-yard field goal from Openshaw that cut the Rebel lead to 13-6. Ole Miss took the ball on the ensuing kickoff and went 64 yards in nine plays, but Vanderbilt blocked Wunderlich's 29-yard field goal attempt to keep it a one-score game.

Quarterback Johnny McCrary then marched the Commodores 88 yards in eight plays and found Ralph Webb over the middle for a seven-yard TD catch to tie the game at 13 with 7:39 left in the third. McCrary passed for 194 yards and one TD in the game.

Needing a spark, the Rebels found one on special teams after Cale Luke blocked Vanderbilt's punt from deep inside Commodore territory and Ole Miss recovered the ball on the VU 20-yard line. Seven plays later, all-everything Robert Nkemdiche found the end zone from a yard out to put the Rebels back on top 20-13 at the end of the third quarter.

Vanderbilt marched itself into the red zone again to start the fourth quarter, but the Ole Miss defense stiffened and limited the 'Dores to another Openshaw field goal — this one from 34 yards out — that cut the Rebel lead to 20-16 with 12:12 left in regulation.

#23 FLORIDA 38, #3 OLE MISS 10

Game #5 • Oct. 3, 2015 Attendance: 90,585 • Ben Hill Griffin Stadium • Gainesville, Fla.

Markell Pack

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — In front of a packed crowd of 90,585 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, No. 3 Ole Miss could not overcome a big deficit early in the game. No. 23 Florida scored the first 25 points of the game to hand the Rebels (4-1, 2-1 SEC) their first loss of the season, 38-10.

Chad Kelly completed 26-of-40 passes for 259 yards. The junior quarter-back found 10 different receivers throughout the night. His favorite targets were Laquon Treadwell and Akeem Judd as both Rebels caught five passes. Treadwell finished with a team-high 42 receiving yards, while Evan Engram made three receptions for 41 yards.

On the ground, the Rebels were also led by Kelly with 40 yards on 15 carries. The Florida defense forced four fumbles, and Ole Miss lost three of them. Four turnovers throughout the night hurt the Rebels as they led to 19 Florida points.

The Gators (5-0, 3-0 SEC) were led by quarterback Will Grier, who went 24-of-29 for 271 yards and four touchdowns. Demarcus Robinson had eight catches for 98 yards and a touchdown.

Florida tallied 355 yards of total offense, while Ole Miss gained 328 yards. The Rebels had 23 first downs compared to 18 for the Gators. However, a 50 percent (8-of-16) conversion rate on third down helped Florida keep drive alive and wear down the Landshark defense.

Both teams saw their offenses go three-and-out to start the game before Florida put together the first scoring drive. The Gators went 61 yards in five plays with a pair of hookups between Grier and Robinson. A 36-yard touchdown by that duo put UF on the board. After an Ole Miss fumble on the ensuing drive, the Gators took advantage of the turnover and good field position, scoring a touchdown on another five-play drive for a 13-0 lead with 6:48 left in the first quarter.

The Gators completed a 77-yard tTD pass to claim a 19-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Just before halftime, Florida found the end zone to take a 25-0 lead into the locker room.

Getting the ball to start the second half, the Rebels orchestrated a 70-yard scoring drive that resulted in a 22-yard field goal by Gary Wunderlich.

With just over four minutes left in the game, Kelly found Markell Pack for a 7-yard touchdown pass-and-catch to give Ole Miss its first and only touchdown of the night.

OXFORD, Miss. - Junior signal caller Chad Kelly completed 24-of-33 passes for a career-high 384 yards and touchdown passes of 20, 37 and 66 yards, as the Rebels routed the Aggies 52-3.

Kelly also rushed 32 yards and added another score on the ground, as Ole Miss amassed 665 yards of total offense, the most since the Rebels posted 751 yards against Troy in 2013.

After both teams traded field goals to start the game, Ole Miss took over, reeling off 49-straight points, including a 31-3 lead into the half.

reeling off 49-straight points, including a 31-3 lead into the half.

After allowing the Aggie offense to gain 67 yards and convert three third downs on the first drive, the Ole Miss defense stiffened and shut out New Mexico State the rest of the way. The Rebels allowed just 167 yards of total offense after the opening drive and forced two turnovers with four sacks.

Following the Aggies 39-yard field goal to tie the game, Kelly marched the Rebels 65 yards down the field in five plays, and sophomore running back Jordan Wilkins capped the drive with an 11-yard TD run up the middle that put Ole Miss up 10-3 with 3:03 left in the first quarter. Junior Akeem Judd added a 3-yard scoring run as the quarter ended to give the Rebels a 17-3 lead after one.

Ole Miss continued scoring in the second quarter with a 66-yard scoring strike from Kelly to sophomore wide out Markell Pack. Kelly added a 4-yard rushing score later in the quarter that put the Rebels up 31-3 heading into the half.

Kelly added to the Ole Miss total in the third quarter with a pair of touchdown passes to junior wide receiver Laquon Treadwell of 20 and 37 yards, respectively. Treadwell finished the game with eight catches for a career-high 136 yards and two scores. It also marked Treadwell's fifth career 100-yard receiving game.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Junior wide receiver Laquon Treadwell had a school record 14 catches for a career-high 144 yards, but No. 12 Ole Miss fell to No. 22 Memphis 37-24 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium. After the Rebels (5-2) scored the game's first 14 points, the Tigers (6-0) recorded 31 unanswered points en route to the game's final tally.

Memphis was paced by quarterback Paxton Lynch, who threw for 384 yards and three touchdowns. The Tigers recorded 491 total yards of offense and converted 12 of 20 third downs.

After a Kelly 7-yard pass to Treadwell on the opening play, the quarterback found this leading receiver again. However, the ball was thrown behind the line of scrimmage, allowing Treadwell to find a wide open Adeboyejo down the sideline. In 20 seconds, the Rebels led 7-0

Kelly went a perfect 6-for-6 for 93 yards through the air, capped off by a 23-yard touchdown toss to Stringfellow to take a 14-0 lead.

Memphis answered with 24 straight points, including 17 in the second quarter, to take a 24-14 lead into the locker room.

The Tigers added to their lead with a touchdown to open the second half. However, the Rebels answered later in the quarter to bring the margin back to 10, 34-24. Treadwell made a pair of big catches, the last a six-yard touchdown reception from Kelly. After forcing a punt, the Rebels sliced into the Memphis lead again with a 24-yard field goal by Gary Wunderlich. At the end of the third quarter, the home team held a 31-24 lead.

In the final 15 minutes of play, Ole Miss was unable to muster a comeback. Memphis made a pair of field goals and kept the Rebels off the board to hand Ole Miss its second loss on the road to a ranked opponent this season.

#23 OLE MISS 23, #15 TEXAS A&M 3

Game #8 • Oct. 24, 2015
Attendance: 60,674 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

C.I. Johnson

OXFORD, Miss. - The swarming Rebel 'D' limited Texas A&M to 192 yards of total offense and three points, as No. 23 Ole Miss knocked off the No. 15 Aggies 23-3 in front of a sellout crowd of 60,674 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss harassed Aggie quarterback Kyle Allen all night, holding him to 12-of-34 passing for just 88 yards and one pick. Allen missed on 14-straight passes over the second and third quarters, and was sacked one time. Texas A&M was just 6-of-20 on third down and rushed 27 times for only 58 yards.

Ole Miss got on the scoreboard in the first quarter after Kelly capped a 79-yard scoring drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to tight end Evan Engram that put the Rebels up 7-0 with 2:33 to go in the opening frame. Engram posted four receptions for 35 yards and a score and passed Jim Poole for the most career receiving yards by a tight end in school history with 1, 126 yards.

Sophomore Gary Wunderlich added a 41-yard field goal minutes into the second quarter that put Ole Miss up 10-0. On the ensuing Texas A&M possession, senior C.J. Johnson forced an Aggie fumble and recovered it at the Texas A&M 33-yard line and Wunderlich added a another field goal, this time from 30 yards out, to give the Rebels a 13-0 lead midway through second quarter.

Ole Miss looked to gain control of the game in the second quarter after Kelly found Quincy Adeboyejo wide open over the middle for a 47-yard TD strike, but the play was called back due to a chop block. Aggie defensive end Miles Garrett then batted Kelly's next pass up in the air and intercepted it to set A&M up at the Ole Miss 33. The Rebel defense stiffened and held Texas A&M to a 44-yard field goal that pulled the Aggies within 13-3 with 2:27 left in the half.

After turnovers on three straight plays with under two minutes to go in the half - an A&M muffed punt, an Ole Miss fumble and an A&M interception — Wunderlich kicked his third field goal of the half from 20 yards out to give the Rebels a 16-3 halftime lead.

The Rebels put the Aggies away early in the third frame when Kelly hit Laquon Treadwell for a 58-yard bomb that put Ole Miss up 23-3 with 9:16 left in the quarter. Treadwell finished the game with five catches for 102 yards and a touchdown, his seventh career 100-yard receiving game.

#19 OLE MISS 27, AUBURN 19

Game #9 • Oct. 31, 2015 Attendance: 87,451 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

Laquon Treadwell

AUBURN, Ala. - Ole Miss (7-2, 4-1 SEC) racked up 558 yards of total offense, including 402 passing yards in a 27-19 win over Auburn. Chad Kelly went 33-of-51 through the air for 381 yards and two touchdowns.

After the Landshark defense forced Auburn to punt on its opening drive, the Ole Miss offense marched 72 yards down the field to set up a 27-yard field goal by Gary Wunderlich to give the Rebels a 3-0 lead with 8:30 remaining in the first quarter.

The Tigers answered with 10 straight points to take a 10-3 lead. But Akeem Judd would answer on a 25 yard run to tie the game, 10-10.

Getting the ball to start the second half, the Rebels once again scored on their first drive of the half. The offense orchestrated a nine-play 55-yard drive that was capped off by a Wunderlich 37-yard field goal, giving Ole Miss the lead back, 13-10.

The Tigers answered with a long drive of their own. Going 89 yards, Auburn set up first-and-goal at the six, but the Rebel defense forced the Tigers to settle for a 23-yard field goal. With 3:46 left in the third quarter, the game was tied once again.

The tie didn't stand for long as Ole Miss regained the lead on the next drive. In five plays, including four passes by Kelly, the Rebels went 75 yards to the house. The junior quarterback found Derrick Jones streaking down the sideline, and the wide receiver made a few shifty moves to cross the goal line from 45 yards out.

Auburn responded with a pair of field goals on back-to-back drives to cut the Ole Miss lead to one, 20-19, with 12 minutes to go in the game. Once again, the Rebels countered with a touchdown. Kelly found Treadwell in the back of the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown pass to increase the advantage to eight, 27-19.

ARKANSAS 53, #18 OLE MISS 52 (OT)

Game #10 • Nov. 7, 2015 Attendance: 60,680 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium• Oxford, Miss.

Chad Kelly

OXFORD, Miss. - Sometimes, football doesn't make sense.

Trailing seven points in the first overtime and facing a 4th-and-25 from the 40-yard line, Arkansas quarterback Brandon Allen completed a pass to Hunter Henry to the 26-yard line. Henry, while being tackled to the ground, flung the ball 20-some yards backwards to Alex Collins, who caught it on a hop and raced for a first down to the 11-yard line.

Allen then found Drew Morgan from 9 yards out to pull Arkansas within 52-51. The Razorbacks elected to go for two, and Allen was wrapped up for a sack to seemingly end the game, but a face mask penalty on Marquis Haynes moved the ball to the one-and-a-half yard line. Allen then took the QB keeper up the middle to convert the attempt and give Arkansas a 53-52 victory.

Chad Kelly danced, ducked, ran, threw and tried to will Ole Miss to victory. The junior signal caller passed for 368 yards, ran for 110 more on the ground and accounted for six touchdowns. Kelly was responsible for 478 of Ole Miss' 590 yards of total offense. He bobbed and weaved in the pocket, finding open receivers and running lanes all night to answer every Razorbacks score.

Kelly raced into the endzone from eight yards out in the first overtime for his sixth score of the night to put Ole Miss up 52-45, but that was the last time he would touch the ball.

It was a wild, back-and-forth game that featured five lead changes, eight-straight scoring drives and 1,195 yards of total offense.

#22 OLE MISS 38, #15 LSU 17

Game #11 • Nov. 21, 2015
Attendance: 60,705 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Evan Engram

OXFORD, Miss. - Junior quarterback Chad Kelly and the Rebel offense broke numerous school records as No. 22 Ole Miss cruised to a 38-17 victory vs. No. 15 LSU at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, reclaiming the Magnolia Bowl trophy for the fourth time.

The victory marked the third for the Rebels (8-3, 5-2 SEC) this season against a top-15 team. Ole Miss racked up 432 yards of total offense, including 361 total yards from Kelly. As a team the Rebels broke the school record for most points in a single season (445), single-season passing yards (3,768) and single-season touchdowns (57).

Kelly finished the night 19-of-34 with 280 yards and two touchdowns. He also led the Rebels' rushing attack with 12 carries for 81 yards and two more scores.

Despite losing the time of possession battle by a large margin (LSU - 36:15, Ole Miss - 23:45), the Rebs' defense also did its job holding the nation's leading rusher to a minimum, and forced three Tiger turnovers. Leonard Fournette entered the game averaging 163.8 yards per game, but was held to 119 yards on the night. Quarterback Brandon Harris was intercepted twice and finished 26-of-51.

Two Ole Miss defenders stepped in front of Harris and tallied their first interceptions of their careers, including one from senior Christian Russell in the second quarter, and another from freshman Zedrick Woods in the third quarter.

Junior receiver Laquon Treadwell paced the eight Rebels receivers who hauled in catches, tallying 58 yards on four receptions with one score. Evan Engram also finished with a touchdown reception, the last of the game, a 36-yard score from Kelly at the 3:35 mark.

Ole Miss jumped out to a quick 24-0 lead in the second quarter before the Tigers responded with 17 unanswered just after half. Gary Wunderlich put the Rebels up first and for the duration at the 12:41 mark of the first quarter with a 32-yard field goal.

Kelly accounted for the final two scores, an 11-yard run at the 7:34 mark of the third quarter, and the 36-yard TD pass to Engram, to seal the big Ole Miss victory.

#18 OLE MISS 38, #21 MISSISSIPPI STATE 27

Game #12 • Nov. 28, 2015 Attendance: 62,265 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

Damore'ea Stringfellow

STARKVILLE, Miss. - For the first time in 12 years, Ole Miss left Starkville with a victory. Not just any win, but a statement Egg Bowl win, 38-27 over No. 21 Mississippi State at Davis Wade Stadium.

In a game in which the Rebels looked cool, calm and collected early following a 21-point first quarter, the Bulldogs didn't go away quietly. After a 28-3 halftime score, Mississippi State (8-4, 4-4 SEC) responded with 10 unanswered points. But, thanks to a responsive effort from the Landshark D and Rebel offense, No. 18 Ole Miss never lost momentum, surging to its second-straight Egg Bowl win and first in Starkville since the 2003 season.

To add to the historic night, the Ole Miss offense, which broke the singleseason total offense record with 6,177 yards, scored its most points in Starkville since 1971.

Junior quarterback Chad Kelly, who broke the school record for passing yards in a season and moved into the top six in SEC history in total yards, finished the night 21-of-30 for 236 yards and two touchdowns. He also added 74 yards on the ground on 11 attempts with one score. Jaylen Walton led the squad with 93 yards on the ground off 16 attempts.

Damore'ea Stringfellow had a career night, hauling in a career-high 84 yards and two scores to lead the receiving corps, while Walton added 34 yards off five catches. As a unit the Rebels posted 479 yards with a balanced effort of 243 on the ground and 236 through the air.

Ole Miss' defense had a big night forcing two Bulldog turnovers and tallying a season-high seven sacks. The Rebels created defensive havoc and got on the board quick after DeMarquis Gates forced a Dak Prescott fumble recovered by Chief Brown. One minute after, Kelly raced in 27 yards on the ground to cap a four-play drive and give Ole Miss a 7-0 lead. The Rebels never trailed.

#12 OLE MISS 48, #16 OKLAHOMA STATE 20

Allstate Sugar Bowl • Game #13 • Jan. 1, 2016 Attendance: 72,117 • Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, La.

Chad Kelly

NEW ORLEANS — How sweet it was. No. 12 Ole Miss dominated No. 16 Oklahoma State, 48-20, in the 82nd annual Allstate Sugar Bowl in front of a sellout crowd at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

In their first appearance in the Sugar Bowl in 46 years, the Rebels left it all on the field, claiming their first 10-win season since the 2003 campaign.

It was a record-breaking night for the Rebel offense, but the defense wouldn't be outshined, holding the nation's 18th-ranked offense to its lowest point total of the season.

Junior quarterback and Sugar Bowl MVP Chad Kelly connected on four touchdown passes, the most by a Rebel quarterback in bowl history, and also led the team in rushing with 73 yards on the ground. He fired three touchdown passes to junior star receiver Laquon Treadwell, who finished with six catches for 71 yards.

As a unit the Rebels put up 554 of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

Even offensive lineman Laremy Tunsil got in on the fun, trotting in for a 2-yard rush after a toss back from Kelly. The Rebels finished with 207 rushing yards and 347 through the air.

Four minutes into the second quarter, Treadwell began his dominating day, hauling in a 34-yard pass from Kelly to cap a six play, 51-yard drive to make it 17-3. In that same drive, Treadwell broke the single-season record for receptions (78 at the time).

Five minutes later, the dynamic duo hooked up again, this time a 10-yard connection. But not before Treadwell himself found Jordan Wilkins deep for a 45-yard pass and catch. They scored two plays later, extending the Rebels' lead to 24-3, from which they coasted the rest of the way.

SEC HISTORY

The Southeastern Conference begins its 84th season of play in 2016. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season and Missouri and Texas A&M joined in 2012.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

The SEC sponsors championships in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

2015 SEC NOTES

- The SEC has won eight of the last 10 national championships, 10 of the 18 BCS/CFP-era National Championships, two runner-up finishes and 24 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll). The SEC appeared in 9 of the last 10 National Championship games and in 10 the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.
- Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) also won the BCS crown. Auburn also appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game. A team from the SEC Western Division has advanced to five consecutive national championship games prior to the 2014 season. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) have each had two schools win titles since 1998.
- Since 2006, half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (11 of 22). The Big Ten has three and the Big 12 has two, while the ACC and Pac-10 each have two each.
- An SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 29 of the last 40 quarters of National Championship Game play.
- Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked first in the weekly BCS standings in 36 of the 65 weeks, and every week of the CFP Poll era, with five different teams holding the top spot, including four from the SEC West. Florida was first for seven weeks, Alabama for 19 weeks, Mississippi State for four, Auburn for three and LSU for 10 weeks. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 15 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for six weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice, Missouri and Kansas State once) and the Pac-10 four weeks (all Oregon) The Big Ten (Ohio State) held the top spot in the final poll in 2014.
- The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS/CFP standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 13 of its 14 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006. Vanderbilt is the only team to not appear in the BCS/CFP rankings during this time, however, the Commediates firstlyed ranked in the Ten 25 in both 2013.
- the Commodores finished ranked in the Top 25 in both 2012 and 2013 after bowl games with 9-4 records. The BCS/CFP does not produce a poll following bowl games.
- Since 2006, the SEC has posted 10 wins BCS now New Year's Six/Access bowls more wins than any other conference. The conference's .670 bowl winning percentage is first among FBS leagues during that time.
- With conference limits being removed in 2014 with the College Footbal I Playoff, the SEC became the first conference to place three teams in CFP/BCS postseason bowls: Ole Miss (Chick-fil-A Peach); Mississippi State (Orange); Alabama (Sugar/National Semifinal)
- Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 496-110 record, an 81.8 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last 10 seasons (2006-2015). This season, the SEC was 54-12 (.818), the highest percentage among FBS conferences.

The University of Mississippi boasts a long and colorful football history, which includes the formation of the first football team in the state, as well as one of the most successful programs in the history of collegiate football.

In its 123-year history, the Ole Miss football program has claimed three national championships (1959, 1960 and 1962), six Southeastern Conference titles (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, and 1963), and one SEC Western Division title (2003). In addition, Ole Miss has produced 57 first team All-America selections and 172 first team All-SEC selections, appeared in 37 bowl games with 24 wins, and sent more than 300 players into the professional ranks.

REBEL FOOTBALL BEGINNINGS

The beginnings of the program can be traced all the way back to 1890 when Dr. A.L. Bondurant, who would later serve as Dean of the Graduate School, urged Ole Miss students to help in the formation of an Athletic Association in the interests of football, baseball and tennis. Such a group became a reality a short while later, and in 1893, a football team was organized, with Bondurant serving as the manager-coach.

That first squad set a precedent that was to become an Ole Miss tradition, winning four of five games during that maiden season, including a 56-0 victory over Southwest Baptist University of Jackson, Tenn., in the inaugural game on Nov. 11, 1893.

Early financial matters were the responsibility of the manager. Support came largely from the Athletic Association, which was made up of a combination of students and faculty members willing to back the athletes by payment of a small fee.

Although it has never been documented, it is thought that C.D. Clark of Tufts was the first paid football coach at Ole Miss. His name appears as manager of the team, as shown in the Ole Miss Magazine, dated November 1894.

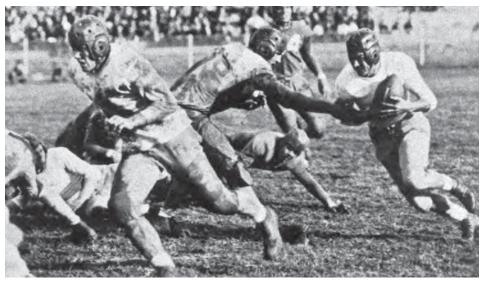

THE PRE-WWII YEARS

Prior to 1925, a total of 22 coaches took their turn as head coach at Ole Miss with only seven heading up the program for more than one season. Those early years were characterized by periods of both prosperity and difficulty: 1883-95, 12-3; 1896-1908, 24-36-1; 1909-14, 33-17-4; and 1915-24, 30-48.

Since the formation of the Athletics Committee in 1925, the Rebels have had just 14 head coaches, with three of those also handling the dual responsibility of athletic director. The establishment of the committee on a faculty-alumni basis (a student representative has since been added) seemed to re-establish alumni support for the football program and a bright future lay ahead.

Homer Hazel of Rutgers served as the head coach from 1925-29, winning 21 games, losing 22 and tying three before being succeeded by Ed Walker, a Stanford graduate, in 1930. While Walker's record was a modest 38-38-8 over his eight-year stay, he firmly established the direction of the football program. He took Ole Miss to its first bowl game in 1935, with the Rebels falling to Catholic University, 20-19 in the Orange Bowl. He also coached the Rebels' first All-America first-teamer, Bruiser Kinard, in 1936. Kinard, who also earned All-America first-team honors in 1937, would be the first of 46 Rebels to earn the prestigious national accolade.

Under Walker's tenure, Ole Miss took another step to help cement a solid future for Rebel football and other athletic teams when they became a charter member of the SEC in 1933. The Rebels have competed in the league ever since. Prior to joining the SEC, Ole Miss had competed in the Southern Conference from 1922-32.

Harry Mehre, from Notre Dame, became the head coach in 1938 and put together a pre-war record of 39-26-1, which included several notable victories. Mehre led Ole Miss to its first ever victory over Vanderbilt in 1939, its first win in 11 years over LSU in 1938, and its first win over Tulane in 25 seasons in 1941.

The post-war period would prove to be the Rebels' most glorious era as C.M. "Tad" Smith, a member of the Ole Miss athletic family since 1929, succeeded Mehre as director of athletics. Smith would serve as athletic director for 25 years before retiring on Feb. 1, 1971.

Harold (Red) Drew of Bates was brought in as head coach in 1946 and Ole Miss football stood on the verge of becoming one of the most powerful and respected programs in the country. A long-time assistant coach at Alabama, Drew remained at Ole Miss just one season before returning to Tuscaloosa as head coach, but his brief stay would prove to change the course of Rebel football.

VAUGHT PLACES OLE MISS ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL MAP

John Vaught, a line coach under Drew and a former All-American at TCU, remained in Oxford as head coach in 1947 and led the Ole Miss program to national prominence over the next 24 years.

In his first season at the helm in 1947, the Rebels posted a 9-2 record and won the first of six SEC crowns (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, 1963). That 1947 season also saw Ole Miss great Charlie Conerly become the first Rebel player to be a contender for the Heisman Trophy, placing fourth in the voting for the prestigious honor. Vaught's first year proved to be a sign of good things to come for Ole Miss. During his 24-year tenure, the Rebels would have only one losing campaign.

Vaught's squads, however, didn't stop at just winning league titles. The Rebels also claimed three national championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. Ole Miss won the 1959 Dunkel System national crown, the 1960 Football Writers Association of America, Dunkel System, Williamson System national championships, and the 1962 Litkenhous Ratings national title. Vaught's 1959 squad, which was honored as the "SEC Team of the Decade," was ranked the third best collegiate football team from 1956 to 1995, according to the Jeff Sagarin Ratings released in January of 1996.

The Rebels were also among the winningest programs in the country under Vaught during the 1950s and 1960s. From 1950-59, Ole Miss posted an 80-21-5 record (.778 winning percentage). The 80 wins and 77.8 winning percentage were second to only Oklahoma during that decade. In the 1960s, Vaught guided the Rebels to a 72-20-6 record and a 76.5 winning percentage, which was the fourth best during that decade.

Under Vaught's guidance, Ole Miss made Hemingway Stadium (later named Vaught-Hemingway Stadium) one of the toughest places in the nation for opposing teams to play. In his 24 seasons at the helm, Vaught's teams compiled an impressive 57-6-2 record in Oxford for an astounding 89.2 winning percentage. From 1952-1964, the Rebels put together an incredible 34-game homefield unbeaten streak (33-0-1), including 21-straight victories from 1952-59.

In the 1950s and 1960s under Vaught, Ole Miss was a fixture in the national polls. The Rebels were ranked atop the Associated Press poll for three weeks during the 1960 season and one week during the 1961 campaign. In 1964, Ole Miss was ranked preseason No. 1 in the Associated Press poll.

Vaught also made going to postseason play the norm rather than the exception for the Rebel football program. Ole Miss played in 15 consecutive bowl games from 1957-71 which, at that time, was a national record. In all, Vaught led Ole Miss to 18 bowl game appearances, posting a 10-8 record in those contests. For his efforts, Vaught was named SEC Coach of the Year six times (1947, 1948, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962).

During his time at the helm, Vaught coached some of the best players ever to wear the Red & Blue. In 24 seasons, Vaught produced 26 All-America first-teamers. He also coached four players who finished in the top five in the Heisman Trophy voting. Along with Conerly in 1947, Charlie Flowers (5th in 1959), Jake Gibbs (3rd in 1960) and Archie Manning (4th in 1969, 3rd in 1970) were in the running for college football's top honor.

Failing health forced Vaught to resign his position in 1970 and the reins of the Ole Miss football program were turned over to Billy Kinard.

THE POST-VAUGHT YEARS

Kinard became the first Ole Miss alumnus to lead the football program, while Frank "Bruiser" Kinard, an offensive line coach under Vaught since 1948, was named to replace Smith as athletic director that same year.

The Rebels went 16-9 under Billy Kinard, including a 10-2 record and a 41-18 Peach Bowl victory over Georgia Tech in his first year in 1971. Kinard's 10 victories in '71 are tied for fourth most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history.

Kinard coached the Rebels through the 1972 campaign and the third contest of the 1973 season before startling developments following the Sept. 22, 1973, game with Memphis State saw both Kinards replaced by Vaught. Vaught returned to the field to guide the Rebels through the remainder of the 1973 season while also taking on the responsibility of athletic director.

Following the 1973 football campaign, Vaught resigned once again as head coach, but remained on as athletic director. His final record with the Rebels was an amazing 190-61-12. The 190 victories still rank Vaught among the top 25 winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, and he is the fourth-winningest coach in SEC history behind Bear Bryant's (Alabama) 323 wins, Lou Holtz's (South Carolina) 238 wins and Vince Dooley's (Georgia) 201 victories. In 1979, Vaught was inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ken Cooper, an assistant under Kinard since 1971, was named head coach on Jan. 17, 1974, and took Ole Miss through the 1977 season. Cooper compiled a 21-23 record during his four years at the helm, and his tenure is probably best remembered for one hot and humid day in September 1977. In one of the most memorable games in Rebel football history, Ole Miss upset Notre Dame, 20-

Following the 1977 season, Steve Sloan was hired as the new Rebel boss and began his five-year stint in 1978. Sloan posted a 20-34 record from 1978-82.

BREWER RETURNS

After stepping outside the Ole Miss family football tree the previous nine seasons, Ole Miss looked for a familiar face to lead the football program, and the Rebels found that person when Billy Brewer returned to Oxford to take over as head coach in December of 1982.

In his first season in 1983, Brewer put the Ole Miss program on the road back to national prominence. Brewer guided the Rebels to their first winning regular season since 1977 with a 7-4 mark. The Rebels received their first bowl game invitation since 1971 and met Air Force in the Independence Bowl. Ole Miss dropped a 9-3 decision to the Falcons and finished with a 7-5 record.

Brewer followed his first season with 10 more at the helm of the Rebel program. During his tenure, he led the Rebels to five more winning seasons and four additional bowls, including Ole Miss' 1990 New Year's Day Gator Bowl appearance. The Jan. 1 bowl game was the program's first since 1969. Brewer was named SEC Coach of the Year in 1986 (8-3-1 record) and 1990 (9-3 record), and the 1986 season saw the Rebels return to the national rankings for the first time in over a decade. In his 11 seasons, Brewer also led Ole Miss to eight Egg Bowl victories over rival, Mississispipi State.

Brewer coached 11 years (1983-93) and compiled a 67-56-3 record, making him the second winningest Ole Miss football coach behind Vaught. Brewer was dismissed just prior to the 1994 season, and Joe Lee Dunn took over as interim coach, directing the Rebels to a 4-7 record under difficult circumstances.

REBELS ON THE RISE

In the mid-1990s Ole Miss football was somewhat down, but not out, and it needed a boost of energy to revitalize the program. On Dec. 2, 1994, Tommy Tuberville was selected as the coach in charge of getting the Rebels on the right track.

After serving as an assistant coach on the collegiate level for nine seasons (eight at Miami and one at Texas A&M), Tuberville began creating excitement in his first season in 1995, finishing the campaign with a 6-5 record and a Egg Bowl victory over Mississippi State.

That excitement grew to a fever pitch in 1997, when Ole Miss recorded its best season since 1992 with an 8-4 record, a thrilling 15-14 Egg Bowl victory and a Motor City Bowl win over Marshall. The bowl appearance was the program's first since 1992, and the Rebels earned a final national ranking of No. 22 in both polls.

The revitalized Ole Miss program continued its winning ways in 1998, despite a coaching change following the regular season. David Cutcliffe took over as head coach on Dec. 2, 1998. Cutcliffe, who came to Ole Miss from his offensive coordinator post at Tennessee, took over the reins just 29 days before the Rebels' Sanford Independence Bowl date versus Texas Tech. Despite the short preparation time for the game, Cutcliffe led the Rebels to a 35-18 victory over the Red Raiders, quite arguably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season.

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS OVER OXFORD

Cutcliffe, who is recognized as one of the top offensive minds in collegiate football, brought a high-powered offensive style that had Rebel fans waiting with anticipation for each season to start.

In his six seasons, the Rebels averaged more than 350 points per year, including shattering the record for points scored in a season during the 2003 campaign with 442. The previous mark was 391 points by the 2001 squad. During Cutcliffe's tenure, the Rebels set numerous game, season and career records.

Cutcliffe's football philosophy also translated into wins for the Rebel program. Under Cutcliffe, Ole Miss posted 44 overall victories, including four wins in the postseason.

In the time from 1997-2003, the Rebels played in six bowl games, which tied them with Arkansas for the most bowl appearances among SEC Western Division schools during that span. The only SEC teams that made bowl appearances all seven years were Florida, Georgia and Tennessee, all Eastern Division squads.

In 2003, Cutcliffe guided the Rebels, who many picked to finish fifth in the SEC's Western Division, to a 10-3 overall mark and a share of the SEC West title with eventual BCS National Champion LSU. The title was the Rebels' first league football title of any sort since winning the conference crown in 1963. Following their 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the SBC Cotton Bowl Classic, the Rebels ended the 2003 campaign with a No. 13 national ranking. It was Ole Miss' first New Year's bowl since the 1991 Gator Bowl against Michigan.

Cutcliffe preceded his 2003 campaign with four winning seasons in 1999 (8-4), 2000 (7-5), 2001 (7-4) and 2002 (7-6), becoming the first Rebel mentor since Harry Mehre (1938-41) to post winning marks in his first five years. Cutcliffe also directed Ole Miss to four bowl appearances in his first five seasons, and is the only head coach in Ole Miss history to do so.

REBEL RECRUITING RAMPS UP

On Dec. 16, 2004, Ole Miss turned to one of college football's premier recruiters and defensive line coaches in Ed Orgeron. Orgeron took control of the Rebel program after serving the previous seven seasons as defensive line coach at the University of Southern California, where he played a key role in Pete Carroll's Trojans winning back-to-back national championships in 2003 and 2004. Orgeron also served as USC's recruiting coordinator from 2001-2004 and was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

Orgeron's talent as a recruiter created a buzz among Rebel fans and drew national attention when Ole Miss' 2006 signing class finished as high as ninth in the rankings. All three of his recruiting classes were listed among the best in college football.

NUTT LEADS REBELS TO CONSECUTIVE COTTON BOWLS

The Ole Miss football program sought a proven winner when Houston Nutt was introduced as the Rebels' 36th head coach on Nov. 28, 2007.

After guiding Arkansas to three SEC Western Division titles and eight bowl berths in his decade in Fayetteville, Nutt immediately reversed the Rebels' fortunes and guided Ole Miss to success that had not been experienced in Oxford in a half century.

Nutt's first two years at the helm produced consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time since 1961-62 and back-to-back January bowl victories for the first time since 1960-61.

In his first season in Oxford, Nutt led the Rebels to a 9-4 record (5-3 in the SEC), second in the West, a 47-34 win over Texas Tech in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic and a No. 14 final national ranking.

Rising as high as No. 4 in the national rankings in 2009, Nutt's Rebels knocked off No. 8 LSU, Tennessee and Arkansas en route to a second straight Cotton Bowl berth, in which Ole Miss prevailed over No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7. The Rebels finished 20th in the AP poll.

MISSISSIPPI NATIVE TABBED TO RETURN TITLES

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Hugh Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on December 5, 2011.

He is the first coach in school history to guide the Rebels to a bowl game in each of his first four seasons.

* First Overall Pick

Ole Miss returned to the Sugar Bowl for the first time since 1970 and was crowned 2016 champion after a 48-20 victory over Oklahoma State. The Rebels have made back-to-back New Year's Six bowl appearances in the last two seasons.

Among the accomplishments in Freeze's four-year tenure:

- 34-18 record
- Three bowl wins, including 2016 Sugar Bowl
- Back-to-back New Year's Six bowl appearances
- 37 weeks ranked in the nation's top 25
- .500 or better record against every other SEC West team
- Four straight top-15 ranked recruiting classes
- Four straight Vaught-Hemingway Stadium season ticket sellouts and season attendance records
- 97 graduated players
- Highest cumulative team grade point average in recorded history in 2016 spring semester

The Rebels earned their 10th win of the most recent campaign by crushing Oklahoma State in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, 48-20. The Sugar Bowl appearance was the Rebels' first since the 1969 season, and Freeze guided the team to its first 10-win campaign since 2003.

At No. 9 in the final coaches poll and No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll, Ole Miss finished with its highest national ranking since 1969.

Freeze led the Rebels to back-to-back seasons with at least nine victories for the first time since 1961-62. Ole Miss finished the regular season 9-3 overall and 6-2 in conference play to place second in the SEC West. The six SEC wins were the most by a Rebel football team since 2003.

A whopping 64 Ole Miss team and individual records were broken or tied in 2015, including most total yards (6,731), points (531), touchdowns (68) and passing yards (4,351) in a season.

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium is in the midst of a facelift that will provide Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. As part of the $200 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone added 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites were refinished.

The facility's biggest changes to be completed in time for the 2016 season, a transformation of the north side of the stadium into an exciting new "front door," complete with a plaza and bell tower.

A green space will also extend the Walk of Champions from The Grove all the way to the new plaza. Closing in the north end zone seating will bring stadium capacity to 64,038 and put the polishing touches on one of the nation's elite college football facilities.

Jeff Sagarin computed his list of the all-time highest-rated college football teams from 1956 to 1995. His all-time team ratings and strength of schedule are based on Division I games only. This list was published in USA Today in January of 1996.

NOTE: Blocked punts and loss of yardage credited to team rather than individual after the 1954 season. Averages for Hapes (3 blocked), Conerly (4), Wilson (2), Day (1), Hovious (5), and Dillard (1) adjusted to conform. Prior to 1965, punters not given credit for 20 yards (touchback) assessed when punt carried over goal line.

THE PERFECT TEAM

1962 ... The year stands as a benchmark of change in the life of Ole Miss.

Legendary Rebel Head Coach John Vaught and his football team not only put together the only perfect season in the history of Ole Miss football, but they also captured the Billingsley, Litkenhous and Sagarin ratings national titles and their fifth SEC championship. The season's highlight came when the Rebels were invited to the prestigious Sugar Bowl, where they defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks 17-13. Vaught garnered SEC Coach of the Year honors.

Those associated with the 1962 team donated the funds for the "Walk of Champions" arch, located at the entrance to the Grove near the Student Union plaza. The site is the route for the football team's traditional "walk through The Grove" on game days. It was dedicated in the fall of 1998.

The purpose of the arch is to remind all athletes that they play for national championships, SEC championships and Ole Miss pride. The names of the coaches, players, trainers and managers who won the hearts of Rebel fans with their spirit and tenacity are listed on a plaque.

"Joe Wilkins, Larry 'Leo' Johnson and I first discussed the idea of an arch in the fall of 1997 while we were visiting in the Grove, and we agreed to pursue it," said Samuel W. Owen of Nashville, a member of the 1962 team. "We want the arch to stand as a symbol of what can be accomplished with teamwork, loyalty and trust."

THE LONGEST GAME

The November 3, 2001 contest between Ole Miss and Arkansas in Oxford kicked off at 6:06 p.m. (CT), and four hours and 14 minutes later, coaches, players, fans, media members and an ESPN2 national audience saw a game that will go down in the college football record books.

The Rebels and Razorbacks stood toe-to-toe in an epic, seven overtime battle, that saw the Hogs come out on top 58-56. It is tied for the longest OT game in NCAA history, and it remains the highest scoring game (both teams combined) on the Ole Miss all-time charts.

FIELD GOALS

Prior to 1959, modern-era college field goals were measured from the line of scrimmage to the goalposts. Since 1959, they have been measured from point of origin to the goalposts. To adjust, all goals kicked prior to 1959 were lengthened by seven yards. This rule was a suggested optional in 1958.

The following is the background as to how the Ole Miss-Mississippi State football game came to be known as the "Battle of the Golden Egg" or even "The Egg Bowl." Many of the excerpts are reprinted from the book "Mississippi Mayhem," written by William Banner, III.

Up until the 1926 meeting in Starkville, Ole Miss had only claimed five victories in the previous 23 football contests between the Rebels and Bulldogs. Thus, when Ole Miss claimed a 7-6 victory over then Mississippi A&M College, a celebration was due at Scott Field after that '26 contest.

Oddly, huge roars went up from both sides at the final whistle, not just from the Ole Miss stands. While the A&M players walked slowly off the field with heads bowed, wrote one newsman, the Maroon student section stood and sang the alma mater.

But on the east side, pandemonium. Well wishers rushed "like madmen onto the field," Webb Burke said in his 1957 interview. Some fans made a dash for the goal posts. Irate Aggie supporters took after the ambitious Ole Miss group with cane bottom chairs, and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered.

As explained by the Reveille, A&M yearbook, "A few chairs had to be sacrificed over the heads of these to persuade them that was entirely the wrong attitude."

As described in a story for the Commercial Appeal by Ben Hilbun, who one day would become president of the Starkville school, "The phantom of victory, that for thirteen years eluded Ole Miss, returned to the bearded Berserkers ... and they won over A&M, their traditional rivals, 7 to 6." Ole Miss students fought for the goal posts, he continued, "but were restrained."

Ole Miss fans couldn't believe their victory. Through all their 13 defeats since 1910 (they did not play in 1912, 1913 and 1914) they had only scored in three games, counted just 33 points to A&M's 327, an average of 25-3.

Injuries to players were expected. But not to spectators. Ole Miss and A&M students, shocked by the battle that erupted after the game, vowed that it must not happen again. The result was the Golden Egg, a trophy to cool the heat of battle, instituted the following season by joint agreement of the two student bodies.

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of lota Sigma, an Ole Miss honorary activities fraternity. As thoughts of last year's game, lota Sigma proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans. One proposal that was rejected was to send the goal posts to the winning side each year.

A&M approved the suggestion of an award, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg", would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. Costs of approximately $250 would be shared by both schools. Ole Miss students held a tag day to raise funds.

The joint resolution of the two student bodies declared they agreed on the trophy "in order to effect a better understanding in athletic relations, to foster clean sportsmanship, and to promote a lasting tradition..."

A brand-new series between the University of Mississippi and Mississippi A&M College began on Thanksgiving Day, 1927; the first Battle of the Golden Egg.

Of course, it was the Ole Miss-A&M slugfest, played before a crowd of 14,000 for the first possession of the gold football which was to become symbolic of supremacy in this annual feud-battle.

It was actually the 25th meeting of the two combatants. And for the second time in four years it was Push versus Pass, a heavier line versus a lighter passing attack. And once again the Pushers prevailed, except this time the pushing team was Ole Miss. The score was 20-12.

Unlike the previous year's brawl ending, the 1927 game closed with a highly dignified ceremony, the first presentation of the Golden Egg. As previously agreed in the inception of the egg, the schools first sang their alma maters, Ole Miss, as winner, sang first. The captains of the two teams, presidents of the two student bodies and the heads of the two schools met in the center of the field. B.M. Walker, president of A&M, presented the trophy to Alfred Hume, chancellor of the University, who turned it over to Ole Miss captain Applewhite.

The Egg is one of the most treasured possessions of either school. It is engraved with the score of each year's game and stands in a place of honor. When a tie occurred, the previous year's winner kept it for the first half of the year, then it went to the other school.

The Ole Miss-Mississippi State series took on a new twist in 1978, a season which saw the Rebels 4-6 and the Bulldogs 6-4 heading into the season finale. As Steve Doyle of the Jackson, Miss., Clarion-Ledger reported in the Nov. 20 edition, "In a year in which neither team will be remembered, the Battle of the Golden Egg is a bowl game. Intense, heated, unbelievable in its lore, this one is for supremacy of the season. Bragging rights, recruiting edges and sheer pride are the guts of it. Every cliche you've ever heard about a single game applies to it."

In 1978, with both teams apparently out of the bowl picture, Executive Sports Editor Tom Patterson decided to do something extra to spice up coverage of the annual grudge match, instructing his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was an award winning special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory over the highly-favored Bulldogs. In that game, John Fourcade made his first start at quarterback to become the first Ole Miss freshman since 1945 to receive the starting nod at the signal-caller slot. The special section was a big success and the die was cast. Patterson's idea, for the most part, has been continued by the paper since 1978. Although it's officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual bloodletting simply as the "Egg Bowl."

In one of the series' most memorable battles, Ole Miss claimed a pulsating 24-23 victory over Mississippi State in Jackson, but it took some heroics on the part of the Rebels and a 40 miles-per-hour crosswind to decide the outcome. Down 17-0, Ole Miss got on the board when Timmy Moffett returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 1:21 remaining in the first half. However, the Bulldogs added to their lead after the break, and the Rebels found themselves trailing 23-7 to start the fourth quarter. With the wind now at its back, Ole Miss utilized two fumble recoveries and an interception to take a late 24-23 advantage. But State made one last try and moved the ball to the Rebel 10 yardline with 24 seconds left. On fourth down, MSU kicker Artie Cosby attempted a 27-yard field goal, but as true as it was between the uprights, the ball never got there as the wind just slapped it down to give Ole Miss its first on-the-field winning season in eight years at 6-5 and a berth in the Independence Bowl.

For the first time in 12 years, Ole Miss left Starkville with a victory, beating No. 21 Mississippi State 38-27 to retain the Golden Egg Trophy. It marked consecutive Egg Bowl victories for the first time since winning three straight from 2002-04.

"The Battle of the Golden Egg" returned to campus in 1991 as Mississippi State hosted Ole Miss in Starkville. It marked the first on-campus meeting between the two teams since 1972. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford was the site of the 1992 game, which Ole Miss won, 17-10 thanks to a thrilling goal-line stand. The series continues to rotate between campus sites.

1995

Ole Miss rode a school-record rushing performance and a stingy second-half deficit to a 13-10 victory over Mississippi State to regain the Egg Bowl Trophy. The win gave the Rebels a winning season and head coach Tommy Tuberville a triumph over the school's biggest rival in his first Egg Bowl game. Dou Innocent rushed for a record 242 yards on 39 carries to help the Rebels overcome an early 10-0 deficit. The Bulldogs never entered Ole Miss territory in the second half.

The 1997 contest provided another close contest and perhaps the most exciting finish ever in the series. Stewart Patridge hit Andre Rone for a 10-yard TD pass with 25 seconds left and then found Cory Peterson over the middle on the two-point conversion attempt to give the Rebels a 15-14 win over Mississippi State. The win propelled the Rebels to their first bowl game since the 1992 Liberty Bowl when they were rewarded with an invite to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich.

2000

Running back Deuce McAllister rushed for three touchdowns and passed for another to lead Ole Miss to a 45-30 victory on Thanksgiving Night. With it being Senior Night in Oxford, McAllister hooked up with fellow fourth-year Rebel Romaro Miller on a 20-yard halfback option TD toss. McAllister finished with 121 yards rushing on 24 carries, while Miller threw for 127 yards and ran for another 60. The win returned the Golden Egg to Oxford after a two-year absence.

Eli Manning passed for 260 yards and three touch-downs to lead the Rebels to a 31-0 shutout win in his final regular-season collegiate game. The Ole Miss defense held the Bulldogs to only 91 yards passing and picked off one Mississippi State pass in Jackie Sherrill's final game as head coach on a rainy evening in Starkville. The win propelled the Rebels to the Cotton Bowl and their first 10 win season since 1971. The game was also the final of six straight Egg Bowls (1998-2003) played on Thanksqiving and televised nationally by ESPN.

2008

Jevan Snead threw for 213 yards and four touch-downs and Greg Hardy had three of Ole Miss' school-record 11 sacks, as the Rebels beat Mississippi State 45-0 in the most lopsided Egg Bowl in 37 years. The Rebels finished with a school-record minus-64 rushing yards allowed and 14 tackles for loss. Defensive end Greg Hardy and tackle Peria Jerry led the charge. Jerry had four tackles for loss, including two sacks.

2012

Paced by a three-touchdown performance from wide receiver Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss defeated No. 24 Mississippi State, 41-24. Moncrief had seven catches for a career-high 173 yards, the fourth-most in a single game in Ole Miss history. Quarterback Bo Wallace threw five touchdowns on the night. The Egg Bowl win propelled Ole Miss to its first bowl berth in three years and provided momentum that later saw the Rebels earn a BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Pitt in January and land the best signing class in school history the next month.

Bo Wallace passed for nearly 296 yards, Evan Engram had a career-high 176 receiving yards and Jaylen Walton rushed for a career-high 148 yards to lead the No. 18 Rebels to a 31-17 win over No. 4 Mississippi State. Of his 14 carries, none were bigger than a highlight-reel 91-yard touchdown run that proved to be the gamewinning score for the Rebels. The Egg Bowl win capped a 9-3 regular season for the Rebels and earned them a berth in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

For the first time in 12 years, Ole Miss left Starkville with a victory. The Rebels scored 21 first-quarter points on their way to a 38-27 win, their second-straight Egg Bowl and first in Starkville since the 2003 season. Thanks to a potent offense, the Rebels set the single-season total offense record on the night and scored the most points in Starkville since the 1971 season. Quarterback Chad Kelly broke the school record for passing yards in a season with 236 yards and two touchdowns.

This year's "Battle for the Golden Egg" will take place on Saturday, Nov. 26, at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford. The match-up will be the 113th meeting between the two schools and the 89th Egg Bowl.

OLE MISS BOWL HISTORY

Ole Miss has a proud tradition of bowling that dates back to 1935, including what once was a national record of consecutive bowl appearances — from 1957 to 1972. It is a high standard of excellence which present-day Ole Miss football teams continue to strive for.

Ed Walker coached the first Ole Miss bowl team, the high-scoring outfit of 1935 which outplayed, but was nipped by Catholic University, 20-19, in the 1936 Orange Bowl.

The next bowl for the Rebels was for the 1947 squad, a 12-year wait. But from there, with Coach John Howard Vaught at the Ole Miss helm, bowls came and kept coming after the Rebels following each season. Vaught took the Rebs to the ill-fated Delta Bowl in 1948, as the 1947 SEC Champions beat Texas Christian 13-9. Vaught had to wait until 1952 to go bowling again, but from that point forward, the Rebel mentor made post-season games a habit that was hard to break.

All-in-all, the Rebels participated in six Sugar Bowls, two Gators, one Cotton, two Bluebonnets, two Liberties, one Sun and one Peach during that run of 15 straight. Vaught's personal bowl record was 10-8, while Billy Kinard's 1971 Rebels, with a 9-2 record, earned a bid to play Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, which produced a 41-18 triumph.

Ole Miss dropped out of the bowl picture after that 1971 Peach Bowl appearance with Georgia Tech. When Billy Brewer became head coach prior to the 1983 season, the Rebels had not been bowling for 12 years. During Brewer's 11 years as head coach, Ole Miss went to five bowls, twice to the Independence, twice to the Liberty, and once to the Gator. Brewer was 3-2 as a coach in bowl games.

The Rebels returned to postseason action in 1997 for the first time since the 1992 Liberty Bowl, and for the first time under Tommy Tuberville, as Ole Miss was invited to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich., where they defeated Marshall 34-31.

The Rebels then followed with what was probably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season, as Ole Miss defeated heavily favored Texas Tech, 35-18, in the Sanford Independence Bowl in head coach David Cutcliffe's debut. Ole Miss went 4-1 in the five bowl games it played in under Cutcliffe as head coach, including three victories in the Independence Bowl, and one victory in the Cotton Bowl (2004).

Ole Miss returned to the Cotton Bowl in 2009 and 2010 under Houston Nutt, who led the Rebels to 47-34 and 21-7 victories, respectively.

Under first-year head coach Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss defeated Pittsburgh 38-17 in the BBVA Compass Bowl on Jan. 5, 2013. The Rebels set a number of BBVA Compass Bowl records, including most points scored by a team (38). Ole Miss followed that with a 25-17 win over Georgia Tech in the Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tennessee, on Dec. 30, 2013.

The Rebels made consecutive New Year's Six bowl appearances beginning with the Peach Bowl in 2014 and followed up the 2015 season with a record-setting 48-20 win over Oklahoma State in the Sugar Bowl on January 1, 2016. As a unit, the Rebels put up 554 yards of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

Editor's Note: Most of this section on Ole Miss' Bowl History was compiled and written by the late Billy Gates. Gates served as Sports Information Director at Ole Miss for 35 years until his death on Nov. 5, 1976. While serving as SID at Ole Miss, he helped promote 29 Rebels to All-America status in the sport of football and was a charter member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame.

Catholic took a 7-0 lead

after converting one of four Ole Miss picks on the day into a 51-yard scoring drive, capped by Bill Adamaitis' two-yard touchdown run.

The Cardinal increased its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter when Adamaitis connected with Speck Foley on a 48-vard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss would pull to within seven at 13-6 before halftime when Ned Peters ran 67 yards for a score.

The Rebels would hold Catholic without a first down in the second half; however, the Cardinal went up 20-7 by scoring a touchdown off a blocked punt.

Ole Miss would get two fourth-quarter scores for the 20-19 final. Dave Bernard scored on a one-yard run to make it 20-12 after the PAT attempt failed, and Herb Baumstein found Buster Poole for a 24-yard touchdown pass.

Dixie Howell

Ole Miss recorded its first bowl victory with a 13-9 win over TCU in front of 28,120 at Memphis' Crump Stadium in the 1948 Delta Bowl.

Charlie Conerly passed for two fourth-quarter scores to rally the Rebels from a 9-0 deficit in his final game in an Ole Miss uniform.

Conerly's first touchdown pass was a 26-yarder to Joe Johnson to cut the Horned Frog's lead to 9-6.

After a Bobby Wilson interception, Conerly hit Johnson for 52 yards to the TCU 13. Conerly then found Dixie Howell from 13 yards for a touchdown. Bobby Oswalt, who missed on his earlier PAT attempt, was accurate his second time around to make it 13-9.

Red Buchanan then sealed the win with an interception at midfield to snuff out any TCU comeback attempt.

In its first of eight Sugar Bowl appearances, seventh-ranked Ole Miss dropped a 24-7 decision to No. 2 Georgia Tech.

The Rebels, who brought an 8-0-2 mark into the contest, struck early. Wissy Dillard's four-yard touchdown run and Jimmy Lear's PAT gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead 3:45 into the game.

Jimmy Lear

The Engineers would provide all the scoring the rest of the day. Georgia Tech got a touchdown and a field goal to take a 10-7 lead into intermission and then added a pair of touchdowns in the second half.

Georgia Tech would finish the year 12-0, and through the Sugar Bowl, had not been beaten in 25 starts.

Statistically, the game was even. Georgia Tech held a slight 16-15 advantage in first downs and a 295-287 edge in total offense. However, the Rebels were plagued by six turnovers.

Ole Miss entered the game having outscored its opponents 283-47. However, the Midshipmen would outgain the Rebels 442-121, including holding a 295-78 advantage on the ground.

Navy took the opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for a three-yard touchdown run by Joe Gattuso to take a 7-0 lead. The Midshipmen would carry the seven-point lead into halftime.

Navy would also score on its first possession of the second half, taking the kickoff and marching 86 yards. John Weaver's 16-yard touchdown pass from George Welsh capped the 11-play drive and extended the lead to 14-0.

Gattuso would complete the scoring with his second touchdown, a one-yard run in the third quarter.

Quaterback Eagle Day led Ole Miss to its first major bowl win with a 14-13 victory over TCU in the 1956 Cotton Bowl.

Jim Swink staked the Horned Frogs to a 13-0 lead with touchdown runs of one and 39 yards.

Day got the Rebels going with a four-play, 66-yard scoring drive that resulted in Paige Cothren's three-yard TD run to make it 13-7 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter,

Day would engineer another 66-yard scoring match. A 13-yard pass from Day to Cothren on fourth down moved the ball to the Horned Frog 32. Two plays later, Day sprinted 25 yards to the five. Billy Lott then broke around right end for a five-yard touchdown and Cothren's PAT gave the Rebels a 14-13 lead with 4:22 remaining.

Eddie Crawford thwarted any comeback attempt by TCU with an interception. Day would then manage to run out the clock to secure the victory for Ole Miss.

Richard Price

Jim Anderson's one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter proved to be enough as Ole Miss knocked off Florida 7-3 on an overcast day in the 1958 Gator Bowl.

The Rebels took the game's opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for the game's only touchdown.

Florida would take the ensuing kickoff and score on Billy Booker's 27-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 7:44 left in the first quarter. Neither team would score the rest of the game.

The Gators had two opportunities to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

A surprise quick kick by Florida's Bobby Joe Green traveled 76 yards to just outside the Rebel 10 to start the final period. Milton Crain, looking for someone to block, stumbled over the ball, and Dave Hudson covered for the Gators. Florida would move to the two, but Richard Price stuffed a fourth-and-goal attempt for the Gators.

After a short punt, the Gators took over at the Rebel 26 and advanced to the 15 before Bill Churchwell forced and recovered a fumble.

The two teams would then exchange punts, however, Jimmy Dunn bobbled a Rebel punt at the Florida 48 and Ole Miss recovered. The Rebels then ran out the final 3:10 of the game.

1962 Cotton Bowl

Texas 12 Ole Miss 7

Playing without All-America fullback Billy Ray Adams, Ole Miss became a 12-7 upset victim to Texas in the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

Adams was injured in a car accident two days after the Rebels' 37-7 win over Mississippi State in November, after returning from Jackson to attend a touchdown club meeting.

Reed Davis

Ole Miss came into the contest sporting a 9-1 record and having outscored its opponents 326-40. However, without Adams, the Longhorns made sure the Rebels didn't do damage through the air with All-America quarterback Glynn Griffing.

The Rebels held a 319-183 advantage in total offense, but couldn't overcome six turnovers, including five interceptions.

Griffing was 12-of-29 for 163 yards with three interceptions and a touchdown. Doug Elmore was intercepted twice in eight pass attempts.

Ole Miss' only points of the day came in the third quarter when Reed Davis scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Griffing to make it 12-7.

1963 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 17 Arkansas 13

Louis Guy

Ole Miss completed a perfect 10-0 season with a 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the 1963 Sugar Bowl.

Quarterback Glynn Griffing was a near unanimous selection for the game's Most Valuable Player Award. He connected on 14-of-23 passes for 242 yards with one touchdown and one interception to break Davey O'Brien's 24-year-old Sugar Bowl passing yards record.

As effective as Griffing was through the air, it was his oneyard touchdown run in the third quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and put the Rebels up for good.

The Razorbacks could only answer with a 22-yard field goal from Tom McKnelly with 1:33 left in the third quarter.

Griffing's 33-yard touchdown pass to Louis Guy gave Ole Miss a 10-3 lead heading into the intermission.

1964 SUGAR BOWL

Alabama 12 Ole Miss 7

Four plus inches of snow fell on New Orleans the day before Ole Miss took the field against Alabama in the 1964 Sugar Bowl.

Under the slippery conditions, the Rebels and Crimson Tide combined for 17 fumbles, including nine lost. Unfortunately for Ole Miss, the Rebels would fumble 11 times and lose six.

Perry Lee Dunn Alabama would also intercept three Ole Miss passes en route to receiving four Tim Davis field goals and post a 12-7 win.

Ole Miss' lone score would come in the fourth quarter on a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Lee Smith to provide the 12-7 final.

The Rebels ended up with a 248-194 advantage in total offense, but most of the yards came too late. The Crimson Tide held a 112-34 edge in the first half to build a 9-0 halftime lead.

Jim Weatherly

Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome passed for 252 yards and a score, and scored on a one-yard touchdown run to lead the Golden Hurricane to a 14-7 win in the 1964 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Rebel quarterback Jim Weatherly spotted Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a one-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Rhome's one-yard run tied the game at 7-7 heading into the half, and capped a 72-yard, eight play march by Tulsa.

Rhome would strike again midway through the third quarter. His 35-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Fletcher put Tulsa up 14-7 and the Golden Hurricane defense would hold the rest of the way.

Tulsa limited Ole Miss to 217 yards of total offense, while the Golden Hurricane totaled 323.

Weatherly was 16-of-24 pasing, but managed just 113 yards and was intercepted twice.

Mike Dennis rushed for a game-high 73 yards on 17 carries and also caught nine passes for 114 yards.

Jimmy Keyes' two field goals helped propel Ole Miss to a 13-7 win over SEC-rival Auburn before 38,607 in the 1965 Liberty Bowl in Memphis.

Auburn drove to the Ole Miss nine with 33 seconds left in the game, but Tiger quarterback Alex Bowden was sacked on fourth down.

Keyes' first field goal, a 42-yarder in the second quarter, gave Ole Miss a 3-0 lead. The Tigers would quickly answer with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tom Bryan with 6:58 left in the first half.

Ole Miss would take the lead for good in the third quarter when Doug Cunningham caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Jody Graves.

Keyes would later add a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide the 13-7 margin.

Tailback Mike Dennis rushed for 75 yards on 15 carries for Ole Miss, and quarterback Jimmy Heidel added 72 yards on 16 attempts.

The University of Texas at El Paso scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and used a stingy defense to hand Ole Miss a 14-7 loss in front of 34,685 at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

After a scoreless first quarter, Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by quarterback Bruce Newell. After that, the Rebels could manage very little offensively.

The Miners would limit Ole

Miss to just 109 yards of total offense for the game.

Still, the Rebels carried a 7-0 lead into the final 15 minutes. UTEP, though, would get a five-yard touchdown pass from Billy Stevens to Dave Karns to tie the score at 7-7 with 14:18

The Miners would score the game-winning touchdown with 7:52 left when Larry McHenry found the end zone from four

Steve Hindman

Ole Miss erased a 17-0 first quarter deficit to roll to a 34-17 win over Virginia Tech in the 1968 Liberty Bowl, in front of 42,206 on a bright, bitterly cold afternoon in Memphis.

Archie Manning's 24-yard touchdown pass to Hank Shows early in the second quarter put the Rebels on the board and trimmed the Hokies' lead to 17-7. Manning would later find Leon Felts for a 23-yard touchdown pass to pull Ole Miss to within three at 17-14 heading into the break.

Steven Hindman broke a 79-yard scoring run just 21 seconds into the third quarter to give the Rebels the first lead of the day at 21-17.

Ole Miss would also get a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown by Robert Bailey and a pair of Van Brown field goals.

Hindman finished with 122 yards rushing on 15 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Junior quarterback Archie Manning passed for one touchdown and rushed for another to lead No. 13 Ole Miss to a 27-22 upset of No. 3 Arkansas in the 36th annual Sugar Bowl Classic.

Cloyce Hinton gave the Rebels a 27-12 lead with a 36-yard field goal in the third quarter, before the Razorbacks would begin to rally.

Bo Bowen

Arkansas received a 35-yard field goal from Bill McClard to cut the Ole Miss lead to 27-15 entering the fourth quarter.

The Razorbacks then intercepted a Manning pass and took over at the Rebel 11. Two plays later, Bill Montgomery completed a six-yard touchdown pass to Bill Burnett to pull Arkansas to within 27-22 with 10:15 left.

Later, with 1:15 left in the game, Arkansas moved to the Ole Miss 36. Montgomery threw a strike to Chuck Dicus for 11 yards, however, Glenn Cannon's hit stripped Dicus of the ball and the Rebels recovered to secure the win.

Manning finished 21-of-35 passing for 273 yards with two interceptions. He also added 39 yards rushing to earn Most Outstanding Player honors.

Ole Miss ended a 12-year drought with an appearance in the 1983 Independence Bowl. However, the Rebels return to the postseason wouldn't be a succesful one as nationaly-ranked Air Force used three field goals from Sean Pavlich to forge a 9-3 win on a rainy evening in Shreveport, La.

The Rebels held in check a powerful wishbone attack by the Falcons, one which averaged more than 400 yards per game during the 1983 season. Ole Miss used a gallant goal line stand midway through the fourth quarter to stay within striking range.

Pavlich gave Air Force a 6-0 lead with field goals of 44 and 39 yards. The Rebels got on the board just before halftime on a 39-yard field goal by Neil Teevan with four seconds remaining.

Pavlich's third field goal of the night, a 27-yarder with 7:59 left in the third quarter, marked the end of the scoring.

Air FOrce held a 348-244 advantage in total offense and had a 37:13 edge in time of possession.

Ole Miss 42 Air Force 29

In a game billed to be an offensive shootout, Ole Miss outlasted Air Force 42-29 in the 31st annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn.

Chucky Mullins, the defensive back who was paralyzed in an October 28, game with Vanderbilt, visited the Ole Miss locker room prior to the game in his first trip outside Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis since the injury.

The visit seemed to energize the Rebels as they raced to a 28-9 halftime lead.

Liberty Bowl MVP Randy Baldwin rushed for 177 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns, and John Darnell passed for 261 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 55 first downs and 1,046 yards of total offense. Ole Miss held a 30-25 advantage in first downs, and a 533-513 edge in total yards.

Ole Miss 13 Air Force 0

Russ Shows

For the third time in 10 years, Ole Miss and Air Force faced each other in a bowl game. For the second time in four years, that match-up took place in the Liberty Bowl.

Behind the play of linebacker Cassius Ware, Ole Miss held Air Force to 185 yards of total offense to pitch a 13-0 shutout of the Falcons. The shutout marked the first time in 150 games that Air Force had been held scoreless Ware was credited with 10 tackles, including two sacks, to earn Liberty Bowl MVP honors.

Dou Innocent gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a five-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Rebels would then receive field goals of 24 and 29 yards from Brian Lee. Innocent finished with 65 yards on 17 carries and Cory

163 yards.

OLF MISS

Freshman running back Deuce McAllister's one-yard plunge with 31 seconds remaining lifted Ole Miss to a 34-31 win over Marshall in the inaugural Motor City Bowl, played at the Pontiac Silverdome.

The Motor City Bowl marked the Rebels' first postseason appearance after a four-year hiatus, and was Ole Miss' first under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Senior quarterback Stewart Patridge garnered MVP honors, passing for 332 yards and three touchdowns. He completed 29-of-47 passes and was intercepted

The Thundering Herd, of the Mid-American Conference, featured Chad Pennington. Pennington was 23-of-45 passing for 337 yards and three touchdowns, and Randy Moss caught six passes for 173 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 1,000 yards of total offense and the game featured six lead changes.

Sophomore quarterback Romaro Miller returned from a broken collarbone suffered three weeks earlier to pass for 216 yards and three touchdowns to lead Ole Miss to a 35-18 win over Texas Tech in the 1998 Independence Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebel debut of head coach David Cutcliffe, who was hired less than a month before the game from his offensive coordinator position at es and was intercepted once. His three touchdown passes set a new Independence Bowl record, and he also garnered Offensive MVP honors.

Junior defensive tackle Kendrick Clancy anchored an Ole Miss defense that limited the Red Raiders to 285 yards of total offense. Clancy would earn the bowl's Defensive MVP honors.

Sophomore running back Deuce McAlister scored three touchdowns on the evening. He scored on a 32-yard pass from Miller in the second guarter to give the Rebels a 14-7 lead. He later scored on a four-yard run to make it 28-10 and capped the scoring by returning an onside kick 48 yards with 38 seconds remaining.

Les Binkley

Les Binkley's 39-yard field goal as time expired lifted Ole Miss to a 27-25 win over Oklahoma, New Year's Eve night in the 1999 Sanford Independence Bowl. The contest was the final college football game of the 20th century.

The Sooners had taken a 25-24 lead with 2:17 left in the fourth quarter when Josh Heupel found Quenton Griffin for a 17-yard touchdown pass.

Deuce McAllister would return the ensuing kickoff 42 yards to the Ole Miss 43. He then reeled off runs of eight and nine yards to move the Rebels into Sooner territory and helped set up Binkley's game-winning field goal.

McAllister finished with 239 all-purpose yards, including 121 vards rushing on 17 carries. He broke an 80-vard touchdown run in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 21-3 halftime lead

Redshirt freshman quarterback Eli Manning came off the bench to throw three fourth-quarter touchdown passes, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 49-9 deficit as Ole Miss fell 49-38 to West Virginia in the 2000 Music City Bowl. The game was the final one for Mountaineer head coach Don Nehlen's 21-year career at the school.

Leading 35-9 at the half, Shawn Terry returned the second half kickoff 99 yards to extend the West Virginia lead to 42-9. The Mountaineers then made it 49-9 on a 10-yard pass from Brad Lewis to Khori Ivy.

Romaro Miller scored on a seven-yard run with 7:52 left in the third quarter to make it 49-16 before Manning would take over the offense.

In the final 15 minutes, Manning threw touchdown passes of 23 yards to Jamie Armstrong, 18 yards to Omar Rayford and 16 yards to Toward Sanford.

Manning's three touchdown passes tied an Ole Miss bowl record. He finished 12-of-20 for 167 yards and was intercepted once.

Jesse Mitchell

Jonathan Nichols' 43-yard field goal with 4:36 remaining in the game helped Ole Miss post a 27-23 win over Nebraska in the 2002 Independence Bowl.

Junior quarterback Eli Manning completed 25-of-44 passes for 313 yards and a touchdown to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors.

The Cornhuskers took a 17-7 lead with 2:43 left in the first half when DeJuan Groce returned a punt 60 yards for a score.

Manning would engineer a nine-play, 88-yard drive in 1:11, capped by a one-yard run by Toward Sanford to pull the Rebels to within 17-14 at halftime.

Nichols tied the game in the third quarter with a 37-yard field goal and Nebraska answered with a 23-yard field goal by Josh Brown to take a 20-17 lead with 7:06 left in the quarter.

Sanford's second one-vard touchdown run of the day with 3:24 left in the third quarter put Ole Miss on top for good at 24-20.

Eli Manning

After a 42-year hiatus, the Rebels made a triumphant return to Dallas as 16th-ranked Ole Miss claimed a 31-28 win over 21st-ranked Oklahoma State in the 2004 playing of the SBC Cotton Bowl.

Eli Manning led the charge for the Rebels as the senior quarterback and Heisman finalist passed for 259 yards and three touchdowns on his way to Offensive MVP

Manning finished the day 22-of-31 with one interception and two touchdown passes.

With the victory, the Rebels celebrated their first Cotton Bowl appearance since 1962 with a win over a nationally ranked program from the Big 12 and capped off the first 10-win season for the program since 1971 and improved the Rebels to a 2-1 record in the Cotton Bowl.

levan Snead

Behind Jevan Snead's passing, Dexter McCluster's squirming runs and some big returns by Marshay Green, No. 20 Ole Miss overcame an early deficit and beat No. 8 Texas Tech 47-34 Friday in the final Cotton Bowl played in the stadium of the same name.

The Red Raiders (11-2) converted a pair of early turnovers into a 14-0 lead, but Snead led the Rebels to touchdowns on their next three drives, followed by a go-ahead field goal shortly before halftime. Once Green returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter, Ole Miss (9-4) was well on its way to capping coach Houston Nutt's first season in grand style.

This was Ole Miss' sixth straight win, matching its longest streak since 2003, when Eli Manning was a senior. That also was the last time the Rebels had been to a bowl.

rushing for 184 yards and two touchdowns, including the goahead 2-yard run on a direct snap with 4:03 left as the Rebels beat No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

McCluster also had an 86-yard TD run in the second quarter after the senior had already become the first Southeastern Conference player with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the Ole Miss (9-4) had five turnovers in the game, but Oklahoma State had six in the fourth quarter, and seven overall.

McCluster was the obvious standout, the game's offensive MVP for the second year in a row. He had 34 carries along with five catches for 45 yards. He leaves Ole Miss with 3,923 career all-purpose yards, second in school history behind Deuce McAllister's 4,889.

After becoming only Ole Miss' fourth 1,000-yard rusher on his third carry of the game, McCluster surpassed 500 yards receiving on the final play of the first quarter. Yet, his best was still to come.

McCluster's 86-yard TD run in the second quarter came on a handoff from freshman quarterback Nathan Stanley. McCluster went to the right and through a gap, running untouched for the second-longest run in the 74-year history of the Cotton Bowl.

2013 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

Bo Wallace

Six weeks after closing out its regular season by defeating No. 24 Mississippi State to bring home the Egg Bowl trophy for the first time since 2008, Ole Miss (7-6) took down Pitt in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., 38-17. It was Ole Miss' first bowl appearance since topping Oklahoma State 21-7 in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl. The 38 points scored by Ole Miss is a BBVA Compass Bowl record.

Ole Miss sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace, the BBVA Compass Bowl MVP, finished the game 22-32 passing for 151 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The Rebels spread the ball around through the air with three receivers catching five or more passes. Freshman running back l'Tavius Mathers led Ole Miss on the ground with six carries for 96 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest in BBVA Compass Bowl history.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior middle linebacker Mike Marry led Ole Miss with seven tackles, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

The Rebels closed out the first half with a 31-yard field goal from Bryon Rose that gave the Rebels a 24-10 lead going into the break. Ole Miss' 24 first-half points tied the BBVA Compass Bowl record for most points scored in a half.

2013 Music City Bowl

Ole Miss 25 Georgia Tech 17

Bo Wallace

Ole Miss junior quarterback Bo Wallace threw one touchdown and ran for two more, and the Rebels' defense held the Georgia Tech triple-option attack in check en route to a 25-17 victory at LP Field in the 2013 Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Rebels' victory was their sixth straight bowl victory, which is currently the longest in the country. Auburn and Florida State, which play each other in the national championship game Jan. 6, each have bowl winning streaks of five games.

Wallace, who was named the game's MVP, finished the game 22-32 for 256 yards, as well as a career-high 86 yards rushing on 13 carries. The Pulaski, Tenn., native's 342 total yards Monday pushed his season total to 3,701, topping Eli Manning's school record of 3,572 yards set in 2003.

Junior Donte Moncrief led the Ole Miss receiving corps with six catches for 113 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, junior linebacker Serderius Bryant and sophomore defensive tackle Issac Gross each had eight tackles, while freshman Tony Conner and senior defensive end D.T. Shackelford had seven tackles. Bryant led the Rebels with a team-high six solo tackles, and Gross recorded a team-high three tackles for loss.

2014 PEACH BOWL

Senquez Golson

A dominant effort by No. 6 TCU on both sides of the ball was too much to overcome for No. 9 Ole Miss, as the Rebels (9-4) lost 42-3 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

The nation's second-leading offense, the Horned Frogs scored early and often, and the defense suffocated the Ole Miss offense, holding the Rebels to a season-low 10 first downs and 129 yards of total offense.

Senior cornerback Senquez Golson tied the school record with his 10th interception of the season, the 16th of his career, which is tied for third place in Ole Miss history. It also helped set up the Rebels' lone score of the game, a 27-yard field goal by freshman kicker Gary Wunderlich.

Playing in its third straight bowl game for the first time since 1998-2000, Ole Miss had its six-game bowl winning streak snapped, which was tied with Florida State for the longest in the nation.

2016 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 48 Oklahoma State 20

Chad Kelly

How sweet it was. No. 12 Ole Miss dominated No. 16 Oklahoma State, 48-20, in the 82nd annual Allstate Sugar Bowl.

In their first appearance in the Sugar Bowl in 46 years, the Rebels left it all on the field, claiming their first 10-win season since the 2003 campaign.

It was a record-breaking night for the Rebel offense, but the defense wouldn't be outshined, holding the nation's 18th-ranked offense to its lowest point total of the season.

Junior quarterback and Sugar Bowl MVP Chad Kelly connected on four touchdown passes, the most by a Rebel quarterback in bowl history, and also led the team in rushing with 73 yards on the ground. He fired three touchdown passes to junior star receiver Laquon Treadwell, who finished with six catches for 71 yards.

As a unit the Rebels put up 554 of total offense, the most of any Ole Miss team in any bowl game, and also broke the previous record for points in a bowl game.

Even 6-foot-5, 305-pound offensive lineman Laremy Tunsil got in on the fun, trotting in for a 2-yard rush after a toss back from Kelly. The Rebels finished with 207 rushing yards and 347 through the air.

Through one quarter Ole Miss led it, 10-3, after a 34-yard field goal by Gary Wunderlich, and a 31-yard touchdown pass from Kelly to Cody Core. The Rebel defense held the Cowboys to just 36 yards in the opening quarter, including minus-eight on the ground.

Four minutes into the second quarter, Treadwell began his dominating day, hauling in a 34-yard pass from Kelly to cap a six play, 51-yard drive to make it 17-3. In that same drive, Treadwell broke one of his many records on the night, the single-season record for receptions (78 at the time).

Just five minutes later, the dynamic duo hooked up again, this time a 10-yard connection. But not before Treadwell himself found Jordan Wilkins deep for a 45-yard pass and catch. Just two plays later, the 10-yard play ensued, capping an 85-yard drive to extend the Rebels' advantage to 24-3.

Wunderlich again punched through a field goal with 3:39 left in the half, a 38-yarder to push the lead to 27-3. The Cowboys followed with a field goal of their own to make it a 27-6 game.

Then, as time expired heading into the break, Tunsil received a toss from Kelly to score the 2-yard run, making it a 34-6 game at the break. The Rebels' 34 first-half points tied for the most in the Sugar Bowl's 82-year history.

Midway through the third, the Landshark D came up big again as Terry Caldwell forced a fumble and Breeland Speaks recovered, setting up another score just a minute later. That touchdown came from Wilkins, a 36-yard rumble, capping the quick 44-second scoring drive to extend the lead to 41-6.

From there, the Cowboys added one score, and Kelly found Treadwell again for his third of the night, a 14-yard play at the 13:04 mark to cap yet another dominating 8-play, 71-yard drive.

JAKE GIBBS Letterwinner Walk

An exciting addition to the new plaza north of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium over the next year will be the Jake Gibbs Letterwinner Walk. Columns lining the Walk will feature the names of every student-athlete who has earned a varsity letter at the University of Mississippi dating back to 1893. Construction will begin this fall with an official unveiling event in the Spring of 2017. We look forward to showcasing those individuals that built Ole Miss Athletics into what it is today. We hope it will be a source of pride for our letterwinners and their families and encourages them to come back to campus and get involved in the M-Club.

The official lists of letterwinners who will be included in the Jake Gibbs Letterwinner Walk are located at OleMissMClub.org under Letterwinners tab. While official letters are issued in the modern era, the names from teams in the early 20th century are based on data from the Ole Miss yearbooks, which is often incomplete. If you or a family member have been omitted from a list, please click the red button at the bottom of the Letterwinners page at OleMissMClub. org and provide details and supporting documentation.

NOTE: All corrections and additions to the football lettermen list during this campaign will be reflected on the Jake Gibbs Letterwinner Walk and in the 2017 football media guide.

THE GROVE

When Billy Brewer became head football coach at Ole Miss in 1983, he was searching for a way to allow his team to experience the atmosphere and pageantry Rebel fans enjoyed in The Grove while tailgating on gameday. The Grove is a 10-acre grassy plot of ground in the center of campus that is heavily shaded by large oak trees.

Taking a different route two hours before kickoff each home game, Brewer would walk with the team from Kinard Hall, the athletic dormitory, across campus to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

In 1985, Brewer started going the same route each Saturday as the team would enter The Grove on the east side of the Student Union and proceed down a sidewalk that runs through The Grove. Ole Miss fans fight for position on both sides of the sidewalk and greet the players with loud cheers. The braver fans even reach out and touch the players as they pass before them.

In the fall of 1998, a "Walk of Champions" arch was erected on the east side of The Grove, where the Rebel players begin their walk for every Saturday home game. The "Walk of Champions" arch was given to the University by the 1962 Rebel football team, which is the only squad in Ole Miss football history to finish a campaign with a perfect record (10-0). The 1962 team won the SEC title and was also named National Champion by the Litkenhous Ratings.

What has become a tradition on Ole Miss football Saturdays continues under head coach Hugh Freeze.

The Grove and Ole Miss produce one of the most unique college football experiences in the South and nationwide. Sporting News ranked it among college football's greatest traditions and described The Grove as "the Holy Grail of tailgating sites." In listing America's top sports colleges, Sports Illustrated named Ole Miss the nation's No. 1 tailgating school.

REBELS

The name REBELS emerged as Ole Miss' official athletic nickname in 1936. Suggested by Judge Ben Guider of Vicksburg, it was one of five entries submitted to Southern sports writers for final selection from a list totaling more than 200 proposed nicknames. The promotion was a contest sponsored by The Mississippian, the student newspaper. Of the 42 newsmen contacted, 21 responded. "Rebels" was the choice of 18. The University Athletic Committee made the name official with the Committee chairman, the late Judge William Hemingway, stating: "If 18 sports writers wish to use 'Rebels', I shall not rebel, so let it go 'Ole Miss Rebels.'"

RED & BLUE

In 1893, when Ole Miss' first football team was in training for a five-game season, Dr. A.L. Bondurant, organizer and manager-coach, later recalled that "the team had much discussion as to the colors that should be adopted, but it was finally suggested by the manager that the union of the Crimson of Harvard and the Navy Blue of Yale would be very harmonious, and that it was well to have the spirit of both of these good colleges." These were adopted as the football colors, and have since been adopted by the University as its athletic colors. The PMS numbers for the Ole Miss red and blue are as follows: Red 186, Blue 2767.

HOTTY TODDY

Are You Ready? Hell Yeah! Damn Right! Hotty Toddy, Gosh Almighty, Who The Hell Are We? Hey! Flim Flam, Bim Bam Ole Miss By Damn!

Widely recognized as one of the best tailgating experiences in the country, The Grove has been featured in such publications as The New York Times, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News.

OLE MISS

The University's nickname — Ole Miss — became part of the institution over 100 years ago, in 1896, when it was selected in a contest held to identify a new student publication, the yearbook. It was suggested by the late Miss Elma Meek of Oxford. Each succeeding issue of the annual has been given this copyrighted identity. The name gradually became synonymous with the University and is now a treasured segment of University history. The late Frank E. Everett, Jr., B.A. '32, LLB '34, put it best when he wrote:

There is a valid distinction between The University and Ole Miss even though the separate threads are closely interwoven.

The University is buildings, trees and people. Ole Miss is mood, emotion and personality. One is physical, and the other is spiritual. One is tangible, and the other intangible.

The University is respected, but Ole Miss is loved. The University gives a diploma and regretfully terminates tenure, but one never graduates from Ole Miss.

Rebel joined the Ole Miss Family in 2010-11. A student-led initiative to find a new on-field mascot concluded with the announcement of Rebel on Oct. 14, 2010, and he made his first public appearance April 5, 2011 at Blair E. Batson Hospital for Children in Jackson, Miss.

HOMECOMING AT OLE MISS

Homecoming at Ole Miss was formed as a weekend when alumni would reunite on the Oxford campus. It wasn't until 1924 that Homecoming became centered around a Rebel football game.

November 22, 1924, is recognized as the first official Homecoming football celebration at Ole Miss. On that day, the Rebels defeated Mississippi College 10-6. Since then, the Homecoming football game and Homecoming weekend have been an annual event at Ole Miss.

Homecoming is a tradition on nearly every collegiate campus. At Ole Miss, it holds a special place in the hearts of all University alumni and current students. In 1928, the University students felt it a privilege to invite all former graduates back to the Ole Miss grounds.

"We bid hearty welcome to the alumni on the campus today," wrote J.P. Dale, the editor of The Mississippian. "It is always a pleasure for the student body to receive you, and to attempt to make you feel at home here as of yore. There are many ties that bind the old grad to his Alma Mater, but the greatest of all the ties, and the one lasting tie, is that feeling of love and veneration of the traditions of Ole Miss "

The first Homecoming parade is believed to have taken place in 1930. That year, students held a pep rally followed by a huge bonfire where freshmen dressed in pajamas and joined the Ole Miss marching band as the procession continued on toward downtown.

The Homecoming parade, which has a wide range of participants from the University, still takes place today with the help of the Oxford community. The University celebrates by inducting five new members into the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame. It also honors tradition by selecting a Homecoming Queen and her court.

The Rebels have found much success when hosting a foe on Homecoming. Entering this year's date with Memphis, Ole Miss owns an impressive 71-15-2 record in Homecoming games. The Rebels have won 27 of the last 32 Homecoming contests.

ALMA MATER

Where among the hills enfolded Stand ole Alma Mater's halls

Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whisp'ring southern breeze

There Ole Miss is calling, calling To our hearts' fond memories.

With united hearts we praise thee, All our loyalty in thine,

And we hail thee, Alma Mater, May thy light forever shine;

May it brighter grow and brighter And with deep affection true,

Our thoughts shall ever cluster 'round thee, Dear old Red and Blue.

> May thy name forever waken, In our hearts a tender glow,

May thy counsel and thy spirit Ever keep us one in this,

That our own shall be thine honor, Now and ever, dear Ole Miss.

CHARLIE CONERLY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Ole Miss football standout Charlie Conerly was an unassuming man — never one to blow his own horn. He rarely celebrated after scoring a touchdown. He would simply hand the ball to the referee and trot to the sideline.

"Charlie was a shy man," said New York Giants teammate Frank Gifford. "He didn't want to stand out. He didn't even like trophies. He was very sensitive about receiving praise."

Off the field, Conerly also remained reserved. Perian Conerly said that her late husband wouldn't understand why the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship at the University of Mississippi was named in his honor, but he would be thrilled about the opportunity the scholarship provided.

"Charlie never would have gone to college without his football scholarship at Ole Miss," she said. "That opportunity changed his life."

One of the greatest football players ever to wear an Ole Miss uniform and a beloved alumnus, Conerly will be remembered for generations to come through the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship. The $100,000 endowment was set up by his wife for deserving student-athletes.

"The endowment is a widow's mite when compared to other donations, but it's a very important scholarship for future players," she said.

A Clarksdale, Miss., native, Conerly passed away Feb. 13, 1996, after a lengthy illness. Affectionately known as Chunkin' Charlie, the former quarterback thrilled Ole Miss fans as he led the Rebels to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in 1947 and a victory over Texas Christian University in the Delta Bowl.

Conerly earned three letters at Ole Miss, playing in 1942, 1946 and 1947, earning All-America honors his senior season and All-SEC accolades twice. He interrupted his undergraduate career to serve with the U.S. Marines in World War II

After graduation, Conerly joined the NFL's New York Giants, leading them to the 1956 NFL Championship. He was named 1948 NFL Rookie of the Year and the League's Most Valuable Player in 1959. Conerly ended his career in 1961 with 1,418 career completions, including 173 touchdown passes. His Giants number 42 was retired in 1962. "Charlie had an incredible arm and a great feel for the game," said Gifford. "He was a tremendous athlete, and by the end of his career, he was a sports hero for New York." Perian Conerly authored "Backseat Quarterback" (Doubleday 1963), detailing the couple's experiences during his professional football years. After retiring, Conerly and his wife returned to Mississippi, and they often traveled to Oxford on football weekends.

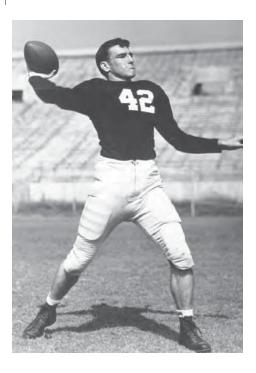

Conerly's honors include induction into the National College Football Hall of Fame, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame. He also received the Distinguished American Award from the Ole Miss Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and was selected by Rebel fans as a back on the Ole Miss Football Team of the Century. As a college player, Conerly was also named the Atlanta Touchdown Club's SEC Back of the Year and the Nashville Banner's SEC Player of the Year.

A prestigious trophy named in his honor, the C Spire Conerly Trophy, is awarded annually to Mississippi's most outstanding collegiate football player. Designed to be the Mississippi equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, the award is open to all Mississippi players, regardless of school size or position. The original bronze sculpture is permanently housed in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum in Jackson, and a replica is on display at Ole Miss in Hollingsworth-Manning Hall, the school's athletics memorabilia area located on the second floor of the Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center.

J.W. "WOBBLE" DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP

It's a funny thing about sports and nicknames. They seem to go hand-in-hand. Whether it's quarterbacks named "Easy" or linemen named "Slim", a nickname follows you for the rest of your life. Such was the case with J.W. "Wobble" Davidson.

Never one to let the spotlight hit him, Davidson spent three years playing left end for Ole Miss, before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach. He gave up the idea of playing pro football to enter the Marine Corps to fight in World War II. He never thought twice about it. He never even left Oxford, returning after the war to spend his days at the place he called home.

Davidson's love for Oxford and his alma mater proved just as great in his family life as it did in his professional life. A proud father of two, Wobble, his wife Sara, son Don and daughter Debra all attended Ole Miss. Davidson spent 11 years as head tennis coach and 23 years as the M-Club Advisor, mentoring student-athletes into productive members of society. He and his family even lived in the athletic dorms on campus.

It was his love for Ole Miss that the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship fund was established. Given to the children of former Ole Miss letterwinners, the scholarship helps make sure that those who love the University as much as Wobble will always have the opportunity for their children to attend Ole Miss.

Davidson graduated from Ole Miss in 1942, earning three letters in football, three in track and two in basketball for the Rebels. A member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame, Davidson also earned his master's degree from Ole Miss.

To learn more about the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship Fund, including details about making a tax-deductible contribution, contact Clay Cavett at the UM Alumni Office at 662-915-7375.

LARRY L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP

Larry L. Johnson of Jackson wants to help young men benefit from the same opportunity in life he received: a football scholarship to the University of Mississippi that enabled him to participate in the sport he loved while pursuing degrees for a successful career.

The retired BellSouth executive - whose football career at Forest High School in Scott County captured the attention of UM coaches - has established a scholarship endowment with more than $100,000. The first in his family to attend college, Johnson received an athletics scholarship that allowed him to earn two business degrees and play wingback and outside linebacker on three championship football teams (1961, '62 and '63).

Desiring to give back to his college and home community, Johnson's scholarship agreement stipulates that preference should be given to Scott County football signees when possible.

Known to the Ole Miss family as "Larry Leo," Johnson has been active in the M-Club alumni chapter for athletes. He served on the M-Club's board of directors and has organized and directed many team reunions. As Student M-Club president in 1963, Johnson helped establish the J.W. Davidson Scholarship fund to honor the legendary Ole Miss coach and has been a regular contributor since that time. He also is an Ole Miss Athletics Foundation member.

He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in business and is a past chair of the Business Advisory Board at the UM School of Business Administration. He is a major contributor to the Business Order and has guest lectured under the business school's Otho Smith Fellows Program.

An active civic leader in Jackson, Johnson continues to give of his time and resources to the community in many areas since retiring from BellSouth in 2000 after 33 years as an executive with the company. Both of Johnson's sons, Rick and Scott, graduated from Ole Miss. Larry and his wife, Rita Parks Johnson, live in Madison, and they have a blended family of five, with multiple grandchildren.

JOEY EMBRY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

During football camps under sun-drenched skies on the Oxford campus, Joey Embry decided he wanted to be an Ole Miss Rebel. In 1995, at the end of his stellar prep career at Bruce (Miss.) High School, the scholarship offer came.

Embry was a member of the Rebel football team for two years before his tragic death on May 19, 1998, when he drowned just months before he was expected to be a major contributor on the offensive line.

His Rebel teammates dedicated the 1998 season to his memory and wore Embry's name and number on their helmets.

Family and friends are keeping his spirit alive through the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund, established to help student-athletes at The University of Mississippi. "I think Joey would be really proud of the scholarship fund," said his mother, Gwen Embry, "not because it is honoring him, but because it will help so many other students."

Embry's roommate and fellow teammate Bobby Killion, a former Ole Miss center, said, "Joey touched the lives of so many people while having an influence on those who came in contact with him. He was a great man and is missed by a lot of people. I know I'll miss him for the rest of my life."

Embry left a strong impression on the Ole Miss community, providing leadership both on and off the playing field. As a business administration major, he excelled academically, making the UMAA Honor Roll and the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He also was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA).

In addition to the scholarship fund, Weyerhaeuser Co. donated equipment to Ole Miss' Starnes Athletic Training Center in memory of the Ole Miss football player.

Individuals and organizations can contribute to the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund through The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677; phone 800-340-9542; e-mail umf@olemiss.edu.

WESLEY WALLS SCHOLARSHIP

Former Ole Miss All-America tight end Wesley Walls of Pontotoc, Miss., and his wife, Christy, have endowed a football scholarship at Ole Miss.

The $100,000 gift is used to provide a football scholarship to any Ole Miss signee from Pontotoc County.

Walls, a five-time Pro Bowler with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League, enjoyed a 14-year NFL career, playing with San Francisco and New Orleans prior to joining the Panthers. He retired in 2004 after one season with the Green Bay Packers.

"I received so much from Ole Miss, not only an education and a chance to play college football, but also as a person," Walls said. "I met my wife here and we truly love Ole Miss and her people. This scholarship represents a way to come back and help Pontotoc County. There are a lot of good athletes over there."

At Ole Miss, Walls earned four letters and excelled both on the field and in the classroom. He came to Oxford in 1985 as a defensive end, but also played tight end his senior campaign when he became one of the nation's few two-way players in 1988.

Following his senior year, Walls was selected first team All-America at tight end by the Associated Press. He was also a first team All-SEC pick, was selected Mississippi's Amateur Athlete of the Year and was chosen as one of three permanent Ole Miss team captains.

Off the field, Walls compiled a 3.41 GPA in General Engineering, earned Academic All-America honors, was a three-time Academic All-SEC pick, was selected Colonel Rebel at Ole Miss, was named to the University of Mississippi Hall of Fame and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He was selected as one of 11 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes and was chosen to give the response at the awards dinner in New York City.

Walls finished his NFL career with 450 catches for 5,291 yards and 54 touchdowns. Upon his retirement, he was considered one of the premier tight ends in the game.

PARK STEVENS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Park Stevens, a native of Columbus, Missississippi, and a graduate of New Hope High School, walked on to the Ole Miss football team in the spring of 2013 after spending two seasons at East Central Community College. He participated in spring drills with the Rebels and was looking forward to his first season with a Southeastern Conference team. Stevens' hopes were cut short by a tragic automobile accident July 3, 2013, when Stevens died instantly at the age of 20.

"Park had such a magnetic personality. He didn't meet a stranger," former East Central Community College coach Brian Anderson told The Clarion-Ledger. "He was just an outstanding young man. He just had personality for days."

"He was a tremendous young man that was loved by his teammates and coaches, and Rebel Nation will never forget him," said Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze. "Our thoughts and prayers are with the Stevens' family, his friends, our team and all those he touched during his life."

His parents, Dean and Gail, established the Park Stevens Memorial Scholarship Fund with the UM Foundation in his memory. Gifts may be made by sending a check with the fund noted in the memo line to the UM Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, Miss. 38677; or by visiting www. umfoundation.com/makeagift.

VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM/HOLLINGSWORTH FIELD

On the southeast side of the University of Mississippi campus stands historic Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, a landmark of Ole Miss tradition and an anchor for the strong future of Rebel Football.

The stadium has received several upgrades in the last two years and will debut a significant expansion this season that will bring the capacity to 64,038, making Vaught-Hemingway the largest stadium in the state of Mississippi.

The facelift will provide Rebel fans with an even greater gameday atmosphere and more seating. The north side of the stadium is being closed in to provide additional student seating and transformed into an exciting new "front door," complete with a plaza and bell tower.

Other enhancements include a new videoboard and sound system, stadium lights, as well as a natural grass playing surface returning to Hollingsworth Field for the first time since 2002.

As part of the $200 million Forward Together capital campaign, the south end zone was also renovated to add 30 luxury suites and 770 club level seats, and the west suites were all refinished for the 2015 season.

Upgrades leading up to the 2013 season included the removal of sideline platforms and bricking the east and west side facade, as well as a team halftime locker room and the addition of two on-field suites.

In 2009, FieldTurf synthetic grass was installed on the stadium's playing surface (it was natural grass from its beginning until 1970; Astroturf from 1970-84; natural grass again from 1985-2002; and AstroPlay synthetic from 2003-08).

The stadium increased its capacity to 60,580 in 2002 with the bowling in of the south end zone.

With the additional seating, the Rebels have set recordbreaking attendance figures over the last 13 years, drawing all 10 of the largest crowds in school history. The momentous Ole Miss-Alabama encounter in 2009 attracted a crowd of 62,657, the second largest ever to watch a football game on campus in Mississippi. The Rebels' matchup with LSU in 2003 gathered 62,552 fans, and the 2004 Tennessee game drew 62,028.

The stadium, known as Hemingway Stadium for much of its existence, began its long historic life in 1915 when students at the University helped in the construction of the first football grandstand at the site of the present field. The construction of the stadium and its permanent foundation was a three-year (1939-41), federally-sponsored project. Stadium capacity was originally listed at 24.000.

During the summer of 1988, the stadium received a major facelift, highlighted by a new press box, new aluminum sideline seating and a club level section for 700 people. Renovations continued in the summer of 1990 when lights were added to the stadium. A Sony JumboTron scoreboard/ message center was added for the 1997 season.

In 1998, the Guy C. Billups Rebel Club Seating area was completed, placing an upper deck on the east side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The addition, which includes a special seating section with an enclosed concession and lounge area, pushed capacity to over 50,000.

The stadium is named for the late Judge William Hemingway (1869-1937), a professor of law and longtime chairman of the University's Committee on Athletics. On Oct. 16, 1982, John Howard Vaught saw his name added to the stadium. Vaught compiled a 190-61-12 record as head football coach at Ole Miss and brought the Rebels National Championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. At the 1998 season opener vs. Memphis, the field was named in honor of Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth for his continuing generous support to Ole Miss Athletics.

Among the finest facilities in all of college athletics, the Olivia and Archie Manning Athletics Performance Center at Ole Miss is the crown jewel in the growing athletics compound surrounding Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Ole Miss named the facility in honor of the Mannings in 2013, recognizing their extraordinary contributions to the University of Mississippi.

The renovation and expansion of the Manning Center was made possible by gifts to the Forward Together Campaign. In partnership with Ole Miss Athletics, the Manning family and the family of Billy Van Devender made significant contributions to the campaign in order to honor Olivia and Archie in this special way.

"The Manning Center speaks a great deal to our donor support, our athletics tradition and the future of our program," said Ole Miss athletics director Ross Bjork. "I have been all over the nation, and this is one of the most impressive out there. We are excited about the numerous enhancements we've made to this facility, and it will continue to serve as a tremendous recruiting asset for all of Ole Miss Athletics."

MANNING CENTER

Located beside the South End Zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Rebels moved into the spectacular $18 million multi-purpose structure in fall 2004.

As part of the Forward Together campaign, a $12.5 million renovation and expansion commenced in early 2013. The project was built in phases and completed in early 2014.

Among the upgrades was the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall that is part of the Ole Miss dining program and open to every student, faculty and staff member. The "Grill at 1810" provides a nutrition center for all Ole Miss student-athletes. The Roland and Sheryl Burns Team Meeting Room was constructed on the north end of the facility lawn between the building and the south end cone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. It seats approximately 200, doubling the capacity of the previous team room, and the meeting area was outfitted with state-of-the-art audio/video equipment and coaching software. Adjacent to the team room is a new head coach's office, putting all of the staff on the same level in the renovated coaching suite.

With the construction of the team room, a new front door and recruiting room was erected on the site of the old team room and pays tribute to the contributions of Ben Williams and lames Reed, Ole Miss' first two African-American football student-athletes. The Williams-Reed Football Foyer celebrates the rich tradition of Rebel football with recruits, alumni and fans with interactive exhibits and memorable images from the program's history.

The existing weight room was expanded on the east side of the Manning Center, widening the area by 2,000 square feet. On the west side, the locker room was overhauled and enhanced to include new player lounges and renamed the Van Devender Family Foundation Locker Room. Also, the Mattingly Family Equipment Room has been renamed to honor the memory of the late Thomas J. Mattingly and his family. AECOM, CDFL and Tipton & Associates were the architects of the renovations and expansions to the Manning Center.

FEDEX STUDENT-ATHLETE SUCCESS CENTER

Since May 2007, Ole Miss student-athletes have benefitted tremendously from their first-class on-campus learning environment - the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center.

FedEx Corporation announced on April 14, 2005, a $2.5 million gift over five years to the University of Mississippi to create such an elite academic support center for student-athletes.

The center provides state-of-the-art computer facilities and space for study halls and tutoring for men and women student-athletes, as well as additional classrooms for all students.

"FedEx has always been a strong supporter of educational initiatives at all levels," said Mike Glenn, executive vice president of marketing development and corporate communications. "This contribution to the University of Mississippi is an extension of our commitment to helping improve the academic resources available to students, and student-athletes in particular."

Glenn said FedEx and Ole Miss are committed to providing a strong academic foundation to enable students to reach their full potential.

"The FedEx Center is one of the best academic facilities in college athletics," said Athletics Director Ross Bjork. "It is the lifeblood of our student-athlete development and the chief recruiting tool for Ole Miss Athletics. Students come first in everything we do, and we cannot thank FedEx enough for their leadership and commitment."

The money was used to renovate a portion of the Starnes Athletic Center—which formerly housed football locker rooms, a weight room and training facilities—next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on All-American Drive. The 22,500-square-foot building now houses the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support, including offices, conference rooms, 20 large and small group tutoring rooms, a large study area, a multi-media classroom, computer lab and 150-seat high-tech auditorium. The project was completed in May 2007 with an approximate cost of $5 million.

In accepting the FedEx gift, university officials said the new center provides an important link in the university's goal to compete at the highest level in every aspect of its intercollegiate programs.

"American public universities are the best in the world largely because of the generosity of American corporations," said then-UM Chancellor Robert Khayat. "FedEx sets the standard for philanthropy by which others are measured. In this case, Ole Miss student-athletes are the primary beneficiaries, but all our students will benefit and, as a result, our entire state benefits."

In addition to this gift to the University, FedEx supports several endowed scholarship programs, the Whitten Chair in Law, the Lott Leadership Institute, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation and William Faulkner's historic home, Rowan Oak.

STARNES ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

Every aspect of Ole Miss athletics is geared toward the success of its student-athletes. The Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center provides a valuable role in the development and display of that success.

The multi-purpose Starnes Center has undergone many transformations through the years. It currently houses Ole Miss Sports Medicine, FCA and CHAMPS Life Skills headquarters and includes a 10,000-square-foot weight room and a sizeable memorabilia collection.

Formerly the Doc Knight Field House, the Training Center stands just north of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and within walking distance of Tad Smith Coliseum, Swayze Field and the main athletics office complex.

The primary training room on the Ole Miss campus is used by several Rebel sports. The training area has four offices for the athletic training staff, room for at least 13 treatment tables, six taping stations and countless rehabilitation equipment. It also contains a wet room with a whirlpool that help make up an environment for top-notch care and injury prevention for Rebel athletes.

The facility extends to the east into a similar structure which holds a massive weight room, a lobby, a conference room and offices. Connected to the west end is the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center, a state-of-the-art complex opened in May 2007.

Starnes, the building's benefactor, donated $1 million toward the facility as part of an extensive $2.5 million renovation in 1995. A 1968 Ole Miss graduate, Starnes is president of Tennessee California Express, Inc., a transportation company.

Much of the history and the many accolades of Rebel athletics are displayed in two rooms on the second floor of the Starnes Center that make up Hollingsworth-Manning Hall.

The larger room is divided into four zones, with the North Wing reserved to honor the nine Ole Miss Rebels in the College Football Hall of Fame. The East Wing spotlights the 46 Ole Miss first-team All-Americans as well as Hall of Fame Coach John Vaught and the legacy of Chucky Mullins. The West Wing is reserved for baseball, track, tennis and golf All-Americans as well as Bruiser Kinard, the only player in Ole Miss history inducted into both the College and Professional Football Hall of Fame. The South Zone honors Ole Miss All-Americans in men's and women's basketball as well as C. M. "Tad" Smith, who played and coached at Ole Miss and also served as Athletics Director.

The smaller room of Hollingsworth-Manning Hall is devoted entirely to an impressive memorabilia collection from the family of Ole Miss legend Archie Manning, which includes items of all three sons, Cooper, Peyton and Eli. The focal points of the exhibit are Super Bowl MVP photos of both Peyton and Eli hoisting the Lombardi Trophy.

Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth, an Ole Miss alumnus and general practitioner in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, joined forces with former Rebel quarterback Archie Manning to establish the recruitment/memorabilia center. It is faithfully maintained and updated by Langston Rogers, Special Assistant to the Athletics Director for History.

REBEL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

MISSION

The mission of this strength and conditioning program is to prepare athletes to adapt and thrive under the stress load of practicing and competing in football - with specific consideration of the relevant biomotor abilities, metabolic demands, psychological factors and injury risk associated with the sport.

We will demand discipline, relentlessness and intelligent effort while we work toward improving each athlete's skill level. We will cultivate a high-energy, up-tempo environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish. We will attack this mission with a scientifically supported, comprehensive approach and specific considerations of the metabolic demands and injury risks of our sport. Training must prepare the athlete for the specific competitive stress load of their sport.

Top priority is to improve high speed, loaded and unloaded, total body coordination and mechanical efficiency. We will imitate the demands of football by striving to produce as many maximal or near maximal contractions as often as possible in training. Our team must be conditioned to handle and thrive at a relentless, up tempo pace. Everything we do in training is done to help the athletes more efficiently execute the movement requirements of their sport. We will demand discipline, intensity and intelligent effort while we work towards improving physical capabilities. We will cultivate a high energy environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish.

The environment in the weight room must be one of high effort, intensity and excitement. An attitude will be established through training that will carry over onto the playing field. Discipline, hard work and vigor will become permanent traits of the athletes.

There are no greater facilities at which to train athletes than the majestic Manning Center. When entering the Manning Center's 20,000-square-foot weight room, the Ole Miss players are quickly reminded of the championship philosophy that head football strength coach Paul Jackson and the Rebel staff set forth. The facility, which is entering its 12th year of existence and was renovated in 2014, is enhanced with visual messages and houses state-of-the-art training equipment. Besides the hundreds of weights, the room also contains a variety of Hammer Strength machines, numerous Life Fitness cardiovascular machines and a fullystocked nutrition center.

With the Manning Center's full-sized indoor practice field, the Rebels' extensive workouts touch on every area of fitness and conditioning and prepare their bodies fully for intense SEC battles.

HEALTH AND SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Under the leadership of athletics director Ross Bjork, Ole Miss launched the unique and comprehensive Health and Sports Performance program in July 2012, which takes a holistic approach to providing optimal health care for the demands of elite student-athletes. Through a complete collaboration between all services provided in the Health and Sports Performance model, Ole Miss is ensured not only healthy student-athletes, but ones that can achieve peak performance. These services include strength and conditioning, athletic training, team physicians, physical therapy, massage therapy, sports psychologist and sports nutrition.

"Our team of Health and Sports Performance professionals strive to provide quality health and sports performance services based on the latest in health and strength training research," said Shannon Singletary, Senior Associate A.D. for Health and Sports Performance. "By doing this we hope to not only provide our student-athletes with a better chance of winning on the field but also give them an opportunity to lead a healthy lifestyle."

Ole Miss Health and Sports Performance has strong working relationships with student health services, local physicians and Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi, which is located just miles from the Oxford campus. The department also taps into its own University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson for world-class treatment from multiple specialties including orthopedics, neurology and cardiology.

The Rebels enjoy a partnership with a team of orthopedic surgeons that includes: Daniel Boyd, M.D.; Kure Luber, M.D. and Cooper Terry, M.D., from Oxford Orthopedic and Sports Medicine, as well as William Geissler, M.D. and Bob McGuire, M.D., from the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Jeff Dennis, M.D., also provides primary care services as a part of the Internal Medicine Associates of Oxford.

Ole Miss' athletic trainers begin treatment and rehabilitation as early as 6 a.m. and are available until the last student-athlete is finished with practice or competition. There are currently six athletic training facilities on campus with the two main athletic training rooms located in the Starnes Athletic Training Center and the Manning Center. In addition, there are four satellite athletic training rooms located in Tad Smith Coliseum, Tuohy Basketball Center, Gillom Sports Center and Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

The main athletic training rooms are stocked with equipment such as digital x-ray systems, stationary bikes, laser therapy equipment, therapeutic modalities, underwater treadmills and Biodex testing equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athletes the best care but also aid in returning them to competition as quickly and safely as possible.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT - ACADEMICS

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best confernences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. Led by Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development Derek Cowherd, the Office of Student-Athlete Development is committed to helping all Ole Miss student-athletes achieve academic success. Cowherd is assisted by two associate directors, three assistant directors, five full-time academic counselors, four learning specialists, two academic interns, a graduate assistant and numerous tutors and academic mentors.

The mission of the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center is to promote academic excellence and provide quality developmental and need-based programs to help student-athletes become independent and self-reliant learners. In an environment that promotes student development, the staff provides programming and support for all student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus through graduation and beyond. Under the direction of Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Development Jennifer Saxon and coordinator Jessica Rizzi, the program consists of these five vital components:

 The Commitment to Academic Excellence is promoted through a full range of services that include orientation, advising, tutoring, academic skills training and the recognition of academic excellence.

- The Commitment to Athletic Excellence is developed by the department's 10 women's and eight men's intercollegiate sports teams. The sponsorship is based on equity and compliance to all University, NCAA and Southeastern Conference rules and regulations.
- The Commitment to Career Development is a joint effort of the Ole Miss Athletics Department and Career Center. The goal is to prepare student-athletes for their transition out of sports and into the career development process. Career development components of the program include special workshops and programs for student-athletes and a senior resume brockure.
- The Commitment to Academic Excellence is promoted through life skills and personal development seminars and sponsorship of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.
- The Commitment to Service is promoted in conjunction with the University Counseling Center through many community service projects throughout the year. Ole Miss studentathletes are very involved in the community as the community service program continues to grow.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

BOOSTER

A representative of the institution's athletics interests (booster) is an individual, independent agency, corporate entity or other organization who is known to have been involved in promoting the institution's athletics programs, made financial contributions to the athletics department or booster organizations or provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes and/or their families. For example, you are a booster if you have donated to the QB Club, purchased season tickets or employed a student-athlete.

EXTRA BENEFIT?

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a booster to provide a student-athlete (or their family) a benefit that is not generally available to other University students or is not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of extra benefits include tickets to sporting events/concerts, reduced cost housing, meals, discounts on services, use of a car, etc. Extra benefits will jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility.

WHO IS A PROSPECT?

A prospect is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above (seventh grade for men's basketball), is attending prep school or junior college or who has withdrawn from a four-year college and plans to transfer. A prospect remains a prospect until they enroll and attend classes for a regular term (i.e. not summer) at the University. This means a prospect remains a prospect even after verbally committing or signing a National Letter of Intent.

WHAT IS INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL?

Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental requirement of NCAA legislation. A University is required to educate boosters on NCAA rules and regulations and monitor the athletics program for adherence to those rules. The University is responsible for the actions of its alumni, boosters and fans. If you have any questions or concerns please contact our office at 662-915-1594.

For current NCAA news and rules follow us on Twitter @RebelCompliance or visit the Compliance web page at www.olemisssports.com.

DR. JEFFREY S. VITTER | CHANCELLOR

Jeffrey S. Vitter became the 17th chancellor of the University of Mississippi on Jan. 1, 2016 — just in time for the exciting Ole Miss win in the 2016 Sugar Bowl.

A renowned computer scientist and academic leader, Vitter previously served for five and a half years as provost, executive vice chancellor and Roy A. Roberts Distinguished Professor at the University of Kansas. As provost, Vitter served as the chief academic and operations officer for the main campus in Lawrence and the Edwards campus in Overland Park. He initiated and co-led the campus-wide development of KU's strategic plan Bold Aspirations and oversaw the creation of the first-ever university-wide KU Core curriculum, expansion of the Schools of Engineering and Business, multidisciplinary research and funding around four strategic initiatives, major growth of technology commercialization and corporate partnerships, and administrative reorganization and efficiencies.

Before joining KU, Vitter was on the faculty in the Department of Computer Science and Engineering at Texas A&M University. At Texas A&M, he served as provost and executive vice president for academics and oversaw the academic mission of the university in Galveston, Texas, and Doha, Qatar.

From 2002 to 2008, Vitter served as the Frederick L. Hovde Dean of the College of Science and professor of computer science at Purdue University, where he led the development of two strategic plans, establishing a dual focus of excellence in core departments and in multidisciplinary collaborations. He oversaw net growth in the college by roughly 60 faculty members and launched the collaborative design of an innovative outcomes-based curriculum.

At Duke University, Vitter held a distinguished professorship as the Gilbert, Louis and Edward Lehrman Professor. He served for eight and a half years as chair of the Department of Computer Science in the College of Arts and Sciences and led it to significant gains in ratings.

From 1980 through 1992, Vitter progressed through the faculty ranks and served in various leadership roles in the Department of Computer Science at Brown University.

In addition to his Chancellor duties, Dr. Vitter will also serve as a Distinguished Professor of Computer & Information Science while at the University of Mississippi. His research expertise deals with big data and data science, especially the algorithmic aspects of processing, compressing and communicating massive amounts of information. He has been elected a Fellow of the Guggenheim Foundation, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Association for Computing Machinery and the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers. He is a National Science Foundation Presidential Young Investigator, a Fulbright Scholar and an IBM Faculty Development Awardee.

A native of New Orleans, Vitter graduated in mathematics with highest honors from the University of Notre Dame in 1977 and earned a Ph.D. under Don Knuth in computer science at Stanford University in 1980. He also holds an MBA in 2002 from Duke University.

Dr. Vitter's wife Sharon is a native Kansan and alumna of KU. Their three children, Jillian, Scott and Audrey, were born in Providence, Rhode Island, and are Notre Dame alumni. Jillian, who also received a medical degree from Georgetown University, is chief resident in anesthesia at the University of Colorado. Scott, a former U.S. Army Ranger, is a graduate student in mechanical engineering at the University of Texas at Austin. Audrey is an associate with G.E. Corporate Audit Staff in Greenville, South Carolina. All are avid sports fans.

ROSS BJORK | ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Ross Bjork and his wife, Sonya, have two boys: Payton (10) and Paxton (6). Bjork was announced on March 21, 2012 as the seventh full-time Director of Athletics at Ole Miss and, at the time, was the youngest AD among power five conference institutions. His four-year tenure with the Rebels has produced a new spirit surrounding Ole Miss Athletics.

Bjork's desire to provide studentathletes with the best opportunity to succeed has resulted in the retention and growth of head coaches Hugh Freeze (football), Andy Kennedy (men's basketball), Mike Bianco (baseball), Mark Beyers (women's tennis) and Matt Mott (soccer), and a roster of eight new head coaches including Matt Insell (women's basketball), Steven McRoberts (volleyball), Mike Smith (softball), Chris Malloy (men's golf), Kory Henkes (women's golf), Connie Price-Smith (track and field/XC) and Marsha Beasley (rifle), while promoting Toby Hansson, one of college tennis' best assistant coaches, to head men's coache also appointed three executive level administrators for external relations, academic support and facilities/qame operations.

The external relations post was a new umbrella position at the center of Bjork's reorganization of that area of Ole Miss Athletics, including the Foundation, ticket operations, marketing and communications and the relationship with Ole Miss Sports Properties. Progress has continued in that division with the rebranding of the Ole Miss Athletics Foundation and a partnership with new multi-media rightsholder, IMG Properties.

Bjork also created the unit for Health and Sports Performance, which combined sports medicine, strength and conditioning, nutrition and counseling services and added a local orthopedic sports medicine component that provides primary sports medicine care for all student-athletes.

Ole Miss has enjoyed unprecedented support under Bjork. The 2016 campaign marks the fourth straight to sell out of football season tickets, while season attendance records have been shattered each of the last three seasons. Baseball finished second in the nation in attendance in 2016, extending a streak of 11 straight seasons in the top five, while softball also experienced a record-breaking year for attendance in 2016. The athletics budget has risen from $57 to $105.8 million in just four years, and another record year for donations is anticipated for 2015-16 that could exceed $45 million. As of June 2016, the Forward Together capital campaign has risen from $62 to $167 million in cash and pledges toward its increased goal of $200 million. The centerpiece of the campaign is the $96.5 Pavilion at Ole Miss, which opened in January 2016 to sell out crowds and a jammed packed student section for each game. Other campaign plans include the north end zone expansion and suite renovations at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in store for the upcoming season, a new outdoor practice complex for football, a new indoor tennis facility, renovation of the Gillom Center, FedEx Academic Support Center and Starnes Athletic Training Center, as well as other future projects.

Bjork's vision in facilities also led to a development plan for the Manning Center, which was renamed to honor Olivia and Archie Manning. The $12.5 million renovation and expansion included the Grill at 1810 (a full service dining facility), the Williams-Reed Football Foyer, Burns team meeting room, VanDevender Family locker room, weight room, player lounge and visuals throughout the complex.

Bjork's leadership has translated to immediate success in the competitive arena. In 2015-16, Ole Miss was the nation's only school to win nine regular-season football games, 20 regular-season men's basketball games and 40 regular-season baseball games, while the 2014-15 campaign saw the Rebels as one only two to make a "New Year's Six" bowl and the NCAA Tournament in men's hoops and baseball. Under Bjork's watch, the football team is one of just five to make the "New Year's Six" in each of the first two years of the playoff.

Other highlights include the first College World Series appearance in 42 years, as the baseball team reached the final four in Omaha and captured the SEC Western Division title in 2014. After a 10-year absence, men's basketball has advanced in the NCAA Tournament two of the last four seasons, including 2013 when it claimed the SEC Tournament Championship. Baseball and men's hoops are among Rebel programs to earn postseason berths under Bjork's watch, along with soccer (Sweet 16 in 2015), men's tennis, women's tennis, men's golf, women's golf, men's track, women's track and softball, which made its first trip to the Big Dance in its 20th year of existence in 2016.

Bjork's reign has featured a trio of national championships, as Sam Kendricks took home the pole vault title at both the 2013 and 2014 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships and Raven Saunders won the 2016 shotput crown. The 2013 SEC West champion men's tennis team also vied for a national title, as the doubles team of Nic Scholtz and Jonas Lutjen advanced to the final four. Men's outdoor track and field registered a programbest eighth-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Championships, while men's tennis finished top-10 in the national polls that season.

Off the field, Bjork established the goal of a cumulative 3.0 GPA among the student-athlete population when he arrived, and the Rebels achieved that for the first time in program history in 2015-16. In the community, student-athletes participated in more than 50 service projects, and baseball student-athlete Brady Bramlett served as Vice-Chair of the NCAA Division Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. Throughout his career, Bjork has placed a great importance on diversity, and in 2013, the athletics department partnered with the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation to establish a Racial Reconciliation Week.

which has taken place every year since 2013.

Bjork has taken a leadership role in the Oxford/University community since his arrival. He is a member of the chancel-lor's leadership team and has served on numerous committees, including the search for a new chancellor and the naming of Chucky Mullins Drive. Bjork has traveled the region each spring speaking to alumni clubs on the Rebel Road Trip and visited more than 15,000 fans in the first four years of the caravan. His commitment to the fanbase has also shown through gameday surveys and annual improvements to help maintain Ole Miss as the premier "bucket list" experience in college sports.

Bjork arrived in Oxford after a stint as Director of Athletics at Western Kentucky University, where he quickly established an atmosphere of success. After Bjork made a midseason coaching change, the Hilltopper men's basketball team went on to capture the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Tournament title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Women's Volleyball won the conference regular season and tournament in 2011 and reached the NCAA tournament each of his last two years, while men's and women's cross country each won conference team titles in 2011. WKU's football program posted the greatest one-season improvement in conference wins in the history of the Sun Belt in posting a 7-1 league mark and second-place conference finish. WKU football also signed the conference's top recruiting class each of his last two seasons.

During his tenure, each of WKU's men's and women's athletic teams exceeded the NCAA required 925 Academic Progress Report Rate (APR), and WKU had more individuals honored for their academic achievements by the Sun Belt Conference than any other institution in 2011-12. For the first time in program history, the overall cumulative average GPA was over 3.0 for all 391 student-athletes and 228 maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Ten of the university's 15 athletic programs posted a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or better.

The youngest athletics director of the 120 NCAA FBS programs when hired at WKU, Bjork has an extensive career in intercollegiate athletics with more than two decades of experience as an administrator and student-athlete, having worked on the senior staffs at UCLA, the University of Miami and the University of Missouri. He began his administrative career at WKU as an Assistant Development Coordinator in 1996-97.

Bjork, 44, is a native of Dodge City, Kan., and received his bachelor's degree in recreation administration from Emporia State University in 1995 where he was a two-year starter at fullback. He earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Western Illinois University in December 1996. Bjork has quickly established a leadership role in the SEC by being appointed as Chair of the awards committee and selected to the NCAA men's basketball oversight committee and the NCAA recruiting cabinet.

In planning your coverage of Ole Miss in 2016, you are asked to review the following information. Contact the Athletics Media & Public Relations office at 662-915-7522 if you have any questions.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: www.sportssystems.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: 1) daily newspapers; 2) network affiliate television stations; 3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have an affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; 4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations.

PARKING

Gameday media parking is located in two locations: 1) garage adjacent to The Pavilion; and 2) lot near Tad Smith Coliseum. Media should check their pass to indicate for which lot they are designated. For passes marked for the garage, each pass is for a specific numbered parking spot. Cars parked in the wrong spot will be towed. Passes marked for Tad Smith Coliseum are for a lot located west of the old arena.

Media parking passes are only applicable on gameday. Parking permits are required for everyone on campus Monday through Friday between 7:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Media that plan to regularly attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events may purchase a Vendor Permit from Campus Parking (www.olemiss.edu/parking), which is good for the full academic year. Those without parking permits are advised to park in a metered spot in the east lot of the Manning Center and feed the meter at $1 per hour. Day passes are available for $3 online to print at www.olemiss.edu/parking/visitors.html. Parking is also available in the garage adjacent to The Pavilion at $2 for the first hour and $1 for each additional hour, up to a $10 maximum charge for a 24-hour period. The garage will accept credit cards only as payment.

MEDIA GATE/WILL-CALL

Media will enter near Gate 30 on the west side of the stadium beginning three and a half (3.5) hours prior to kickoff. The media will-call table will be located there, and photographers will exchange their photo ticket for an armband at this location. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must exchange their photo pass for an armband in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be done at the media will-call table near Gate 30. Gameday flip cards will be available there or in the photo workroom, which is located next to the visiting team locker room off the southeast corner of the field.

Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current studentathletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

SIDELINE ACCESS

Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive at media will-call without proper equipment will not be granted an armband for sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

RECRUITS

Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their official visit, including prospects in attendance at practice or games. In addition, media are forbidden from videoing or photographing prospects during their visit. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

Members of the media covering Ole Miss will be provided with pregame notes for both teams, a flipcard and a game program (upon request).

Approximately 30 minutes following the completion of the game, complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play, postgame notes and quotes from players and coaches will be available.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Ole Miss holds its weekly fall press conference each Monday of the regular season at 11:15 a.m. CT in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center, which is adjacent to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field. Various Ole Miss coaches and staff will take the podium first and will be followed by Coach Hugh Freeze at approximately 11:30 a.m. Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may participate via the telephone beginning at 11:30 a.m. The number for the two-way teleconference may be obtained by contacting the Media & PR office.

SEC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Freeze will be available on the weekly Southeastern Conference teleconference every Wednesday, beginning week one and concluding the final week of the regular season, from 11:20-11:30 a.m. CT. The number is available through the SEC office at 205-348-3000.

PLAYER/ASSISTANT INTERVIEWS

During Game Week

Select players will be available Monday following Coach Freeze's weekly press conference. All media interviews will be held in the team meeting room. Members of the media who wish to interview players on Monday MUST send their request by 3 p.m. CT Sunday to kyle@olemiss.edu.

Select players and assistant coaches will also be available after practice on Tuesday, while Coach Freeze and assistant coaches will be available after practice on Wednesday. There is no availability on Thursday or Friday.

Media may not contact current student-athletes directly under any circumstances.

After Games

For home games, Coach Freeze will hold a postgame press conference in the Burns Team Meeting Room at the Manning Center. Following the press conference, select players and assistant coaches will be available in the same room. Visiting team media availability will take place in the photo workroom, which is located next to the visiting team locker room off the southeast corner of the field.

Media & PR representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. Complete postgame plans will be announced on gameday in the press box by the Media & PR staff. The staff will accompany members of the press wishing to go to the sidelines, beginning with five minutes remaining in the final quarter.

PRACTICES

Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interviews. This includes media who leave practice early. On available days, video is permitted for individual drills only, and media will be alerted which portions of practice (including stretch) are available for video. Use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day. If you have not previously attended practices, please contact the Media & PR office for prior approval and daily alerts on practice locations and times.

AUDIO/VIDEO

Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live, including Periscope and related media, without prior consent of the athletics department. Audio/video use of content from press conferences and media opportunities is limited to five minutes per individual (coach or student-athlete) per day, and use of footage from practices is limited to three minutes per day. This includes content attained via FTP, which should be credited to Ole Miss Athletics.

Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of game highlights and interviews with coaches and players for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Ole Miss Sports Productions at 662-915-3407 or micah@olemiss.edu.

RADIO RIGHTS

The radio rights to Ole Miss Football are provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. Visiting networks planning to originate from Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field are issued credentials by the Ole Miss Athletics Media Relations office. Broadcast lines should be ordered through AT&T (1-877-438-0041). Visiting networks may also wish to contact Cabell Philpott with IMG

TRAVEL

AIRPORTS

Memphis International Airport is located 76 miles north of the university. Jackson-Evers International Airport is 167 miles south of campus.

ACCOMMODATIONS

For hotels, restaurants and general information on Oxford, go to VisitOxfordMS.com. Nearby cities with additional hotel options include Batesville, New Albany, Holly Springs and Grenada, among others.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS

Media traveling to campus should take the Chucky Mullins Drive exit off of Highway 6 and travel north toward the 4-way stop. Media with parking passes for the garage should turn right onto Hill Drive, and media with passes for the other lot should continue straight on Chucky Mullins Drive. Both lots are located on the right side of their respective streets.

IMG

One of the most popular means of keeping track of Rebel Football is tuning in to the Ole Miss Radio Network. The Network offers first-rate broadcasts of every Rebel football game, including a 90-minute pregame show and extensive postgame coverage.

Ole Miss football may be heard throughout Mississippi and portions of the Southeast through services provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. In addition, every game can be heard worldwide over the internet at OleMissSports.com, and on XM Satellite Radio.

"The Voice of the Rebels," David Kellum, returns for his 28th season handling the Ole Miss radio play-by-play call. The veteran broadcaster also serves as the play-by-play announcer for both Ole Miss basketball and base-ball. In 1998, 2000, 2002 2004, 2010, 2011 and 2015, Kellum was honored as the Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year, as voted on by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association members in the state. In August 2006, he received the "Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster" award from the All-American Football Foundation.

Kellum's first link with Ole Miss Athletics was in 1978. As a 19-year-old freshman, he began broadcasting Rebel baseball, and has handled the baseball play-by-play for the past 38 seasons.

Kellum hosts Ole Miss' weekly radio shows for men's basketball and football. He is married to the former Mary Evelyn Kuehn of Oxford. They have two daughters, Stefanie Marie and Staci Michelle.

Harry Harrison, a former All-America selection at safety for the Rebels, provides the color commentary for the broadcast. A letterwinner from 1971-73, Harrison is President of Harry Harrison and Associates in Oxford, Mississippi. He is the father of two sons and a daughter — Nick, Josh and Lyndee.

Richard Cross is the co-host of "Head to Head" on Super Talk Mississippi and a television play-by-play announcer for SEC Network. Cross has 17 years experience in radio and television and has launched two successful statewide, syndicated sports talk radio shows in Mississippi.

Raised in Oxford, and a graduate of The University of Mississippi, Cross is the recipient of two Mississippi Association of Broadcasters Gold Awards and has worked for Fox Sports Radio and the Sporting News Radio Network.

Cross is married to the former Jane Easley of Clarksdale, a pharmacist at The Unversity of Mississippi. The couple has two children, Ava Montgomery and Oby.

Norsworthy began his radio career co-hosting Sportstime in September 1992 on WHBQ in Memphis and has remained a Memphis sports radio fixture throughout the following years. He has been all over the Memphis market hosting various shows with a number of different personalities.

In his radio career, Norsworthy has had the pleasure of covering the SEC beat extensively. He's also covered many of the nation's top sporting events as well as freelance reporting for major networks. He co-hosts "Fish N Stats" on AM 560 and FM 87.7 with Memphis Grizzlies sideline reporter Rob Fischer.

Rounding out the broadcast team is Houston McDavitt, engineer/producer. McDavitt has worked with the radio broadcast for 13 years in a technical role and has been in broadcast engineering for 19 years. This is his eighth year as game engineer/producer for Ole Miss football. He is Director of Engineering for Telesouth Communications and lives in Brandon with his wife, Laura. McDavitt has two sons. ON AIR WITH THE REBELS

The Reb Talk radio show and "The Season: Ole Miss Football" television program are distributed by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications.

The radio show is a weekly one-hour live radio broadcast that allows fans the opportunity to hear from Coach Hugh Freeze and other staff about Ole Miss Football. The show will air every Monday during the season at 7 p.m., live from Buffalo Wild Wings in Oxford.

REBELS ON TELEVISION

On Nov. 13, 1948, WMCT-TV in Memphis telecast the Ole Miss-Tennessee game from Crump Stadium in the "Bluff City."

The game, won by the Rebels, was reported to be the first football game televised from the Mid-South.

The Rebels' first network televised football game was in the 1952 season when they faced Georgia Tech in the 1953 Sugar Bowl on ABC-TV.

Since then, Ole Miss has appeared on 241 regional and national telecasts, and on every major sports network, including ABC, CBS, FOX, NBC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, SEC Network and FSN.

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network which launched August 14, 2014. The new network and its accompanying digital platform carry SEC content 24/7 and featured more than 1,000 live events in its first year.

The network televises more than 45 SEC football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60

women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually. Programming includes in-depth commentary and analysis in studio shows, daily news and information, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, and more

In 2015, Ole Miss appeared on CBS two times, the ESPN famly seven times, the SEC Network three times and ABC once.

The Rebels' history on television has been a storied one. The memorable 1969 Ole Miss-Alabama game, which had national record-setting performances by Rebel quarterback Archie Manning and Tide signal caller Scott Hunter, was one of the first college games televised at night.

Ole Miss has compiled a 121-131-2 record in TV games, and 169 of the telecasts have been to national audiences. The first Rebel game to be televised in color was the 1960 Sugar Bowl when Ole Miss shut out LSU 21-0.

THE SEASON: OLE MISS FOOTBALL

Every week during the football season, Ole Miss gives fans an incredible in-depth view into the program with its Emmy award-winning television program, "The Season: Ole Miss Football."

The show debuts each Wednesday night at 6 p.m. CT during the fall at TheSeasonOleMiss.com, while it airs on several networks and channels throughout the Southeast every week. Check local listings for air dates and times.

Not only does "The Season" give you the highlights of the previous week's game, but it takes you into the locker room, training room, practice fields and class-rooms from the viewpoint of the Rebel student-athletes and coaches. The Ole Miss sports production staff even takes you inside the players' houses, hangouts and hometowns for a truly intimate experience.

The show has picked up numerous awards since its creation in 2011, including Southeast Regional Emmy awards in 2014 and 2015 for best daily or weekly sports program and a Gold AVA Award in 2012 for outstanding achievement by creative professionals involved in the concept, direction, design and production of media.

Since Micah Ginn took the reins as creative director for Ole Miss Sports Productions in 2013, his staff has amassed a total of six Emmy awards among 20 nominations.

Ole Miss produces "The Season" episodes for each of its sports teams, as well as numerous other video pieces like student-athlete features, event promos, highlight packages, commercials, in-venue pieces, as well as live videoboard shows for home sporting events.

Junior quarterback Chad Kelly received the Miller-Digby Award as the Sugar Bowl's Most Outstanding Player after leading the Rebels to a 48-20 win over Oklahoma State on New Year's Day.

Senior tackle Fahn Cooper took home the 2015 Kent Hull Trophy as the most outstanding college offensive lineman in Mississippi.

2015-16 HONORS

Junior wide receiver Laquon Treadwell was a finalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award last season, given to America's top college football receiver.

John Youngblood was selected by the Ole Miss coaching staff as the 2016 recipient of the Chucky Mullins Courage Award. Youngblood (right) is pictured here with head coach Hugh Freeze.

Rebel great Mike Dennis was enshrined as a member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2015.

From left, Ole Miss Athletics Director Ross Bjork along with Lotterhos Service Award Recipient Andy Kilpatrick and 2015 Ole Miss M-Club Hall of Fame inductees Dori Carter, Johnny Neumann, Dawson Pruett, John Shaw and Patrick Willis.

Ole Miss legend Archie Manning received a pair of prestigious honors in 2016. The former All-American quarterback was named the 2016 recipient of the National Football Foundation Gold Medal and received the AutoZone Liberty Bowl's most prestigious recognition, the Distinguished Citizen Award.
